Centennial Banquet Honors Eulalona DAR Past Regents

Eulalona Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution honored its past regents at a Centennial banquet held May 4 at the Pelican party room. Past regents able to attend were each presented with a long stemmed red carnation tied with blue ribbon and edged with a lacy handkerchief as Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, Eulalona Chapter's presiding regent, gave a brief resume of their accomplishments while in office. Past regents so honored were Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, organizing regent, Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. G. W. Owsley, Mrs. R. E. Wright, Eva Burkhalter, Mrs. Charles Waters, Mrs. Guy Barton and Mrs. H. A. Pedersen. Also honored was Mrs. Arch G. Proctor, past regent of Siskiyou Chapter in Yreka and now a member of Eulalona and acting as its very efficient registrar.

Mrs. Guy Barton, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Raymond Tice, music chairman who had arranged for a charming musical offering featuring the Centennial Sweethearts. These seventh graders from Roosevelt School, all in costume, were led by Mrs. D. E. Van Vector in a varied program with an international flavor of songs, piano solos and dancing.

Once again the "Country Store," sponsored by Mrs. H. A. Pedersen, proved to be a fascinating gathering spot, doing a fine job in adding to treasury funds.

Since this was to be the last scheduled regular meeting till fall, members were reminded of several events coming up in the summer. District No. 3 meeting will be held June 17 in Roseburg and July 11 marks the date for dedication of the D.A.R. restored Newell House near Champoug. Also coming up in June will be the rededication of our own Eulalona marker in Moore Park. The rededication will be followed by a pot luck picnic and members are urged to watch for announcement of the date. Mrs. Arch Proctor states that regularly scheduled days for "family searching" will not be observed during the summer, but that the books will be available on appointment. Mrs. Raymond Hall, national defense chairman, gave a brief resume of Patrick Hurley's autobiography and recommended it highly for serious summer reading.

Mrs. Hugh Estes and Mrs. Z. W. Dixon carried out the Centennial theme with lovely decorations consisting of red, white and blue flower arrangements, old fashioned lamps and covered wagons.
