Walker Shuts Out Senators

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
You might say Jerry Walker is making a major league career out of beating Washington. The 20-year-old right-hander has a 3-0 record for his three stabs at the big-time with Baltimore — and each of those decisions was against the Senators.

He got the third, his second of the season, Thursday night, blanking the Nats on three hits before Reno Bertoia's eight-inning home run, as the second place Orioles whipped Washington 10-1 and moved within two games of the idle Cleveland Indians.

In the National League, Stan Musial's 400th home run brought the St. Louis Cardinals a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Los Angeles defeated San Francisco 2-1 and Pittsburgh beat Philadelphia 4-1 in 10 innings. No other games were scheduled.

Walker, a 6-1, 185-pound Oklahoman, has only one shutout in the majors—a 1-0 job on the Senators Sept. 4, 1957.

Fact is, with a 6-1 victory over Washington last month, the youngster has been touched for only two runs by the Senators in his 30 innings against them. He finished with a five-hitter last night, walking two and striking out five.

Home Run Cinches Contest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Babe Ruth, Jimmy Fox, Mel Ott, Lou Gehrig, Ted Williams — and now Stan Musial.

Stan the Man, one of baseball's all-time great hitters, hammered his way into that select circle of sluggers Thursday night with his 400th home run—a 400-foot shot leading off the ninth inning at St. Louis that brought the Cardinals a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Musial, at 37, has only two homers in this, his 18th season, but they've come on consecutive nights. And more than coincidentally, perhaps, they've triggered the Cards' first two-game winning "streak" of the year in the National League.

The milestone missile into the right-center field pavilion at Busch Stadium, coupled Musial with Williams as the only 400 home-run sluggers now in business. Ruth, of course, is the all-time leader with 714. Fox, the only right-handed better in the lot, finished with 534. Ott, the only other National Leaguer in the group, hit 511. Gehrig had 493. And Williams, still sidelined by injury this season, has hit 482 for the Boston Red Sox.

Cards 4, Cubs 3

The homer was Musial's lone hit of the game. It came off reliever Don Elston (0-1). The Cards' other three runs also came on a homer, with pinch-hitter George Crowe delivering.

That tied it 3-all, after three solo homers off Card starter Lindy McDaniel by the Cubs' Jim Marshall, who hit a pair, and Ernie Banks. Howie Nunn (2-1) was the winner in relief for the last place Cards.

Chicago 000 102 000—3 10 0
St. Louis 000 003 001—4 11 0
Drabowsky, Elston (8) and S. Taylor; McDaniel, W. Smith (6), Nunn (7) and H. Smith, Green (9). Winner—Nunn (2-1). Loser—Elston (0-1). HRs—Marshall 2, Banks, Crowe, Musial.

Dodgers 2, Giants 1

Larker, subbing for Gil Hodges, who pulled a shoulder muscle when he tripped in the second inning, ripped his winning homer in the fourth inning at San Francisco. It came off Jack Sanford (4-2), who had won four straight. The Giants, who pulled off five doubleplays, scored in their fourth on a triple by Willie Mays and Daryl Spencer's sacrifice fly.

Stan Williams (1-0) allowed the Giants but six hits—half of them by Mays. Willie also swung on a 3-0 pitch that would have given him an intentional walk, and fouled out with two men on base in the eighth.

After the game the Dodgers flew home to Los Angeles where they lost an exhibition night game to the New York Yankees 6-2 before 93,103, baseball's largest crowd ever.

Los Angeles 000 200 000—2 12 0
San Francisco 000 100 000—1 6 1
Williams (1-0) and Roseboro, Sanford, G. Jones (9) and Schmidt, Loser — Sanford (4-2), HR—Larker.

Bucs 5, Phils 4

Kluszewski, who had driven in a run with a single as the Pirates came from behind with four in the fourth, got the job done with his 256th career homers. Jim Owens (1-2) went all the way for the Phillies.

Roy Face (4-0) was the winner with one inning of relief. (10 innings)

Pittsburgh 000 400 000—5 7 0

WSC, Huskies Meet In Test

SEATTLE (AP) — Meet records could tumble like tenpins here Saturday when the Washington State Cougars tangle with Washington's Huskies in their annual track and field meet.

Javelin, shotput, discus, pole vault, mile and hurdle marks, built up in 35 years of competition, all could tumble. Washington has won 19 of the dual meets, Washington State 15 and there was one tie. This one could go either way.

The meet will start an hour earlier than usual—at 12:30 p.m.—so fans may switch attention to Lake Washington and the Washington-California crew regatta starting at 3 p.m.

Each team has musclemen who could lengthen the shotput and javelin measurements. Dick Rubens of WSC has thrown the spear 227 feet 10 inches and Washington's John Douglas has a best of 220-11. The meet standard is 219-3.

Steve Frye of the Cougars holds the present shotput record of 54 feet 7½ and has hit nearly 57 feet this year. Bert Bender of Washington has a best toss of 53-4.

State's Spike Art has bettered the meet marks in both hurdles with a 14.3 timing in the highs and 23.1 in the lows. Jack Larson

Moyer In Exhibition Here Saturday Night

With the picking of the officials and announcer for the big fight card, featuring a six-round exhibition bout between Portland's Den-

Jacobs Leading 1st Round

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A lush green golf course that on the surface appeared to be a push-over had most of the top ranking golfers talking to themselves today as the $25,000 Oklahoma City Open tournament plunged into the all-important second round.

On top of the heap was young Tommy Jacobs of Whittier, Calif., who got the maximum mileage out of his game for an opening 66 which is six-under par on the 6,540-yard par 72 Twin Hills Country Club course.

Strictly a test of accuracy, Twin Hills turned back the mass assault on par which usually develops on the Professional Golfers Assn. tour. Of the 148 players who teed off in the first round only 23 broke par.

Most of the pros agreed this is a "give and take" course. There are holes on which strokes can be picked up at random and then there are holes where strokes can be lost with reckless abandon.

Jacobs played consistent golf but was fortunate to pick up a pair of eagles on par 5 holes. He hit the 471-yard 8th hole with a 4 iron on his second shot and rolled in a 22-footer.

He chipped in from 25 yards out for his eagle on the 537-yard 16th hole.

Pete Mazur of Buffalo, N.Y., was Jacobs' chief competitor after carding a 67 on the strength of 6 birdies.

Pete Cooper, the Lakeland, Fla. veteran, with the silk-smooth swing, escaped most of the hazards and came through with a 68 to stay in the thick of the fight.

His score was matched by Glen Fowler, Oklahoma amateur champ who was heads and shoulders above the rest of the amateurs.

Close on the heels of the leaders were youngsters Bob Goalby, Crystal River, Fla., and Monte Bradley of Hillsboro, Tex.

Six players were tied at 70 but none was in the list of top money winners of the year. However, the 71 group included such name players as National PGA Champ Dow Finsterwald, Mike Souchak, former National Open champion Lloyd Mangrum, former Masters and PGA champ Doug Ford, and the veteran Freddie Haas, Jr.

North Carolina State has won all 17 of its basketball games played against George Washington.
