

Air-Sea Probe Terminated

PANAMA (AP)—The Organization of American States ended its four-nation air-sea search for new invasion attempts against Panama's coast Monday night.

OAS military observers prepared to pull out as Panamanian officials said reports of new mystery landings on Panama's Pacific coast appeared false.

A government spokesman said that some 30 men who reportedly landed in small boats Saturday night at Bahia Honda, 150 miles from Panama City, may have been fishermen.

Air observers spotted the landings while scanning the shores for any further invasion attempt by forces opposing President Ernesto de la Guardia's government.

The United States, Colombia, Ecuador and Guatemala participated in the OAS patrol, which was ordered after about 90 Cubans enlisted by Panamanian opponents of De la Guardia landed last week on the Caribbean coast. The popular uprising they expected didn't materialize, and the invaders surrendered last Friday.

The patrol force included 21 U.S. planes, most of them based in the Canal Zone. The U.S. minesweeper Falcon, destroyer Robinson and a U.S. Army boat.

The award, being presented by George Kirkpatrick, manager of the South Sixth Street Safeway Store, was from Safeway Stores Inc. Patty, 15, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Burleigh. Summer school will be held on the Oregon State College campus, Corvallis.

Injured Red Tar Able To Talk

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—A Soviet seaman, unconscious when rushed here in an international air-sea mercy mission nearly a month ago, is now talking—both Russian and English.

Evgeni Ivanovich Gneushev, 23, Vladivostok, "has completely regained his ability to speak," a bulletin from Elmendorf Air Force Base Hospital said Monday.

Gneushev was transferred to the hospital here April 3 by U.S. Coast Guard cutter and amphibian, four days after he was injured in a fall into a hold of a Soviet refrigerator ship.

Rainwater Danger Told

By DONALD SHANOR

LONDON (UPI)—Discovery of radioactive rainwater on a Danish island caused new concern today in Britain where Prime Minister Harold Macmillan was to tell Parliament about the dangers of atomic fallout.

Danish health authorities Monday ordered Saltholm Island inhabitants not to drink their rain water because it was polluted with radioactivity "beyond the danger limit." They started importing drinking water today.

The pollution was attributed to fallout from Russian nuclear explosions in Siberia.

A new report by an official British medical commission said, meanwhile, that the benefits from X-rays far outweighed the risks of radiation from them. The report was based on examination of 3,000 cases in 140 hospitals.

Macmillan told Parliament last week that man-made radioactivity was not dangerous at the moment.

Eight Labor members of Parliament and two Conservatives immediately filed questions asking clarification.

Danish authorities indicated the ban on drinking water for Saltholm Island inhabitants was only temporary. Residents of the island, situated in the Oeresund Strait between Denmark and Sweden, depend on rain water for drinking purposes. Wells bring in salt water.

Special Session Called; Jury To Ponder Rape Case

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—The Leon County grand jury has been summoned into special session Wednesday to consider the case of four white men charged with the mass rape of a Negro co-ed.

The jury had been scheduled to take up the case June 1, but the date was shoved up by Circuit Court Judge W. May Walker at the request of State Atty. William D. Hopkins because of "the great public interest."

The four are in the county jail. They have made no request for arraignment or bond.

"We would resist any request for bond between now and Wednesday," Hopkins said.

Florida A. & M. University students who boycotted classes Monday as part of a demonstration to focus attention on the case said they would return to school today.

Another mass meeting was called for tonight.

The 19-year-old Tallahassee girl was taken from her escort at gunpoint early Saturday following a college dance. A sheriff's deputy captured the four men after a 95-mile an hour chase. The girl, bound and gagged, was still in their car. Florida forbids publication of a rape victim's name.

Those arrested were Patrick G. Scarborough, 20, Tallahassee, an Air Force man on leave from a change in station from Alaska; William Collinsworth, 24, a telephone lineman; David Ervin Bagley, 18, a high school student; and Ollie Stoutamire, 16.

Florida's maximum penalty for a rape conviction is death. No white man has gone to the state's electric chair for raping a Negro.

Space Trip Set For Ape

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The United States will fire a live animal, probably an ape, into space within the next 60 days, says the chief of the Army's space program.

Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris, commander of the Army Ordnance Missile Command, did not say what type of animal would ride in the nose cone of a Jupiter missile, but he indicated the best guess would be a monkey.

He told of the coming venture at a news conference Monday.

The launching will be another step in the program aimed to put a man in space. An effort will be made to recover the nose cone after it plunges earthward through the atmosphere.

Medaris was asked to comment on the True Magazine article which said the Soviet claim of firing its Lunik probe past the moon was a "big Red lie."

"I have enough positive information," Medaris said, "to state that there was an instrumented object out there in space where the Russians said it was."

Winston Comes To Capital To See Old Wartime Pals

WASHINGTON (AP)—A sentimental journey has brought Sir Winston Churchill to Washington once again "to see some of my comrades of wartime days."

Sir Winston, now 84, stepped slowly and carefully from President Eisenhower's personal plane Monday as Eisenhower and a crowd of about 500 persons welcomed him at Washington's National Airport.

But his voice was clear and vigorous. The Churchill wit was there too.

"I always love coming to America, but I shall not say—as most people who are traveling nowadays about the world seem to do—everything I think," he remarked.

Eisenhower grinned, and the crowd laughed, at this apparent reference to another wartime figure. Lord Montgomery, retired British field marshal, criticized American leadership in a television program just before a recent trip to Moscow for conferences with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Churchill's last visit to this country was in June 1954, when as prime minister he came for a series of official conferences with Eisenhower. This visit is described as purely personal. He will be a guest at the White House for three nights, spend another night at the British embassy, and go to New

Slimy Slope Takes Toll

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A slippery, slimy slope slew 'em in Elysian Park Monday.

First victim was Tracy Smith, 12. He skidded into a steep ravine. There was no climbing out. Witnesses called an ambulance.

Ambulance attendant Sidney Krueger leaned over the edge. Oops, he slipped. Down he went, or top of Tracy. Two down.

Ambulance driver Ray Barry peered over the brink. His feet went out from under him and there they were, the three of them. The heavy grass was too slick to climb.

A fireman's rope got 'em out—unhurt.

York for several days before returning to England.

British Embassy officials said Sir Winston's remarks at the airport are the only public statements he plans to make during his visit.

Eisenhower greeted Churchill as "my dear friend of wartime days" and, recalling that Sir Winston's mother was an American, said "We claim at least the maternal side of him."

Churchill agreed that the United States is "my mother country, as I always figure it and feel it."

A White House limousine carried the President and his guest to the White House for a quiet visit which started with a family dinner.

Eisenhower has arranged stag dinners tonight and Wednesday night. The British Embassy will entertain at a similar dinner Thursday.

Sir Winston will spend a week-end in New York visiting another longtime friend, financier Bernard Baruch, before flying back to England.
