

EULALONA CHAPTER, Daughters of the American Revolution, has loaned a valuable collection of historical scrapbooks to the city library for use of genealogical groups. These scrapbooks contain classified and indexed items of historical interest about Klamath County and many pictures of early day residents. Mrs. Addie May Nixon, city librarian, left, receives the scrapbooks from Mrs. Roland Wright, center, the 1959 DAR scrapbook chairman. Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, right, was the first scrapbook chairman in 1937.

Yreka Women's Club

YREKA — Highlight of the program presented at the April meeting of the Yreka Federated Women's Club was a talk by Mrs. Irving Sawyer of Yreka, who spoke on her recent trip to the Hearst San Simeon state historical monument.

The afternoon session of the club took place at the home of Mrs. Mary Lemos. Mrs. Sawyer showed photographs of the grounds and interiors of the building to further illustrate her talk.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Almon Burgess, during which time the group voted to contribute $5 to the Yreka Elementary School PTA, towards the purchase of fluorescent tape for bicycles.

A report on the recent district convention for Federated Women's Club, held at Willows, California was given by Mrs. James Sullivan, who also read a poem by Edgar Guest as the devotional.

Present as guests were Mrs. Mary Bovee, former resident of Siskiyou County, who has just returned to Yreka to establish her home after living in Montana for sometime. She was a guest of the hostess, Mrs. Lemos; and Mrs. Lorene Claye, was a guest of Mrs. Rose Sylvia.

Other members present were Mrs. Grace Ballfre, Mrs. Hartsel Gray, Mrs. L. L. Lichens, Mrs. George Luttrell, Mrs. Lester Newton, Mrs. Ella Soule, Mrs. John Soule, Mrs. John Sutherland, Mrs. Isabelle Tebbe, Mrs. Rosamond Westover and Miss Jessie Coonrod.

On May 12, the group plans to hold a reciprocity luncheon for members and guests at the home of the president, Mrs. Almon Burgess, and on Tuesday, May 26, installation of officers will take place following a luncheon at the Yreka Inn.

ALTAR SOCIETY MEETS

BONANZA—The Altar Society of St. Frances Cabrini Catholic Church met at the home of Mrs. John Thompson of Pine Flat on May 7. Father Fumo of Klamath Falls was in charge of the short business meeting. Final plans were made for summer school. This is the last meeting of the society until September.

Prizes went to Mrs. Wilbert Hall and Mrs. Hattie Walker. Refreshments were served to Father Fumo, Hattie Walker, June Nork, Mary Lynch, Emma Ralph, Rose Hubble, Florence McCarrie, Lorraine Beck and a guest, Mrs. Willadean Hall.
