Annual Dance Revue Aids Crippled Children

YREKA—The annual dance revue presented by the Karen Adele Dance Studio of Yreka will be created around a modern version of the story of Little Red Riding Hood. The dances will be introduced by narration and will be exemplified in the ballet, tap and modern dance routines. The costumes and dances are planned and designed by Karen Adele and her assistant, Marcia Sue.

The students who participate are from all over the county, Scott Valley, Weed, and Shasta Valley which includes Montague, Little Shasta, Willow Creek and Yreka. The revues will be presented in Etna High School on Saturday, May 16; at the Weed High School on Friday, May 22; and in the new gym of Yreka High School on Saturday, May 23, curtain time in each instance to be 8 p.m. Karen Adele stated there will be no admission charge, but contributions will be accepted, which will be given to the crippled children's society.

This will be Karen Adele's last revue, as after June 1, the studio will be operated by Daryle Holt of Grants Pass, under the name of Daryle School of Dance, and will be conducted on much the same basis as established by Karen Adele.

McCloud OES

McCLOUD—The McCloud Chapter, OES, honored its past matrons and patrons at their May meeting recently. Those present were Maxine and Bob McIntosh, Eula Ray, Edith Parentice, Julia Olovson, Zelma Gerlicher, Bessie and Don Higgins, Eleanor Flatman, Barcy Solberg, Ina Straub, Florence Willick, Delia Linn and Myrtle Palmer.

Visitors included Alice Langdon, grand representative, Genevieve Tilton, worthy matron of Fidelity Chapter of Dunsmuir and Charles Langdon, worthy patron of Fidelity Chapter. Barbara Caswell, Jean Hicklin, Barbara Tomlinson, Phyllis Morgan and Elsa Wetzel presented a skit, "Hansel and Gretel in the Forest."

Cards were prepared and refreshments were served by the hostesses Pat Hartley, Gladys Lineberger and Bertha Plack. The tables were decorated with spring flowers and lily of the valley plants which were presented to each of the guests.

Teen-age Dance

A teen-age dance committee is busily making plans for another dance, a monthly affair held at the Klamath County Fairgrounds from 8 until 11 o'clock. Door prizes will be given. Parents of teen-agers will chaperone the dance to which all Klamath County high school students are invited. Admission is by student body card.

MAKE A JUMPER

If a child has a pretty woolen sweater that is too short, remodel it into a jumper. Material from the sleeves may be used to make a yoke and this will lengthen the garment. Little girls love jumpers. Make attractive mittens, caps and bags from old woolen garments. A matching set of these may be secured from an old skirt.

SAVE THE COAT

If a small child has outgrown a good winter coat in length, buy some contrasting cloth of equal quality and put a band around the bottom of the coat and cuffs on the sleeves. You could make her a hat or cap of the new material, also a draw string bag. Brown and white checked material makes a nice contrast to a solid brown coat, for instance.

BRAID IT

If a line shows where you have let out the hem of a child's dress, hide the line by stitching it with a row of braid over the line.

Paisley Girls Tea Hostesses

SUMMER LAKE — Mrs. Alvin Weaver, Mrs. Jeremiah O'Leary and Mrs. James Foster, Summer Lake, were guests of the Paisley High School GAA at a tea on Friday afternoon, May 1. The women, many of whom were attended in Centennial gowns, found their appointed places at card tables which were arranged in the school cafeteria and overflows into the auditorium. The girls served refreshments, after which they invited their guests to the auditorium for a half hour's program. About 75 women attended.

Some of the high school girls wore authentic costumes of an earlier period. Alta Lee Pernoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Pernoll, Summer Lake, was lovely in her great-grandmother Quinby's wine-colored taffeta wedding gown. The dress is 90 years old and now belongs to Mrs. Jess Roberts of Lakeview, who is a granddaughter of Mrs. Quinby.

Alta Lee was narrator for a style revue which showed the transition of women's costumes from her own gown to the chemise of 1958.

Final Meeting Slated By AAUW

The last luncheon meeting of the year for the Klamath Falls branch of AAUW will be Saturday, May 16, at 2:30 at the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Philip Blohm, Mrs. E. J. Warrick and Mrs. A. H. Patterson, who attended the recent state convention in Eugene will give brief reports. There will also be installation of the new officers.

The annual spring musical program will be presented at this meeting. Mrs. D. E. Van Vactor, music chairman, has arranged to have a variety of musical numbers on the program, which will include vocal numbers, piano selections, and a variety of instrumental music.

Reservations for members and guests may be made by calling Evelyn Dibble, TU 2-4038, by Wednesday.

Haz-bins

The Haz-bins met Monday evening, April 27, at the home of Sarah Kirby. High score in pinocle went to Louise Davis, second high to Sadie Wallace and low to Stella Persell. Lola Truax received the guest prize. May Eck will be hostess for the May meeting which will be held at the home of Sarah Kirby on Monday, May 25.

Prosperity Lodge

Velma Krauss, noble grand, presided over the last regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge at which time several items of interest took place. Nellie Rae Molschenbacher became a member of the lodge by transfer from Sterling Rebekah Lodge in Portland. In a simple but impressive ceremony, the charter was draped in loving memory of Sister Katie Whiteline. All officers participating were dressed in white.

Committee chairmen reported a successful dinner put on by the Social Club for a convention held recently and a food sale held for the benefit of the Odd Fellows-Rebekah Old People's Home located in Portland.

The lodge voted to give a monetary gift to the Theta Rho Club which celebrated its 25th birthday on May 9. A committee was appointed to make a permanent fraternal wreath to be placed on the memorial shaft during Memorial Day observations.

Shower Honors Future Bride

MONTAGUE—A wedding motif predominated the decorations used for the bridal shower given by Mrs. Helen Messner for Gail Cleo Burch, bride-elect of Carl Gamma Jr. of Big Springs.

The event was staged in the club room of the Montague auditorium on Wednesday evening, April 29. The tablecloths and other table appointments all featured wedding bells, and spring blossoms added to wedding atmosphere.

Highlight of the head table was a white satin umbrella, edged in ruffles of white net, which held suspended from the tip of each rib, tiny replicas of wedding symbols, which included the wedding bells, engagement and wedding rings, fastened to a tiny bride's veil; white Bible, blue garter, new penny and a bag of rice. The handle of the umbrella rested on a white satin pillow, and was entwined with pink roses. Placed in front, at the base of the pillow, were a miniature bridal party, complete with bride and bridesmaid, bridesmaids and a tiny flower girl.

The evening was spent in visiting, with the honoree being presented her many gifts, followed with the serving of refreshments.

Present, in addition to the honoree and hostess, were Mrs. Florence Burch, mother of the bride-to-be; Mrs. Gladys Stewart, sister of Gail; Mrs. Olga Gamma, mother of the bridegroom-to-be; Phyllis Gamma, Judy Gamma, Lorraine Gamma, Margaret Arami, Eleanor Akin, Virginia Churchill, Bernice Burch, Sally Elliott, Barbara Wardinski, Ora Kouts and daughter, Carolyn; Bernice Machado, Edna Leal, Rose Fleisch, Marie Storch, Nora Silva, Lydia Pimental, Anna Iken, Vera Rizzardo, Agnes Pilotti, Ernest Rizzardo, Freida Deas, Hilda Cooley, Anna Zraggen and Betty Dow.

Unable to be present, but sending gifts were Aggie Crowover, Mrs. Tony Machado, Jack Churchill, Carolyn Andrews, Hermita Spencer, Laura Louie, Donna Jespersen, Stella Pfassner, Winifred Solus, Mrs. Henry Solus, Jimmie Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vanover, Caterina Arami, Mr. and Mrs. John Louie, Tammie Crowover, Mrs. Olean Willis Dexter and Mrs. Ernest Bhend.

The wedding has been set for Saturday afternoon, May 16, 2 p.m., at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Yreka.

BASKETBALL BANQUET

The Nite-Lites basketball team, second place team of the Alturas Women's Town Recreational League, held a banquet April 21 at the Niles Hotel in Alturas. Players attending were Beverle Vincent, New Pine Creek; Ella Ohm, Canby; Lucille Waggoner, Barbara (Sheldon) Albee, Dorothy Vertrees, Polly Green, Dorothy Clark and Gloria Nolan, team captain, whose birthday was also celebrated. Those not attending were Elinor Ankin of Chico State College, Susan Schulte of Oregon State College and Celeste (Daphner) Rhodda of Alturas. Leo Vertrees and Earl Clark chaperoned the team.
