PAINTING FURNITURE
EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—When refinishing furniture, turn it upside down and apply the finish to the under parts first. Then tip it right side up and finish the job. Leave the piece undisturbed until it dries.

WARM IN A FLASH
NEW YORK (UPI)—To flame a dish of hot food, you needn't pre-heat alcoholic beverages. The heat of the food will warm the liquid enough, and a lighted kitchen match touched quickly to the surface of the alcohol will ignite it.

LEAVES NOTHING OUT
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Mamie Van Doren, whose stroll has been called a new art form, explains her success and ability to attract attention: "All I do is what any girl could do—just walk with all of me."

Bride Creates Aura With Right Fragrance

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Floating down the aisle in a misty aura of fragrance, the bride is everything a bride should be. Ethereal and radiant on the big day, she trails a cloud of scent that people will remember when the reception is over.

To get a fragrance that will last through a day that's often hectic, start with your bath. Add toilet water to the warm water and soak in the delicious fragrance. After you've stepped from the tub, dust yourself with bath powder in matching scent. Then, before you dress, apply perfume to the pulse spots and give it about 20 minutes to "set" before you dress.

Any bride would love a perfume that combines spice and floral in a beautiful blend. And she'll appreciate the beautiful crystal bottle in which it comes. It has a golden stopper shaped like a crescent and comes in a box lined with green satin.
