

ICBM, Inter Chapter Barbershop Missile, landed at the Klamath Falls Afterglow party April 18 at the Willard Hotel. It was presented to John Houston, general chairman of the show, by L. C. Lavacheck of Oswego.

The missile was launched in Marblehead, Massachusetts, November 12, 1958. ICBM, still functioning, was launched, orbited and guided to Eugene where it was presented April 25 to Bud Leabo, director of the famed Cascade Chorus at the regional SPEBSQSA contest.

The purpose of the missile is to stimulate closer relations between the society's 650 chapters across the nation. Its flight will take it to Canada, Alaska, Hawaii and Panama.

District Officer Visits Auxiliary

YREKA—A school of instruction was given by District Deputy Grand Matriarch Ruth Hammond of Fort Jones, when she made her official visit to the Siskiyou Ladies Encampment Auxiliary's recent meeting presided over by Mrs. Winifred Kirkpatrick, chief matriarch.

Mrs. Hammond, and District Grand Patriarch Ted Brown of Mount Shasta were escorted into the lodge room by acting marshal Lucile Baker, past chief matriarch.

Matriarchs Clara Henderson, Winifred Kirkpatrick and Alice Singleton made a presentation to Mrs. Hammond.

During the business session, plans were discussed for the official visit of grand matriarch of California, Theresa Collins, which is scheduled for May 5.

Following the adjournment of the meeting, members retired to the banquet room for refreshments served by Mrs. Marie Bulis, Mrs. Clara Henderson and Mrs. Alice Singleton.

ATTEND INSTALLATIONS

Several officers of Friendship Court No. 11 Order of Amaranth, Royal Matron Fannie May Thompson, Royal Patron Elmer Vincent and Mrs. Laura Vincent, Associate Patron William N. Goen and Mrs. Alice Goen, attended installations of 1959-1960 officers of three different Willamette Valley clubs over the weekend. The group first visited the Douglas Court No. 18 at Roseburg on Saturday and then the Willamette Court No. 2 and the Emerald Court No. 28 both of Eugene on Sunday.

SITTING IN THE AUDIENCE instead of singing with the Barbershop chorus for the first time in many years was Earl Hamaker pictured above with his wife. The Hamakers have just returned from an extended motor trip of the Southern states and Florida where they visited their daughter and her family.

CALIFORNIA VISIT

FORT KLAMATH—Mrs. Walter J. (Pete) Wright of Fort Klamath left Tuesday, April 21, by train from Klamath Falls on a trip to California where she will visit in Redwood City with her daughter and family, the John McGlyns. Later she will spend some time at Berkeley Hills with her sister and husband, the Earl Hanways, of Casper, Wyoming. The Hanways residents of Casper, spend several months at their second home in California, where Mrs. Wright visits them annually. Hanaway is owner of the Casper "Tribune-Herald" and also manages a radio station. Mrs. Wright's two brothers, Jack W. and C. F. Perry, are, respectively, president and general manager, and secretary - treasurer of the newspaper. A third brother, Joe Perry, is a resident of Klamath Falls.

'Afterglow' Climaxes SPEBSQSA Performance

MARK BEACH poses with his wife at the Afterglow party in the Willard Hotel following the Barbershop theater program. He is a member of the popular quartet, Lake Oswego Four, from Oswego, Oregon. The four have been singing together for 15 years.

A fitting climax to an outstanding theater performance of Barbershop Quartets was the Afterglow party held in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel.

A large crowd arrived at the hotel immediately following the concert, anxious to hear more of the fine singing of the various groups.

New friendships were made and old ones renewed at the social hour arranged by Louis Stewart, chairman of the evening affair, to precede the lavish smorgasbord buffet.

After guests were seated for dinner several late evening hours were filled with fun and song provided by visiting and local groups.

L. C. Lavacheck, member of the Lake Oswego Four, was master of ceremonies. Among the quartets he called on beside his own were the Capitol Chordsmen of Salem, Bay Town Four, Berkeley, California, Four-Do-Matics, Seattle, Sea Clefs, Coos Bay and the Incidentals of the Klamath Falls Sweet Adelines.

Guests left the hotel with mixed emotions knowing that this possibly could be the last such event to be held in the city.

Wabeno Council

WEED — Toys, usable with repair, are being collected by members of the Wabeno Council 231, degree of Pocahontas as a Christmas project. Plans to begin the toy repair program were made at the regular meeting of the council held Friday night, April 3, at the White Pine Hall, Dorothy Sottana, Pocahontas, presided.

An invitation to attend Iona Council No. 11 of Yreka was received and read. The Yreka meeting Thursday night, April 23, will be official visitation of the Great Pocahontas, Mickie Artz.

The special coin award of the evening went to Mrs. Carolyn Oates. The dime awards were received by Mrs. Geneva Hildreth and Mrs. Virginia Anderson.

Refreshments were served by the Pocahontas, Mrs. Sottana, and Mrs. Nella Wade.

LADIES ENCAMPMENT AUX. Ladies Encampment Auxiliary was called to order by the Chief Matriarch Alice Lawrence April 10 in the IOOF hall, with 11 officers responding to roll call.

John Schneebarger was reported in Barnes Veterans Hospital, Vancouver, Washington.

Eva Roberts was appointed district deputy grand matriarch for the coming year.

Cordelia Cantrall and Alice Lawrence will serve as hostesses at the next meeting.
