SOCIETY

By HELEN BECHEN

MRS. PAUL HELMER is a member of the national board of the League of Women Voters. She will be a guest of the local league on Thursday, May 21, at a tea from two until four at the Congregational Church social hall. All league members and their friends are invited to meet her at that time. Mrs. Helmer, a resident of Kentfield, California, joined the league in Pennsylvania when it was founded in 1940. Since that time she has been active in various leagues in Missouri and Pennsylvania, and was California state president from 1955 to 1957. She was elected to the national board in April 1958.

Legion Women Hold Meeting

MERRILL—Plans for a window display and the selling of poppies in memory of the war dead were discussed by members of Merrill American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 80 during a meeting held Tuesday evening, May 12, at the home of Mrs. Warren Fruits. The poppy sale will be held on Saturday, May 23. Crosses to be placed in the cemetery were also decorated with poppies by the members.

Reports were heard on the birthday dinner held March 31 and a special dinner held for department president Gertrude Dickie on her visitation April 16. It was announced that Linda Katon had been selected by the Merrill unit to attend Girls State at Willamette University Campus beginning June 15. Members were informed that election of officers will be held next month on June 9.

Faculty Wives Elect Officers

The City Faculty Wives Club held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Teale. The main item of business was the election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Howard Bailey was elected president, Mrs. Dean White, vice president, and Mrs. Charles Woodhouse, secretary-treasurer. The new officers were presented with carnation corsages. Mrs. Clarence Humble gave a very interesting informal lecture on antique china and glassware using for illustration some fine pieces from her own collection. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Charles Woodhouse, chairman, Mrs. Rodrick Groshon, Mrs. Wendell Smith, Mrs. Jack Kemmitter, Mrs. Harold Teale, Mrs. Donald Golding and Mrs. Lloyd Emery.

Party Honors Five Birthdays

MONTAGUE — Highlight of the refreshments served by Mrs. Ora McGregor when she entertained the Little Shasta Auction Club on Wednesday, May 13, was a specially decorated "birthday" cake, made in honor of five members of the group, whose birthdays occurred in May.

Five candles had been arranged on the cake, so that the birthday honorees, each received a piece of cake with a candle on it. Specially honored was Mrs. Rita Prather, who was observing her birthday on that day, by being presented a nosegay of lilies-of-the-valley and violets. Others with May birthdays were Mrs. Edith Butler, Mrs. Edith Williams, Mrs. Ora McGregor and Mrs. Ethel Gillis.

Mrs. McGregor had decorated her party rooms with spring blossoms, and was assisted with hostess duties by Mrs. Jennie Matthews.

Prize awards were doubled, with two each of high, second high, low and traveling, with winners being in order as follows: Mrs. Leon Bryan and Mrs. Rita Prather; Mrs. Edith Williams and Mrs. Jennie Matthews; Mrs. Aldee Davis and Mrs. Mabel Pasburg; Mrs. Jim Tyler and Mrs. George Flock. The Little Shasta Club will meet next on June 10, with Mrs. Rita Prather and Mrs. George Flock sharing hostess duties.

OTI Alumni Plan Reunion

Approximately 100 Oregon Technical Institute alumni, including husbands and wives, are expected to attend a spring social get-together in the exhibit building of Klamath County Fairgrounds Saturday evening, according to Bob Scholl, OTI Alumni Association president. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and there will be dancing to records and other entertainment during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gumbert are co-chairmen of the event. Gumbert is alumni association vice president. Late reservations should be telephoned to them at TU 2-0693.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN

YREKA—Election of officers and a talk by O. G. Steele of Yreka, highlighted the recent meeting of the Yreka Council of Republican Women at the Yreka Inn. New officers elected were Mrs. Florence Marliave, president; Mrs. Georgian Lathrop, vice president; Mrs. L. B. Walters, secretary; and Mrs. George Flock, treasurer. The topic of Steele's talk was on the future of the work being projected for the Republican party. The women are currently active in a national campaign, Building for 60. They are also planning for a moonlight barbecue to be held in the near future at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Waters on Greenhorn Road.
