

Three Of Five

Cleveland, Cincinnati Showing The Way

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It begins to look as if the Cincinnati Reds are at last catching up with the Milwaukee Braves.

The Braves have beaten a path to a pair of National League pennants by trampling the Reds the past two years. In 1957, Milwaukee won 18 of its 22 games with Cincinnati. Last season it was 17 of 22.

Now the Reds have taken three of five decisions this season, winning three in a row from the Braves for the first time since 1956. And they've done it the hard way—beating Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette.

They junked Burdette's winning string at nine-five this season with a 3-2 victory at Milwaukee Friday night that gained a virtual first place tie with the Braves. Going into Saturday's game—another run-in with Spahn—the Reds were second by a mere .009 percentage point margin.

San Francisco also closed in, replacing Los Angeles in third, just a half-game behind the leaders, by whipping the Dodgers 9-3. The Chicago Cubs are 1½ games back after a 10-inning, 3-2 victory at St. Louis. Philadelphia regained a sixth-place tie with Pittsburgh by beating the Pirates 8-1.

Those Cleveland Indians are socko with Rocco.

Take Friday night. They managed just three hits at Chicago, but Rocky Colavito had two and drove in three runs, ripping a tie-breaking, two-run homer in the sixth that put away a 3-1 victory.

Friday night's success, the fourth in a row for unbeaten right-hander Cal McLish, padded Cleveland's American League lead to three games once more as Boston and Frank Sullivan whipped second place Baltimore 5-1. Detroit scored three in the ninth for a 5-4 victory over Kansas City in the only other AL game scheduled.

Reds 3, Braves 2

Burdette, who had won 10 straight in Milwaukee's County Stadium since last July, gave up four of the Reds' seven hits and all of their runs in the first inning.

A two-run double by Frank Robinson and a triple by Frank Thomas did the damage.

The Braves had 11 hits, but didn't break through against Brooks Lawrence (3-1) until the eighth inning, when Ed Mathews and Frank Torre homered. Lawrence, collecting only his second complete game since blanking the Braves 1-0 last July 2, finally put it away by fanning Mathews, the major league leader with his 10 home runs, with two men on base in the ninth.

Giants 9, Bums 3

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli, who had lost two in a row, won his fourth for the Giants after giving up the Dodger runs on five hits in the second inning. He blanked them on five hits the rest of the way. Daryl Spencer was 4-for-4 and drove in three runs for the Giants, who chased Danny McDevitt (1-1) in a three-run sixth for a 4-3 lead. Willie Mays and Jackie Brandt added solo homers in the eighth.

Cubs 3, Cards 2

Randy Jackson, just returned to the Cubs by way of a trade with Cleveland, tripled in the 10th after a two-out single by winning reliever Bill Henry (3-1). Jackson, who last played for the Cubs in 1955, also was credited with the tying run when he got a bases-loaded walk as a pinch-hitter in the eighth. Jim Brosnan (0-3) was the loser in relief for the Cards, who were shut out after the third. Henry, who replaced Bob Anderson in the eighth, allowed but two hits and struck out five. It was the Cardinals' decision. They've lost five of them.

Phillies 8, Bucs 1

Gene Conley, the ex-Brave, gained his first victory since 1957 in his first start for the Phils. He had to leave in the ninth, however, when a line drive by Smokey Burgess nicked a pitching-hand finger. George Witt (0-4) lost it, giving way in a three-run fourth.

Indians 3, ChiSox 1

Right-hander Dick Donovan (1-1) of the White Sox gave up all three of Cleveland's hits in his six innings, getting past everybody but Minnie Minoso and Colavito. Minoso singled with one out in the fourth inning, stole second and then gave the Indians a 1-0 lead on Rocky's single.

In the sixth, Minoso walked with two out and came across on Colavito's smash into the upper left field deck at Comiskey Park. The White Sox had just five hits off McLish, scoring in the fourth on Jim Landis' second home run while losing their fifth in a row and sinking to .500 in fourth place, 4½ games behind.

Red Sox 5, Orioles 0

Sullivan, a big 6-7 right-hander, gave up only five singles along with two walks while squaring his record at 1-1 for Boston. The Red Sox had just three hits for seven innings, but held a 2-0 lead over southpaw Billy O'Dell (1-1). They scored in the first on a walk, passed ball, error and Frank Malone's sacrifice fly, then counted again in the fourth on a walk and Don Buddin's double.

Sullivan finally got some breathing room in the seventh, when Boston scored three with Pete Runnels and Jackie Jensen hitting solo home runs. It was Jensen's seventh, Runnels' second.

Tigers 5, Athletics 4

Singles by Harvey Kuenn and Lou Berberet got the Tigers rolling in the ninth against Ray Herbert (1-3), who then was tagged for a tying triple by Frank Bolling—who kept right on running with the winner as Heck Hoppe bobbled the relay from the outfield. It was the first victory in six one-run decisions for the Tigers and it went to Ray Narleski, a four-time loser who won his first with two innings of perfect relief.

Bob Cerv drove in three Kansas City runs off Don Mossi with a triple and a sacrifice fly. The Tigers had two runs but only four hits—one Berberet's second homer—for eight innings.

Rainiers, Phoenix Match Might Over 21 Inning PCL Distance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rain washed out two Pacific Coast League games Friday night, but the Seattle Rainiers and the Phoenix Giants made up for the loss with the longest game of the season, a 21-inning cliff-hanger at Seattle.

The Rainiers won it 6-5 on Eddie Kazak's lazy, sacrifice fly to left field, which scored Gale Wade from third base. The Rainiers had loaded the bags on Wade's single and walks to Paul Pettit and Dee Fondy.

San Diego's Padres, with a golden opportunity to challenge Sacramento for the lead after the Soles' doubleheader with Portland was washed out, could manage only a split with Vancouver and remained a full game behind.

The Padres lost the first game to the Mounties 3-0, then won the nightcap 2-0 as Vancouver's Dick Fitzgerald and San Diego's Bobby Locke hurled two-hitters.

In the other league game, the Spokane Indians shaded the Salt Lake City Bees 2-1.

The Seattle-Phoenix marathon, which had been scheduled as the seven-inning curtain-raiser on a bargain bill, was tied three times. It was 3-3 at the end of seven frames.

Both teams got a run in the 15th. Phoenix on Ben Valenzuela's high homer over the left field wall. The two teams exchanged runs again in the 19th and Seattle's 12:50 a.m. curfew was just around the corner when Kazak ended it in the 21st inning.

The game, the second economy contest in Seattle in as many nights, was the longest Coast League game ever played here. The PCL record is 24 innings. Seattle and Phoenix played 14 innings Thursday night, with the Rainiers winning 5-4.

Fitzgerald was within two outs of twirling a no-hitter in the seven-inning opener at Vancouver, but Rudy Gegalado's single to center spoked the bid. Bill Werle and Carl Thomas of the Pads combined for a seven-hitter.

Locke fanned 10 batters and walked only three in winning the nightcap. The Padres got both of their runs in the sixth frame, on Rod Graber's single and steal of second, Fred Hatfield's single, Mitch June's single and Ken Retzler's double.

Bob Milliken, with help from Phil Paine, beat the Bees. Milliken gave up but four hits and Paine issued one in a one and two-third inning relief stint. Don Urquhart, who went the route for Salt Lake City, gave up only four hits. It was Milliken's first decision of the season.
