James-Brown Vows Given In Church Rites

Margaret Susan (Peggy) Brown, full lace skirt was open in the front and back to show the many tiers of net ruffles. A shoulder length veil was held in place by a tiara built up with a flower-like arrangement of seed pearls. The bride bouquet was a Phalaenopsis orchid surrounded in a cascade of stephanotis tied with satin streamers, sweetheart knots and stephanotis flowerlets.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Brown, Jr. and Mrs. D. F. James are parents of the bridegroom.

The pink color scheme was carried out in the setting for the ceremony by unusual arrangements of Woodwardia fern used as background for stock in shades of pink placed on two easels at the end of the white covered aisle down which the wedding party walked.

Given in marriage by her father, the lovely bride chose a gown of Alencon lace over satin. The fitted bodice featured long sleeves and a scalloped neckline outlined in iridescent sequins. The

Her blue garter was a gift of Marsha Hawley and the penny in her slipper was given to her by her brother, James Brown Jr.

Mrs. Martin Clark, matron of honor, wore a ballerina length rock of deep pink tulle with pale pink cummerbund. Marsha Hawley of Portland and Mrs. Don Finney of Corvallis were bridesmaids. Their dresses, fashioned like the matron of honor's, were pale pink with cummerbunds of a darker shade. They carried small cascades of pink flowers.

Georgia Lynn James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville James of Ashland, was flower girl. She was dressed in a ruffled dress of pink nylon with matching hat and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. The rings were carried by Sandy Dean Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Dean Williams of Ashland. They are niece and nephew of the bridegroom.

Wayne South of Ashland was best man and ushers were Bob Delsman, Ashland, and Gary Taylor of Klamath Falls.

Wedding music was played by Jahala Shaffer who also accompanied Marsha Griggs and Kurt Fiedler when they sang "Because" as a duet.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown chose a two piece blue print dress, white hat and accessories. Mrs. James wore a pink nylon print dress, pink hat and accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink elf roses and carnations.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. Assisting at the table were Mrs. E. E. Mettler, Mrs. Fred Steinerson, Sharon Dewing and Mrs. Charles Johnson. The guest book was signed by Trudy Evans, cousin of the bride. Ester Brown was at the gift table.

The bride wore a gray suit with light blue accessories as she and her husband left for their wedding trip in a shower of pink rice thrown by the guests.

The young couple will reside in Oakland where he is a medical technician at Kaiser Hospital. He was graduated from Ashland High School, attended Southern Oregon College and is a graduate of OTI where he was a member of Silver Key honor society. Mrs. James is a graduate of KUHS and OTI.

Out-of-town guests included Larry Brown, brother of the bride from Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Orville James and Georgia Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. O. Dean Williams, Scotty and Sandy Dean, Wayne South and Bob Delsman, all of Ashland; Mrs. Luetta Testerman, aunt of the bridegroom from Los Angeles; Carol Rosen, cousin of the bridegroom of San Jose, California; Linda Norton, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Brown, Canyonville, aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Singleton, Yreka; Ronald Clawson, Alturas, and Charles Martin, OTI.

Campus News

Nancy Dewey and Nancy Layman of Klamath Falls have won two of the top Oregon State College campus awards for women students. Nancy Dewey was named to receive an Alpha Lambda Delta certificate. These are given annually to senior women who were members of Alpha Lambda Delta, national freshman women's scholastic honorary, and have continued to maintain high scholarship throughout their college career. She will be graduated this spring in the school of science. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dewey are her parents.

Nancy Layman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Layman, was picked to receive one of three Sackett Hall scholarships. These are partial-tuition scholarships given to women living in Sackett Hall dormitory. She is a sophomore in the school of engineering.

As social chairman of the senior class at Marylhurst College, Barbara Campbell of Bly had charge of arrangements for the senior prom at the Portland Golf Club on May 8. She was assisted by five committee chairmen, among whom was Catherine Kunt of Klamath Falls. They were also among the college singers who performed in the Holy Names Centenary concert at Portland civic auditorium. The mass chorus, composed of students from 10 schools, was conducted by Roger Wagner, world famous choral director.

Barbara also was presented in recent recital by the music department on May 13. Each pianist was accompanied by the college chamber orchestra.

Kathie Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Marshall, was recently initiated into University of Oregon chapter of Chi Delta Phi, women's national literary honorary. Admission to the honorary follows acceptance of two or more manuscripts by the prospective member.

Also from the University of Oregon comes word of the pledging of Erlene Whitehouse to Oregon Beta chapter of Phi Chi Theta, national business women's scholastic honorary. A sophomore in accounting, she was one of eight sophomores and junior women tapped for the honor.

Lloyd P. Baker of Klamath Falls was honored at Founders Day ceremonies May 6 at Indiana University during the observance of the 139 anniversary of the Hoosier state university. The students all were selected because of high scholastic achievement.

CAROL ROSS, bride-elect of Robert F. Anderson, was guest of honor at a bridal shower the evening of May 4 at the home of Mrs. Marcella Raymond on Pacific Terrace. Hostesses with Mrs. Raymond were Mrs. R. G. Torgerson, Mrs. Earl Maskell and Mrs. Myrtle Schuss. They had arranged the prettily wrapped gifts around a tiered table which held a bridal doll under a frilly umbrella. Spring flowers were placed around the room and an arrangement of pansies centered the dining table where dessert was served to Mrs. Lena Smith, Mrs. Guy Hancock, Mrs. Bill Hooper, Mrs. Frank Mosebar, Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, Mrs. Bill Grove, Mrs. John West, Mrs. R. B. Hix, Mrs. Donald K. Smith, Mrs. Gus Anderson and Mrs. Bob Ross.
