Aaron's Bat, Gordon's Ears Scorching

United Press International
Hank Aaron's bat is the hottest thing in baseball today unless you're talking about Joe Gordon's ears.

Aaron stretched his hitting streak to 21 games and kept his batting average at .484 Sunday when the Milwaukee Braves beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 8-3. Hammerin' Hank broke a 2-2 tie with a two-run homer in the fifth inning and also contributed a single to Milwaukee's 14-hit attack.

Such devastating clutch hitting has the Braves 2½ games in front in the National League race—by far their best position at this stage of a pennant race in three years. They trailed after 29 games by 2½ in 1958 and by two games in 1957.

But you could light a couple of matches on Gordon's ears because of the job the second-guessers are doing on him in the aftermath of the Cleveland Indians' Sunday doubleheader split with the Baltimore Orioles. Gordon came under fire for sticking with rookie reliever Jim Perry in an 8-7, 11-inning opening game loss even though the Indians rebounded to take the nightcap, 8-3, and retain their half-game lead in the American League.

The Orioles forced the first game into extra innings when a three-run homer by Gus Triandos capped a nine-inning rally against Cal McLish and tied the score, 7-7. Then with relief ace Dick Brodsky ready in the bullpen in the 11th, he stuck with Perry while he filled the bases with two hits and a walk and then walked Billy Klaus to force in the winning run.

The San Francisco Giants took over second place by beating the Cincinnati Reds, 9-1, and the Pittsburgh Pirates split with the Chicago Cubs in the other National League games. The Pirates won the first game, 5-4, but the Cubs came back to take the nightcap, 7-6.

Connolly Breaks Own World Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Harold Connolly, the Boston strongboy, isn't one to rest on his laurels.

Less than a year ago, he set a world hammer throw record of 225 feet, 4 inches.

Last Saturday, Connolly shattered his own world mark with a prodigious toss of 226½, just 3 feet 10½ inches short of another one of those "impossible" performances—a 230-foot hammer throw. Later, AAU officials found the throwing ring too wide but said they still would submit the throw for official recognition.

Connolly got off his flip on his third try in the Pacific Southwest AAU Championships in San Diego.

Bob Boyd Meets 'Spoiler' Tonight

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Unranked George Benton, a spoiler looking for a break to move him into boxing's big money class, gets his chance tonight against Bobby Boyd for whom defeat means smaller purses.

Boyd, 25, was knocked down in the 10th ranking position in the middleweight division after being stopped by Spider Webb in his last fight. Boyd's record is 51-11-3 against the best in the division.

The Chicago White Sox beat the Washington Senators, 10-7, after their eight-game winning streak was ended, 4-2, in the opener; the Yankees won their opener, 3-2, but were humiliated, 10-0 by the Kansas City Athletics in the second game and the Boston Red Sox beat the Detroit Tigers, 10-1, in other American League activity.

A crowd of 49,347 at Los Angeles saw Lew Burdette pitch his seventh complete game and win his sixth decision with an eight-hitter. Batterymate Del Crandall, playing before Fullerton, Calif., townfolk, homered and had three singles for the Braves.

Gonzales' Match Lasts 2 Hours

PORTLAND (AP)—Pancho Gonzales defeated Australian Mal Anderson 6-1, 2-6, 17-15 in a professional tennis match here Sunday night. The marathon encounter lasted 2 hours and 15 minutes.

At one point, Gonzales disputed a call on an Anderson serve and demanded a change in linesmen.

"Come on, get him out of there," Gonzales, the champ of the pro tour, said.

Umpire Vic Ramis asked: "Do you want to bring your own linesman?"

"I've got all night," Gonzales replied. The change he asked soon was made.

In another singles match, before about 1,000 fans, Lew Hoad beat Ashley Cooper 6-4, 6-4.

Podbielan, Bilko Highlight PCL With Shutout, Grand Slammer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two Pacific Coast League pitchers with a no-loss record tangled at San Diego Sunday. When the game was over Phoenix's Eddie Fisher had suffered his first loss of the season and Bud Podbielan had pitched the Padres to a 3-0 win.

Podbielan, who hasn't allowed a run in 22 innings, gave up six hits in twirling his shutout. He hasn't been touched for more than six hits in any game this year and has a 3-0 record. Fisher's now is 5-1.

Another old-faithful, Steve Bilko, hit a bases-loaded homer to give Spokane a 3-3 win over Seattle after the Indians had taken the first game 10-1. Sacramento took two from Salt Lake City, 3-0 and 3-2. Vancouver beat Portland 8-5 in a single game and San Diego completed its sweep with a 5-3 win over Phoenix in the nightcap.

The giants played brilliantly in the field in their first game with the Pads, robbing them of extra-base hits, but Podbielan kept them from bunching their hits.

Willie McCovey slammed a roster to 21 players by putting Spider Jorgensen on the inactive list, used five pitchers in beating Portland. The big blow came in the eighth inning when Ron Hansen whacked a three-run homer. The win put the Mounties in third place in the standings.

Meanwhile, league-leading Sacramento took two from Salt Lake City with pitcher Joe Sianka chalking up his fourth victory in the shutout opener. Home runs by Mike Krsnich and Mickey Jones tied the score in the nightcap after the Bees scored two runs in the first inning on two singles and a double. The Solons' winning tally came in the fourth on a walk, a wild pitch and a single.
