Shirley Schofield Bride Of Leonard C. Isaacs

Shirley Schofield became the bride of Leonard C. Isaacs on March 21 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Corvallis. The Rev. Carmichael officiated at the double ring ceremony at 2:30 in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Schofield, 1276 Lakeshore Drive, in Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. C. Isaacs of Portland are parents of the bridegroom.

Steven Schofield of Klamath Falls, escorted his sister to the altar. The floor length bridal gown featured a bodice of Chantilly lace over French antique satin and trimmed with seed pearls. The Sabrina neckline came to a V in the back. The skirt was fashioned with the front of French antique satin and the back of Chantilly lace which fell gracefully into a chapel train. A satin bow marked the waistline at the back. The bride wore a finger tip veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis entwined with yellow ribbon and strings of pearls. She wore the traditional blue garter and penny in her slipper.

Susan Schofield of New York City was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a ballerina length dress of yellow organdy over satin with matching picture hat and carried a basket of lavender iris.

Norman Cornelly of Portland was best man and ushers were Ken Millard and Paul Steppan, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, both of Portland.

Wedding music was played at the organ by Alice Craig of Corvallis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schofield chose a rose knit suit, pink flowered hat and black patent accessories. Mrs. Isaacs wore an aqua lace dress with white accessories. Corsages of red garnet roses were worn by both mothers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Chi Omega sorority house which was decorated with yellow and lavender flowers.

The bride's table held a three tiered wedding cake decorated with pale lavender icing and surrounded with daffodils. The cake was served by Mrs. Ed Boyer, Portland, and Mrs. Stephen Bailey, sorority sister of the bride, from Portland. Janice Ray, Chi Omega from Portland, served punch and presided at the coffee service. Guests were registered by Mrs. Paul Steppan, sister of the bridegroom from Portland. Sharon Isaacs, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Tony Parsons were at the gift table.

For her honeymoon trip to the Oregon coast the new Mrs. Isaacs changed to a rust trimmed beige linen sheath dress with matching coat and hat and black patent accessories.

The newlyweds are at home in Corvallis where the bride is employed as a social worker for Linn County Welfare Commission and her husband completes his studies in business and technology at Oregon State College.

Out of town guests included Susan Schofield, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Klingesman and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright, of Canon Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Isaacs, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Isaacs, Jerry Isaacs, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boyer and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Bailey, all of Portland.

Howard-Cavan Vows Exchanged In Reno Rites

BLY—Sheila Ann Cavan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cavan of Bly, became the bride of Richard Howard, son of Mrs. T. T. Howard of County Cork, Ireland, the morning of April 18 at Reno, Justice of the Peace William R. Beemer performed the simple ceremony with Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Anderson Jr. as attendants.

The bride chose for her wedding a pale blue lace street length dress with flared skirt, trimmed with satin rosebuds of blending color. Her corsage was white and pink carnations. Mrs. Anderson wore a black and white plaid silk dress with matching accessories.

The wedding party returned to Bly after the ceremony and were greeted at a wedding reception in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Nixon. Approximately 50 guests called during the evening.

The bridal table was adorned with an attractive bouquet of pink and white daisies with a pink bouffant bow. The two tiered wedding cake was trimmed with pink and white roses, white doves and a miniature bride and bridegroom on the top.

Richard Varnam of Fort Klamath entertained the guests with his guitar music.

The new Mrs. Howard is a graduate of Bly High School class of '58. She was active in school affairs and was the editor of the Pine Cone, school annual. At present she is employed as a clerk in the Bly Post Office. Her husband is a general contractor and his wedding day was the fifth anniversary of his arrival in the United States. He has lived in Bly for one year.

VFW Auxiliary Meets In Dorris

DORRIS—A special meeting of the Butte Valley Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary 5944 was called by President Dora Branham, and was held in the home of Mrs. Wilma Fenwick, auxiliary treasurer, last Friday.

Because of the illness of Mrs. Branham, Senior Vice President Ann Andreatta conducted the session.

The members elected Mrs. Myrtle Fenwick and Mrs. Andreatta as delegates to represent Butte Valley Auxiliary at the 20th district meeting to be held in Yreka on Sunday, May 17, and to also attend the Veterans of Foreign Wars state convention which will be held in San Jose from June 14 to 18.

Mrs. Fenwick and Mrs. Betty Kelly were named alternates. Members voted to assist the Dorris Lions Club in their Youth Community project.

The auxiliary safe driving medals were awarded to Pat Collins, a senior, for March and to Evelyn Fogle Turner, for April.

It was also voted to remember the teachers at open house, with corsages and boutonnieres.

In other business, the auxiliary planned a series of public parties to be held in the city hall on May 5, 12 and 19.

They also discussed the annual Memorial Day parade but no definite plans were set.

DRIP-DRY HINT

NEW YORK (UPI)—When laundering a drip-dry jacket on the honeymoon, stuff the sleeves with cotton hand towels while it dries. The sleeves will hold their shape and will dry faster.
