Refugees From Red Tibet Tell Of Troop Atrocities

By A. K. GUPTA

KATHMANDU, Nepal (UPI)—Communist Chinese troops have turned Tibet into a vast prison with thousands of Tibetans being whipped each day in the streets and Buddhist nuns sent to army camps for the pleasure of the troops, refugees fleeing to Nepal reported today.

They said nearly 2,500 Tibetan monasteries were damaged or destroyed by Communist artillery in the past month and nearly 8,000 monks killed, 12,000 arrested and about 800,000 lamas forced to flee mountains and hungry into the plains.

This correspondent traveled through the snow-covered 17,000-foot mountain passes to reach the border of Tibet and interview the refugees. At the Nepal-Tibet border a few miles north of the village of Tarke, I met some refugees who said some of 30 well-armed Chinese divisions in Tibet were led by Russians.

One English-speaking Tibetan named Thote, a 27-year-old graduate of Peiping University, said the Chinese killed 165 members of his clan in the village of Ghetumba in Kham Province. He said he saw his father machine-gunned for refusing to betray other Tibetan patriots.

Thote said that during his flight to Nepal he passed through 65 villages that had been known as good trading centers and that every one was destroyed by the Communists with not a sign of life visible anywhere.

"Every Tibetan was a prisoner," he said. "The whole country was turned into a vast prison. Dusk to dawn curfews were imposed all over Tibet and did not allow normal living.

"Thousands of peaceful, innocent Tibetans were being whipped daily in open places in the course of questioning and inhuman methods were being applied for confession. Mostly the people preferred to confess as desired by the Chinese than stand tortures any longer.

"Markets are closed; essential consumer goods have disappeared; trade is finished, resulting in numberless deaths inside houses from artificial starvation caused by the Chinese. Any mention of devotion to the Dalai Lama was a serious crime and people were being forced to show their entire devotion to the Panchen Lama.

"Large numbers of nuns, who locally are called 'ennis,' have been forced to live in army camps at the pleasure of the Chinese. Several nuns reportedly committed suicide to escape Chinese brutalities."

Lithon, another refugee, said 20,000 Chinese troops were searching each house and every person along the southwestern border of Tibet and that most of the people had fled to the barren plateaus and now were dying of hunger and cold.

"The Chinese have confiscated every ounce of corn available in the area and have scorch-earthed all the standing crops in the field, turning the entire vegetation into ashes," he said.

"Every person must beg food from the Chinese officer at the nearest camp, waiting hours in long unending lines and only those who could satisfy the Chinese of their loyalty managed to get one meal."

Angiani, who lost his wife and three children while escaping, said he saw Russians with the Chinese and believed they were helping the Communists build a big concentration camp at the 17,000-foot level at the northern base of Mt. Everest.

Mining Phase Discontinued

LAKEVIEW—Underground mining operations were discontinued recently and the Lakeview Mining Company has entered into a contract agreement with the Isbell Construction Company of Reno for open pit production of uranium ore at the White King mine, as announced by James F. Poulos, general manager.

Salvage of the rails, pipe, machines, ore cars and other equipment below ground is being carried on by the men.

The Isbell Company is to be on the site in about four weeks with a full crew to begin expanding the stripping area already opened by the local company. The initial stripping will cover an area 700 by 400 feet. The contracting firm has stated that it will try to hire all the men possible from the present Lakeview mining crew.

The change from underground ore production was made necessary by the problems presented by heavy ground conditions.

Operations at the reduction plant will continue without change, and ore haul from the White King will continue to be made by the Lakeview Logging Company.

A meeting of the partners in the Lakeview Mining Company was held in Lakeview last week. They made the trip here with Dr. Garth Thornburg, president of the group, who flew to Denver and then to Gunnison to meet them. Included were Perry Bass and Mrs. Bass of Fort Worth, Texas; Vance Thornburg, Grand Junction, Colorado; George Nicoud of Dallas, Texas, representing John Murchison, who could not be present; and George Kruger of New York City, representing Chase Manhattan Bank.
