Mothers Tea Held In Weed

WEED—Plans for a "Mom-Dad" social to follow the Weed Union Elementary eighth grade graduation June 4 were made at the annual Mothers Tea held Thursday afternoon at the multi-purpose room of the school.

Nearly 40 mothers of the eighth grade students were entertained and heard speakers, Carl Hobert, Weed High School principal and Mrs. Marian Newberry, Weed school nurse. Mr. Hobert outlined curriculum and activities of the Weed High School. Mrs. Newberry detailed the need of a health examination for a girl or boy before entering high school.

Mothers attending decided the graduation attire, discussed the plans for a banquet which will precede a movie treat Monday night, June 1, by the Weed Parent Teacher Association and the after-graduation social.

Coffee, tea and cookies were served at quartet tables appointed with vases of spring flowers. Eighth grade girls serving were Kathy Tallierica, Cinda Lu Gaynor, Cathey Whalley, Judy Lee, Jeanne Leporini and Joan Bender.
