

MEL STRICKLETT of Portland, left, assists Dorothy and Pete White as they present a hillbilly skit during the second intermission at the Merry Mixer Jamboree. Other intermission acts were the Weaving Dance presented by the Klamath A and I group and the Contra Dance done by a group of nine Klamath Falls couples.

THE MERRY MIXER JAMBOREE held April 18 attracted 500 square dancers from California, Nevada, New Mexico, Washington and Oregon. A breakfast and potluck dinner preceded this fourth annual affair held in the New Army.

Weed BPW Seats Officers

WEED—Mrs. Emmeline Ganim was installed as president of the Weed Business and Professional Women's Club at the April meeting held at the Y-Cafe. Mrs. Nelda Shanahan, at that time president of the Northern District of BPW Clubs, was installing officer. Others accepting office and installed in the April ceremonies were Mrs. Lois Mardahl, vice president; Mrs. Louise Harris, treasurer; and Mrs. Gene Rizzo, secretary.

In following the theme of international relations, Germain De Veska, foreign student from Baad Aussen, Austria, spoke and showed interesting slides of his homeland. He is at present staying at the home of Jack Meamber, Yreka, and attending the Yreka High School. He was introduced by Mrs. Cecelia Strothers, international relations chairman of the Weed club.

Other guests included Mrs. Grace Pickthorne, editor of the California Women's magazine, Dunsuir, Mrs. Meamber, Yreka, and Mrs. Marion Hines, Weed.

Tables for the dinner were decorated in a rainbow theme with floral arrangements.

Mrs. Ganim presented Mrs. Hazel Cates, outgoing president with the past president's pin after assuming the official gavel for the ensuing year.

Rotary Anns Meet In Yreka

MONTAGUE—A Mexican theme predominated the dinner meeting of the Montague Rotary Anns, held at the Empire Room in Yreka on Tuesday evening, April 28.

The Mexican dinner was enjoyed while a background of Mexican music was played, followed with Mrs. Leah Reichman, who recently returned from a trip to Mexico, showing colored slides of many settings and scenic views of the country, giving a commentary of each picture as it was shown.

Mrs. Reichman also had a display of several items that she had purchased while in Mexico.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. S. A. Messner, Mrs. E. M. Martin, Mrs. Fred Raffaelli, and Mrs. Brice Rohrer. The mystery package was won by Mrs. Charles Phillips.

Present, in addition to those named were Mrs. Donald Gordon, Mrs. Walter Simon, Mrs. Tom Williams, Mrs. Wilson Grazier, Mrs. William S. Swigart, Senior, Mrs. D. H. McCarger, Mrs. James McAdams and Mrs. Earl Flock. Present as guests were Mrs. Azubie Bragunier of Montague and Miss Ollie Janson of Yreka.

EVENING STAR OES

ETNA—Honoring of star point Electa will be the highlight of the Thursday evening, May 7, meeting of the Evening Star Chapter No. 10, Order of the Eastern Star. Present Electa, Shirley Eastlick, and past Electas will be honored.

In remembrance of Mothers Day, the men of the order are hosting a party. Committee members are Frank Jackson, Erling Hjertager, William Krueger, Harrison Howell, Francis Rivallier, Roy Eastlick and Robert Stone.

Civic Improvement Club Bi-Monthly Meeting

FORT KLAMATH—Members of the Fort Klamath Civic Improvement Club met Friday afternoon, May 1, for the regular bi-monthly meeting of the organization in the C.I. clubhouse. Mrs. Duane Woods, president, was in the chair for the business session.

Ways and means of raising money were discussed, and reports were heard from standing committees.

Permission was given to Mrs. Frank Strahan and Mrs. Hollis Kizer, Fort Klamath elementary grade school teachers, to use the clubhouse for a Centennial tea to be held on Friday afternoon, May 22, starting at 2 o'clock. The affair will be given especially for mothers of pupils attending the school, but other women in the community are welcome.

Pupils attired in appropriate Centennial dress will present a program, depicting the history of Oregon. The tea will be a purely social affair, with no admission charge, and Mrs. Strahan and Mrs. Kizer will be hostesses for the afternoon.

At the next club meeting on May 15, those attending are asked to bring a "white elephant" package for prizes to be awarded during the social hour following the business session.

At the May first meeting, Mrs. Elmore Nicholson was hostess at the social hour and served refreshments to the gathering.

After serving as president for three months, Mrs. Mike Beaulieu was succeeded on April 1 by Mrs. Duane Woods, who was elected to the presidency until July 1. A change in the office of secretary was made last month, when Mrs. Gerald Raber of the Klamath Fish Hatchery resigned the office, and Mrs. Joseph Wagner of Fort Klamath was elected to succeed as club secretary.

In April, twice a month meetings were resumed, on the first and third Friday of the month, after one meeting a month only being held during the winter.

Etna OES Honors Past Officers

ETNA—Nineteen past matrons and five past patrons were honored at the meeting of Evening Star chapter OES, April 16, at the Masonic Temple here.

They were welcomed by the worthy matron and patron, Viola and Robert Stone, and were escorted to the East where they were introduced. Past matrons were Atlanta Adams, who served in 1911, 1913, and 1945; Susie Denny, 1917; Mary W. Young, 1918; Daisie Kindig, 1930; Jane Arbuttle, 1932; Lillian Musson, 1933; Sadie Messner, 1934; Olive Krueger, 1935; Jewel Smith, 1939; Barbara Cross, 1941; Helen Miles, 1942; Pauline Farrington, 1943; Bernice Potter, 1944 and 1956; Ethel Quardros, 1947; Ruby Doggett, 1951; Norma Revallier, 1953; Cynthia Hjertager, 1955; Merrilee Farley, 1958, and visiting past matron, Effie Butler, who was worthy matron for Stella Chapter of Yreka in 1932. Past patrons honored were Ormond Smith who served in 1918, 1924, 1926, and 1927; W. D. Mathews, 1931-1933, 1935-1947, and 1954; Erling Hjertager, 1955; Samuel G. Potter, 1956, and Francis Farley, 1958.

The past matrons were presented fan corsages with forget-me-nots and gold gavels attached. The past patrons were given mustache cups and false mustaches.

Degrees of the order were conferred on Evelyn Yvonne Sheffield and Rosamond Kathleen Fincher.

W. D. (Pop) Mathews gave a short talk in a humorous manner and commended the officers for their fine work.

The past matrons and patrons honored the chapter, by assuming the stations and performing the closing ceremony.

Decorations for the meeting included spring blossoms and emblems of the past matrons' years.

Refreshments were served by Clara Williams, chairman of refreshments, Viola Stone, George Bourdon, Leo Davis, Bud Ashcraft and Irene M. Davis.
