Dodgers Command Top Spot; Don Drysdale Whips Pirates

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Virtually no one but the other players in the National League considered the Los Angeles Dodgers a threat for the pennant. And even the players would shrug when they explained that the Dodgers "were too good to be seventh last year."

So who's in first? The Dodgers. They made it a one-game lead Monday night, whipping Pittsburgh 9-3 with a five-run first inning. That supplied all the cushion Don Drysdale needed to beat the Pirates for the first time since 1957.

It was the lanky right-hander's third consecutive victory after losing his first decision and he did it with a six-hitter.

That was the only game played in the majors Monday. Only two others were scheduled, both in the NL, and both were postponed by rain.

Manager Fred Haney's planned benching of left fielder Wes Covington and shortstop Johnny Logan was shelved when his defending Charlie Neal, his second of the night and the last in a string of seven he began Sunday in St. Louis.

That gave Drysdale a 7-0 lead before the Pirates bunched three hits for a sixth-inning run, on Smoky Burgess' double. They got their other two in the ninth, on another Burgess double, two walks and a pair of outs before Drysdale ended it by making Ramon Mejias his seventh strikeout victim.

Mile Run To Trim Hopefuls

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The boom or bust Kentucky Derby hopes of 16 three-year-olds go on the line today in the Derby Trial, final tuneup before Saturday's $125,000-added classic.

The top eight or ten performers in the trial, split into two divisions for the first time, probably will be among those going in the Derby.

But today's mile run is likely to convince owners of the lesser lights their charges don't rate an appearance in the mile-and-a-quarter run for the roses at Churchill Downs Saturday.

The Derby picture remains wide open.

Still to be accounted for are up to nine other possible starters now in the barns at the historic track.

The trial gives a tempting East-West flavor. Finnegan, standard bearer of California, heads the field of eight in the first division at early odds of 8 to 5. And First Landing, last year's two-year-old champ from the East, is an even-money favorite to win the second.

Both will carry 122 pounds compared with Derby weight of 126. Each division is worth $15,000-added money.

Two colts are expected to give Finnegan a real fight. Royal Orbit, another California contender, is rated a 7-2 choice with Jockey Bill Hartack riding. Chris Rogers will ride Bayard Sharp's Troilus, the Flamingo winner going off at early odds of 9-2.

Finnegan, owned by Neil S. McCarthy, will have veteran Johnny Longden up.

Mrs. Jacques Braunstein's Royal Orbit, Cain Hoy Stable's Hoist Away and Briardale Farm's Rico Tesio carry 116 pounds. Mosby from Llangollen Farm and Holt-singer and Davis' Bernattar carry 114, and Elkcam Stable's Open View has 115 pounds.

Eddie Arcaro, winner of five Derbys, will ride Christopher T. Chener's First Landing. Claiborne Farm's Dunce with 114 pounds is rated the second choice in this division at 5 to 2, with Steve Brooks up. Our Dad, 116 pounds, ridden by Pete Anderson, is another contender.

champion Milwaukee Braves had to call off their game with the Chicago Cubs. The San Francisco Giants, in third place but only a game shy of the Dodgers along with the second place Braves, also were idled by rain, at Philadelphia.

Bums 9, Bucs 3

The Dodgers, with Gil Hodges the only holdover from the old guard in the line-up, chased winless George Witt, the sophomore who figured predominantly in Pittsburgh's pennant plans, before he retired a man. That left the young right-hander with an 0-3 record and put the Pirates seventh, four games off the pace.

Witt, again troubled by a painful elbow this spring, walked the first two men he faced, then left after Wally Moon beat out an infield hit and Don Demeter lined a two-run single. Don Zimmer also singled home a pair and Drysdale singled home another before reliever Ron Blackburn retired the side.

Hodges tripled home a run in the fourth for the Dodgers, who had 11 hits, and they counted another in the fifth on a single by

Yankee Standing Sub-Par

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Not since 1952 have the New York Yankees been a sub-.500 ball club going into their first meeting with the west in an American League pennant race. But that's the way the defending world champions stand as they open a 10-game tour at Chicago tonight.

With the Yankees having their troubles, the western clubs dominate the standings. The Baltimore Orioles, still chirping after a three-game sweep at New York, have the unfamiliar role of spearheading the invasion by the eastern teams.

The Cleveland Indians, holding only a one-game lead over Chicago after the White Sox swept the last three in a four-game, weekend series, are at home to the Boston Red Sox, tied with the Yankees for fifth. The Orioles open at Detroit and the Washington Senators play at Kansas City.

The Yankees, with a 6-7 record and a four-game losing string, send Bob Turley (1-2) against the White Sox' Ray Moore (0-1).

With his Yankees below .500 for the first time at any stage of the race since 1934, Manager Casey Stengel conceded that "a lot of things are wrong, and I just gotta do something." One move might be the return of Gil McDougald to shortstop, with Tony Kubek going to the bench.

McDougald has been out of the lineup for more than a week, after being hit on the hand by a pitch. Kubek, whose Army discharge came shortly before the season began, apparently was the man Stengel had in mind when he mentioned that "too many grounders are getting between third and short."

The Tigers, who had been expected to claim a first division spot, were given a pat on the back by Manager Bill Norman despite the frustration of a second six-game losing streak. "It's almost amazing," he said, "how these guys are holding up. They haven't been pretty, and they know it. But they haven't quit."

Injured Boxer Has Operation

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A team of surgeons performed an emergency head operation on boxer Gene Tippet, 24, of Pittsburgh, Monday night after he was knocked out in the seventh round of a featured eight-rounder. He was in critical condition today at Episcopal Hospital.

Carl Hubbard of Philadelphia knocked Tippet down with a hard left hook the jaw. Tippet's head hit the canvas.

Hubbard floored Tippet four times—twice in the fourth round, once in the fifth and the final time in the seventh.

Oregon Edges Vandals, 7-6

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Oregon took exclusive first in the Northern Division Pacific Coast Conference baseball standings as the Webfoots edged Idaho 7-6 and Washington lost 7-4 to Washington State Monday.

This left Oregon with a 4-1 record and Washington second at 5-2. Walt Baranski led Oregon's 11-hit assault with four hits, including two home runs, in four times at bat. Idaho also garnered 11 hits.

The Vandals moved into a two-run lead in the ninth when Ron Zwitter doubled, Jack Blossom singled and Cliff Trout added another one-bagger that brought both Zwitter and Blossom home. Oregon's half of the ninth started with singles by Baranski and Ron Walp, followed by a single by Elis Olson that allowed Baranski to score when the throw to first went wide.

Then Jim Bode singled, Butch Nysen hit another that scored a pinch runner for Walp and then Olson scored on a wild pitch. Idaho 003 100 002—6 11 1

Surprising Sacramento Nervously Eyeing San Diego Padres, Phoenix Giants' Bid

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The surprising Sacramento Solons are still atop the Pacific Coast baseball league, but glancing nervously back at the tireless San Diego Padres and the fast-climbing Phoenix Giants.

Sacramento was shut out by Portland 4-0, in one of the two PCL games to go to a decision last night.

Defending champion Phoenix climbed into a fourth place tie with a 6-3 victory over Vancouver. San Diego and Seattle hooked up in a marathon that was called by curfew after the 18th inning with the teams tied 1-1. Spokane at Salt Lake City was postponed by wet grounds.

Sacramento outfielder Al Iltis made his first error in 162 games after the Solons had faltered and fallen behind the Beavers. Two runs came in in the eighth when Heist juggled Nini Tornay's hot-hit grounder.

Howie Reed allowed only three hits in registering his second straight win for Portland and Bob DiPietro started things off with a home run in the first.

Phoenix, who spent much of opening week looking up from the PCL cellar, combined home run hitting with tight pitching into a step up the league ladder.

Solo homers by Dusty Rhodes and Jose Pagan gave the Giants more than enough of a victory margin. Pagan also got a double and single while running his hit string to 13 games.

Don Choate allowed only five hits before he was relieved with a sore shoulder in the seventh and Julio Navarro let the Mounties have only two more.

After allowing San Diego to post one run on a combination of a walk, sacrifice and two wild pitches, Seattle evened it in the ninth when Gale Wade's triple brought in a runner—on through a walk.

Ramirez Claude Osteen lasted 12 innings and Padre Bobby Locke 12 in their unsettled pitching duel. The game will be replayed at a later date.

Local Archers Begin Plans For Nationals At Fall River

Despite a raw wind and occasional spats of rain, Klamath Archers, Inc., held the slated invitational archery tournament at Moore Park on Sunday.

Members of all the Southern Oregon and Northern California archery clubs had been invited to come to Klamath Falls and participate. Eighty-one registered to shoot.

Several names new to local archery circles appear on the list of winners.

Merle Hodge of Klamath Archers won first place, Frank Lady of Chiloquin, second and Dean Campbell of Yreka, third in men's instinctive division.

In men's freestyle, H. J. Valentine of Grants Pass took first; Dale Baxter, Klamath Falls, second and Royal Darnel of Nubieber, California, was third.

In the women's instinctive, Gerry Williamson of Medford won first; Beth Pohl, Chiloquin, second and Lucille Oetken, Medford, third. In women's freestyle, Audrey Baxter of Klamath Falls placed first.

Junior boys' was won by Robert Deering of Klamath Archers. Lyle Hall took second place and Randy Oetken, third.

Junior girls event was won by Carolyn Sample of Klamath Archers. Second place went to Ann Baxter, also of Klamath Falls and third to Susan Gifford of Medford.

The pee wee event was won by Dennis Campbell of Yreka. Second place was taken by Bobby Pohl, Chiloquin and third by Ken Foster, Canyonville.

Klamath Archers will hold a polo-luck dinner meeting at the Moore Park range on Thursday evening, May 7. At that time the arrows which were turned in to the club last year will be sold in small bunches to the highest bidders.

Work parties are planned by members of the Klamath Archers to help get the Fall River range set up for the national convention which will be held July 27, 28, 29 and 30. Dale and Audrey Baxter have moved their trailer house to the site and make almost weekly trips to assist in laying out the range. The work parties will be held May 9 and 10 and May 23 and 24.

There is a 3,000-foot landing strip just seven-eighths of a mile from Fall River Lodge and plans are in the works to install gasoline pumps for private planes.

The lodge is 15 miles from La-Pine and about 25 miles from Bend. The national president, Karl E. Palmatier of Hickory Corners, Michigan, is expected to attend the annual national shoot.

Harvards Nix Need For Diets

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Yes, m'am. You say you've got a budding young athlete in the family and you want to know if there's any special diet he should follow?

Not at all, says a panel of Harvard University scientists.

What about special diets followed by some athletes?

Hokus pokus, replies the panel. Should you load up the athlete on milk and red meat?

No more than anyone else, the panel says.

And the same holds true for the mature athlete. That was the conclusion a panel of dieticians reached Monday night at the Harvard Faculty Club.

"I know of nothing that would put the nutrition of an athlete on any other footing than that of any other healthy human being," said Dr. Jean Mayer, associate professor of nutrition at the Harvard School of Public Health.

But he and Dr. Frederick Stare, head of the Department of Nutrition, made one distinction between the diet needs of an athlete and those of a less active nature: The athlete may need more of the same.

Both stressed that all that is needed is just "a simple, balanced diet." Stare added a variety of foods is desirable, meat or fish, fruit and vegetables and some oils.

As to some of the special, particular eating habits followed by some athletes, Mayer had this to say: "Weird diets are apt to be successful just because the boys believe it has a magic quality."

Hershey Hoping To Finish Series

HERSHEY, Pa. (UPI) — The Hershey Bears could put a finish to the American Hockey League playoffs when they meet the Buffalo Bisons on their home ice tonight. The Bears lead the best-of-seven series, 3-2.

The Bisons, having beaten the Bears, 9-4, at Buffalo Sunday, are faced with the difficult task of taking two straight games in order to win. A win tonight by Buffalo would tie the series at 3-3 and the final game would be played at Buffalo.
