Roseburg To Host Women's Clubs State Convention

The 44th state convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in Roseburg May 4, 5 and 6 with headquarters in the Hotel Umpqua. Mrs. Walter Brown of Klamath Falls, state president of the federation, will preside at all sessions which will be held in the Elks auditorium. It is expected that 350 delegates will represent the federation's 104 clubs throughout the state.

The principal speaker of the convention will be Mrs. Carroll E. Miller of Missoula, Montana, second vice president of the general federation of women's clubs. She has chosen as her theme the "Oregon Centennial."

A formal banquet will be held on the first evening, May 4, at the Roseburg Women's Club. Raymond E. Ellickson, physics professor at the University of Oregon will speak on "Science and the Citizen."

Among the Klamath Falls ladies attending the convention besides Mrs. Brown will be Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, Mrs. Loren Palmerton, Mrs. Carl Mason and Mrs. Addie Mae Nixon.

District Officer Visits Rebekahs

ADIN — Mystic Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 85 of Adin was honored Tuesday night, April 21, with an official visit by Mrs. Lloyd Criss of Adin, deputy president of District No. 49 of the Rebekah Assembly of California.

Arrangements of spring flowers were used in the lodge room decorations and for the refreshment tables.

Mrs. Criss is secretary for the lodge but an invitation to Juliet Rebekah Lodge No. 25 at Bieber, California, was secretly handled so that attendance of its members would be a surprise to Mrs. Criss Tuesday night when she performed her last official task for her home lodge as district deputy president.

Mrs. Grace Vogt read an original poem as she presented Mrs. Criss with a gift on behalf of her staff, followed by the members singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow" to the piano accompaniment by Mrs. Delia Duker of Nubieber.

Mrs. Duker has been recommended by all four lodges in the district for its deputy next year. She will attend the state convention at Long Beach as a delegate from Juliet Lodge.

Mrs. Charles Demick of Alturas, California, Rebekah Assembly Heart Fund chairman of Area No. 3, thanked the members for their help in the Heart Sunday drive. She also thanked Mrs. Alice Wayman, past district deputy president, for a large number of discarded eye glasses which she had solicited, and which will be reconditioned for distribution to needy people. This is a project of the Past District Deputy Presidents Association of District No. 49.

Mrs. Criss will pay an official visit to the lodge in Bieber on Tuesday night, April 28.

Reames Formal Set For Saturday

A spring time setting featuring May poles and spring blossoms will greet members and guests of Reames Country Club who attend the formal dinner dance Saturday, May 2.

The club will be host at the social hour from 7 until 8 o'clock. A chicken dinner will be served from 8 to 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wells, social chairman, ask that reservations be made by calling Ben at the club, TU 4-6531.

Also on the social calendar for the week is the family game night and spaghetti dinner on Thursday. The evening, planned for families, will end at 9:30 in time for children's bedtime.

GOC Member Bid Farewell

MONTAGUE — Several former members of the Montague Ground Observer Corps gathered at the home of Mrs. Vera Clement on Monday evening, April 20, for a farewell potluck dinner and surprise handkerchief shower, given in honor of Mrs. Helen Henry, who had been active with the post as an assistant chief observer. Mr. and Mrs. Henry are moving from Montague to Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mrs. Clement had highlighted the center of the long dining table with a model of a jet plane, with other appropriate decor for the occasion.

The evening was spent mainly in visiting, and following the dinner, Mrs. Betty Dow, former post supervisor, presented all present with special certificates and cards from the Air Force, indicating such person as being recognized as an honorary life member of the "Air Defense Team," for voluntary and faithful service in the Ground Observer Corps.

Mrs. Clement then presented Mrs. Henry with a foil-covered basket, filled to capacity with many beautiful handkerchiefs.

Others present, in addition to those mentioned included Charlotte Davis, Katy Campbell, Gloria Cavin, Mrs. George Flock, Mrs. Earl Flock, Joyce Foster, Rita Pather, Doris Owens, Irene Paul, Josephine Silva, Myrtle Widner, Marie Russell, Edith Williams and Ruth Williams. Junior members of the GOC present included Janice Paul and Carolyn Havens. Also present were Donna and Loren Aubrey, and Christine and Christopher Havens.

WABENA COUNCIL

WEED — A Mother's Day party and a potluck supper was planned for the May 1 meeting of Wabena Council 231, degree of Pocahontas, at the regular meeting on Friday night, April 16. An exchange of secret pal gifts will highlight the after meeting social hour for the Mother's Day event.

Mrs. Alma Killingsworth acted as Pocahontas in the absence of Mrs. Dorothy Sottana and with the members attending planned to attend the April 25 district meeting slated in Anderson.

The coin award for the April 16 meeting was received by Mrs. Rita Renning and dimes were given to Mrs. Silvia Cardoza and Mrs. Anita Pimental.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Geneva Hildreth and Mrs. Virginia Anderson.

FLOWERED BONNET

The latest flowered cap is the flowered rain bonnet. It's a pretty sight on a drab, rainy day.

EASY BEAUTY FOR WOOD FLOORS

World's largest maker of hardwood floors gives helpful tips

It's so easy to have rich looking wood floors when you know the right way to care for them. After years of testing, we found that a unique combination of dry cleaning ingredients and liquid wax work best and easiest.

You simply pour a little Bruce on the floor and the toughest marks, dirt and old wax wipe away easily. All the dirt comes up on the cloth. Lots of clean, rich wax remains on the floor. A light buffing and you're through in half the usual time—with no messy scrubbing. Heavy traffic areas can be touched up again and again without redoing the entire floor.

We recommend BRUCE CLEANING WAX for a rich coat of wax and BRUCE FLOOR CLEANER where less wax is desired. Both work clean-as-you-wax wonders on linoleum, too. Try this easy method next time you wax and see the beautiful difference.

FREE FLOOR CARE BOOKLET! Gives valuable tips on the care of wood, cork, linoleum, vinyl, asphalt tile, rubber tile, terrazzo and ceramic floors. Also wood panelling. Write today to E. L. Bruce Co., Memphis, Tenn., for free copy.

THIS JACKET DRESS of Sanforized cotton is most serviceable and convertible to many occasions. The weskit-type jacket tops a classic sunback dress. Fashion interest centers in the novel texture weave of the cotton fabric which travels well, resists shrinking and needs little or no ironing. This popular model is now available in many stores.

INDIGO BLUE

Indigo blue is showing up in both patent leather shoes and handbags for spring. This is a shade somewhat lighter and more brilliant than navy.

Lawn Party Marks Birthday

FORT JONES — A lawn party on April 16 celebrated the fifth birthday anniversary of Sherry Glendenning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Glendenning.

Balloons, placed on the flowering apple tree in the yard, floated down for the young guests to enjoy. Several games were played and sand pails and shovels were awarded the winners.

The birthday cake was decorated with pink roses and five little ballerina dolls. Punch and ice cream were served with the cake.

Guests at the party were Marcie and Melanie Eastlick, David and Kathy Evans, Debbie and Robin Erickson, Patty Walker, Elaine Burton, Mikey Mills, Patty Berry, Mary Gifford, Bobby Sheffield of Grass Lake and Patty Teasley of Yreka.

Mothers at the party were Mrs. Jane Booth, Mrs. Evelyn Walker, Mrs. Mary Berry, Mrs. Shirley Eastlick, Mrs. Alice Clark, Mrs. Dorothy Reynolds, Mrs. Julia Erickson and Mrs. Bonnie Sheffield. Sherry's grandmother, Mrs. Violet Glendenning, was also a guest.
