Committee Okays Hikes On Beer, Bank, Firm Tax

By JAMES C. ANDERSON SACRAMENTO (UPI)—An Assembly committee has approved the governor's bills to increase taxes on beer, banks and corporations despite strong opposition from some of the most influential lobbyists.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown's twin measures squeaked by the Revenue and Taxation Committee Thursday by a 9-8 margin.

Lined up in solid opposition to the beer bill were some organizations who usually are on opposite sides of the fence such as the California Manufacturers Association and the AFL-CIO.

In addition to protests from management and labor, the bills by Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D-Sacramento) were the target of opposition from two lobbyists for the brewing industry, the Associated Farmers and the State Chamber of Commerce.

The beer tax bill was supported by Robert T. McKay of the California Teachers Association while the bank-corporation measure was endorsed by Edward J. Landels, representing the California Bankers Association.

"The CBA is not opposed to higher bank and corporation taxes as long as it is part of a broadly based tax program," Landels said. "It is our feeling that the budget has to be balanced if we are going to preserve the state's credit."

Brown is seeking 256 million dollars in new or higher taxes to offset a deficit of almost the same amount in the next fiscal year.

The beer bill would raise the existing tax of two cents a gallon up to seven cents a gallon. It would raise 10 million dollars in extra revenue a year.

MacBride pointed out that no state has a lower beer tax than California and that it has not been increased since it was enacted in 1933.

The bank and corporation increase would be from 4 per cent to 5.5 per cent on the basic tax rate with an increase in the minimum tax from $25 to $100. It would net $58,600,000 in new revenue for a full fiscal year.

Lobbyists for the brewing industry testified that if the tax bill is enacted the increase will be passed on to beer drinkers.

"This is a consumer tax, make no mistake about it," said Daniel J. Creedon, representing the malt beverage industry.

C. J. Haggerty of the AFL-CIO labeled beer "a workingman's drink," and said labor was against any and all additional consumer taxes.

"And this is just one more easy way of collecting a tax from the same old target—the consumer," he said.

Needing nine votes to win committee approval, the bills endorsed and sponsored by the Democratic governor got exactly the necessary number. Two Republicans—Assemblyman Clark L. Bradley of San Jose and Don Mulford of Oakland—joined seven Democrats in voting for the beer tax increase.

At the end of the hearing Assemblyman Frank Lanterman (R-La Canada) said he would not vote for any part of a "rubber stamp of a political tax program" until the Legislature finally enacted the budget and came up with an exact figure on the amount of money needed by new taxes.

In response to Lanterman, MacBride promised that he would hold up action on the beer and bank corporation bills on the Assembly floor until the lower house votes on the two billion dollar budget bill.

Pupils Return From Meeting

FORT JONES—Five Fort Jones High School students recently returned from a two-day conference, sponsored by the YMCA Mountain District, held at Richardson Springs Resort near Chico.

The students, Kay Hughes, Barbara Dunlap, Barbara Withers, Joan Mello and Janet Van Arsdale, all juniors, and their adviser, Mrs. Forrest Gray, spent last Saturday and Sunday at the resort.

The conference was established several years ago to enable girls from the northern part of California to meet and exchange ideas.

Panel discussions, guest speakers and various activities were featured. A wide range of topics affecting teen-agers and adults were discussed.

The group from Fort Jones participated in a program of skits Saturday night. Janet Van Arsdale ran for vice president in an election of officers for next year's meeting.

About 300 girls from Butte, Shasta and Siskiyou counties attended.
