Oldster Has "Nip A Day"

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI)—John Moser Sr., probably the oldest active shoe merchant in the world, celebrated his 95th birthday recently by doing what he's done every day for some 75 years: He arose at 6 a.m., had breakfast and a "nip" of whisky and then walked to work.

Moser has been in the shoe business here since 1883 and has lived in the same home for 69 years. Before coming to the U.S. in 1882, he spent four years in shoe shops in Germany where he was born, two of them as an apprentice.

His wife died 22 years ago and four of their six children still are living. He has nine grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren. One of his three daughters, now a widow, lives with him.

Moser attributes his good health to "learning how to pace myself." He says he has "always been too busy to worry about anything."

"I always have a nip of whisky about 7 a.m. and once in a while before I go to bed," he says.

Moser, who puts in a full day's work—in fact he arrives an hour before his employees—says he has never thought of retiring. "Time passes so much quicker when I'm at work than when I'm sitting at home," he explains.

CORNBREAD SQUARES

NEW YORK (UPI)—Corn bread squares with shrimp-cheese topping make a filling meatless meal. Spread squares generously with chili sauce, sprinkle with grated cheese and top each with 2 cooked shrimp. Brush shrimp lightly with melted butter and place squares in broiler about 5 inches from heat source. Broil 2 to 3 minutes. Serve hot.
