RETIRING SUPERVISORS William J. Burnett and Walter Smith received words of gratitude for their many years of service recently and were presented pen sets by Lloyd Gift, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Langell Valley Soil Conservation District. Bill Burnett was appointed a district supervisor on March 30, 1944, and was subsequently elected to this position several times. He served as secretary-treasurer of the board through most of his 15 years service. Walter Smith was appointed a district supervisor April 20, 1945, and was subsequently elected to this office until his retirement. Smith has been responsible for the operation of the district's heavy equipment for many of his 14 years service. Walter Smith Jr. and Harold Williams were elected to fill the supervisor positions at the district's annual meeting in March, 1959. — Photo by SC5
