

MRS. BILL DALTON, Jr., left, is chairman of the Catholic Daughters of America social meeting to be held Tuesday evening, April 28, in the parish hall of St. Augustine's Church in Merrill. Mrs. Dalton is pictured with her sister, Mrs. Carl Coulson, who will assist in the preparation for the evening of entertainment which will start at 8 o'clock. The committee is composed of members of Catholic Daughters living in Merrill, Malin and Tulelake.

MARYETTA DORRELL is engaged to Ray Thomas Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Parker of Malin, Oregon. The announcement was made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Dorrell of this city. No date has been set for the wedding.

TOWN NAMED FOR WIDOWS

WIDOWVILLE, Ohio (U-P)—Historians say this Ashland County community is so named because a number of Civil War widows once lived in it. The population is now 20.

Senior Girls Honored By BPW

The Business and Professional Women's Club honored high school senior girls of Klamath Basin with a dessert Monday evening at the Willard Hotel. Past presidents of BPW were hostesses.

President Alice Gallup welcomed the guests and Louise Mitchell, program chairman, gave the introduction.

The schools represented were Gilchrist, Chiloquin, Henley, Merrill, Malin, Bonanza, Sacred Heart Academy and KUHS.

In keeping with the spring theme large daisies decorated the walls and carnation corsages were given each guest. Huge criss and yellow tulips formed an unusual background for the stage. Models for the style show presented by Why-ta's passed by white iron garden benches and lantern trees as they descended the ramp and paraded the length of the room.

Kathleen Ward commented on each of the lovely fashions as they were shown by Karen Lindley, Maureen Lummus, Myrna Frewing, Claudia Lane, Dana Reed, Nancy Warren, Kay and Rea Rotrock, twin sisters, Judy Angstead, Jean Gasperini, Joyce Lubki, Carol Baker, Jerry Ruth Wickersham, Viola James, Joan Winer, Jackie Williams, Margaret Gallagher, Angela Reeder, May Ann Olson, Diane Jozewski and Patty Miller.

Incidental music was played at the organ by Lynette Phelps. Margaret Sheridan sang a solo, "Falling in Love." Her accompanist was Marie Obenchain.

Prosperity Lodge

At the last regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge, presided over by Noble Grand Velma Krauss, the major part of the evening was devoted to initiation ceremonies. Initiates included Mary Ann Neat, Waive Howard, Norma Meyrick, Eva Gomera, Myrtle Robin, Dora Skeen and Delphine Bergloff. Daisy Crawford also became a member of Prosperity Lodge by transfer of membership.

The beautiful new robes worn by members participating in the various tableaux were made by the noble grand, Velma Krauss.

A committee on resolutions was appointed in commemoration of the passing of Sister Katie Whiteline. Those appointed are Nina Beck, Margaret Bieden and Ramona Hanks.

Helen Blannas, vice grand, announced that the Odd Fellows will celebrate their 140 anniversary on Saturday, May 9, with a reception and program to which all members and friends are cordially invited.

Spring blossoms decorated the dining room tables where refreshments were served following the meeting by Irene Rickman and her committee.

NATIVE SON

DETROIT (UPI)—Charlie Burns, rookie center of the Detroit Red Wings, is the only United States-born player in the National Hockey League this season. Burns was born in Detroit but his family later moved to Toronto.

A JULY WEDDING is being planned by Meta Collins and Dee Valentine. Their engagement was announced this week by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Collins of Chiloquin. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Ruby Pade and the late Marion Valentine. —Photo by Ferebee
