

RICHARD FLYNN, left, and Dorothy Taylor were named valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of the Tulelake High School 1959 graduating class.

Concluding Honors Slated For Klamath Falls Resident

The solemn investiture of Edward J. Murray, Klamath Falls, in the Knighthood of Saint Gregory the Great, conferred in March by His Holiness, Pope John XXIII, is to be concluded in a service at Sacred Heart Church, Sunday, May 24, at 7:30 p.m.

The eventual ceremony, the first to be performed in Klamath Falls and third in the history of Oregon, will be solemnized by His Excellency, the Most Rev. Francis P. Leipzig, D.D., bishop of the Baker Diocese.

A reception will follow from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Sacred Heart Parish Hall in honor of Mr. Murray.

The investiture will bring, in addition to Bishop Leipzig, other Catholic Church dignitaries from neighboring Oregon parishes and parishes in California.

The decoration to be conferred was established in 1831 by Pope Gregory XVI who placed it under the patronage of St. Gregory the Great. It is conferred only on those who have been outstanding in devotion and service to the church. Mr. Murray has devoted more than half a century to such service.

This will be the first time the honor has been conferred in the Baker Diocese. Other recipients in Oregon have been Dr. John McLaughlin, of early Oregon history and in June 1923 to John P. Miller of Portland. It has thus been 36 years since the honor was last conferred.

Mr. Murray has devoted much of his lifetime to the field of newspaper publishing. He came to Klamath Falls in 1906 to buy and publish the Klamath Falls Evening Herald, continuing as its publisher until 1926. He is retired.

Members of the family and friends expected to be present include Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hannon, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Hannon, Sacramento; Attorney and Mrs. William Hannon, Castro Valley; Mr. and Mrs. M. Fisher, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McAuliffe, Cottonwood, California; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McAuliffe, Fort Klamath; Katherine Krumlinde, Richmond, California; Mrs. Francis Hannon, Tulelake, and Bernadine Hannon, Klamath Falls.

The Right Rev. Msgr. Timothy P. Casey, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Klamath Falls, issued the invitations to the ceremony.

UNIDENTIFIED needy transient, foreground, receives meal ticket from Mrs. Betty J. Crank, Salvation Army office secretary in Klamath Falls, while Capt. M. Lewis Kendall looks on. This is National Salvation Army Week.

Klamath Salvation Army Tells Aid Figures For '58

Single men and families numbering 2,790 received meal tickets from the Salvation Army during the year 1958. The meals are provided by a local restaurant, at a nominal cost. This is one way in which the Army provides emergency assistance for the transient, single person and family.

During the year 1958, 4,903 individuals benefited from such services provided by the Klamath Falls Corps of the Salvation Army. This included 2,964 single persons and 291 families.

Lodgings in a local hotel were available for one stranded family that was brought to attention of the SA either through local authorities or by personal interview. One hundred fifty two persons were provided lodging until their case could be referred to proper agencies for extended assistance, or until other arrangements could be made for the disposition of the case.

In certain verified instances, transportation was provided for such single persons and families, when after proper investigation, it was felt that such transportation was for the best interest of the persons involved.

For the families, grocery orders and rent orders were provided in order to help the family over a particular crisis. Many of these families are local people. Many such orders were provided for families that were in the waiting period for unemployment insurance, or where the family has arrived on the weekend, and the emergency needs of the family were met until they could be referred to the county welfare for further assistance.

Throughout the year the army officer has been available to the local authorities for call at any time day or night, to aid them in providing emergency aid for the stranded family in this area. Many such calls were received throughout the year.

The Salvation Army is prepared to meet the emergency needs of any transient family or individual that may contact them either through an office call or a personal visit. Mrs. Betty J. Crank, the office secretary, handles all initial interviews with clients. She averages 75 such interviews a week.

ONE GOT BY MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — The police department reported receipt, through the U. S. mails, of a letter mailed with a green trading stamp, duly cancelled by the post office.

Education, Not Finances, Top Concern Of Conclave

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—To many Americans the basic problem in education is strictly financial—we need more money for more

CITY BRIEFS

Card Party — at the Midland Grange Hall on Saturday night, May 23, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served. Public is invited.

Local Well Drillers—will meet at the home of Ken Hartley, 1703 Lakeshore Drive, on Saturday, May 23, at 7:30 p.m. Pump dealers and suppliers are urged to attend. Local drillers attending the regional meeting of the Oregon Drilling Association at Roseburg on May 16 were Charles Hartley, Ken Hartley, George Hartley and Eldon Storey.

World War I — Barracks and Auxiliary will meet on Friday at 8 p.m. at the VFW Hall. Any World War I veteran, wife or widow of a World War I veteran is invited to attend. Men will serve the refreshments.

Bethel No. 6—Job's Daughters regular meeting on Thursday, May 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Installation of guardian council.

Foreign Films — A showing of two foreign films sponsored by AAUW will be held at 8 Sunday in the KUHS Little Theater. Of the films: "Rembrandt" with Charles Laughton, the New York Times said, "rich and glowing;" of "On Approval," the Los Angeles Daily News said, "Beatrice Lilly's finest appearance." Admission is 99 cents, at the door.

VFW Auxiliary — will meet to night at 8 o'clock at the VFW Hall. Cancer bandages will be rolled. Anyone desiring poppies for sale on Friday and Saturday should attend the meeting.

Prosperity—Rebekah Lodge will hold a regular meeting May 21 (tonight) at 8 o'clock. All officers participating in draping of the charter please wear long white formal.

Rebekah—Social Club will meet at the home of Velma Kraus, 2014 Beaver Street, Monday, May 25, for a dessert luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

Nature Society—will conduct a wildflower and birdwatching tour in the Klamath Marsh area on the Klamath Indian Reservation. The caravan will leave from in front of the chamber of commerce at 7 a.m. Sunday, May 24. Anyone wanting to go is welcome. Take lunch, field glasses and water. Trip conductor, Kenneth McLeod.

United Nations — The Klamath County Chapter, United Nations Association will meet at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, May 28, at the home of Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, president, 863 Lakeshore Drive. Mrs. Brixner, Kenneth Lambie, vice president of the local association and Charles Johnson, past president, will attend the state convention of United Nations in Portland this weekend.

Visitors — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keller, daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Louise Humphrey, 432 Main, will arrive tonight for a brief visit en route home after a vacation trip to Ohio and other points East where they picked up a new car. Keller is associated with Mutual of Omaha.

Midland Grange — Home Economics Club will sponsor a card party, 8 p.m. Saturday, May 23, in the grange hall.

Past Oracles — Club will meet Friday, May 22, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Alice Hoover on Del Fatti Lane. All past oracles invited.

Eagles Auxiliary—will meet at 8 p.m. Friday, May 22, in the lodge room to celebrate the 31st anniversary and honor charter members. A class of candidates will be initiated. All members are asked to take a cake. Those who have Centennial dresses are asked to wear them. Plants for the plant sale are to be taken. Refreshments after the meeting.

Newspaper SPOT ADS are inexpensive — repeated daily 94c

Theological School Issue Comes Before Meeting

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A showdown loomed today on whether Southern Baptists will stand for continued regulation by an outside accrediting agency of the way they run their theological schools.

The issue, which touches a sensitive nerve in relationships among Protestants, was expected to go before the denomination's annual convention.

It stems from the intervention of the American Assn. of Theological Schools, an interdenominational accrediting body, in a smoldering dispute at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary here.

The seminary has been ordered to rectify certain conditions — or lose its accredited status.

In retaliation, the Rev. L. E. Barton of Montgomery, Ala., is pushing a move to get the convention to pull all six of its seminaries out of the association.

This would automatically cost them their standing with other theological institutions.

In circulars sent to Baptist leaders throughout the country, Barton has maintained that outsiders have no business telling Southern Baptists how to conduct their affairs.

They have never belonged to groups as the National and World Councils of churches, and Barton contends their seminaries should not be subject to any "ecumenical organization."

Top leaders of the nine-million-member denomination, including President Brooks Hays, have opposed any walkout from the association, saying it would be a grave blow at Baptist academic prestige. Seminary officials also have worked to correct the original problem, involving the mass firing last summer of 13 professors, in compliance with criticisms by the association.

One professor has been reinstated. The dismissal of the others has been rescinded, and they have resigned.

They had originally assailed the seminary administration of Dr. Duke K. McCall as high-handed.

Meanwhile, the 15,000 Baptist "messengers" and visitors from across the country heard several reports, including a warning that Christianity is not keeping abreast of growing population.

They registered strong approval of a plea by Hays for establishment of racial justice and elimination of discrimination.

"This is part of the Christian gospel, and we must demonstrate that we believe it," the former congressman from Arkansas said. "It is the mission field on our own doorstep."

A two-way race developed in the election of a successor to Hays, with Dr. Ramsey Pollard, Knoxville, Tenn., and a surprise Georgia candidate, the Rev. Dr. Roy O. McClain of Atlanta, leading a field of five in the first voting. A run-off vote was set Thursday.

They have never belonged to groups as the National and World Councils of churches, and Barton contends their seminaries should not be subject to any "ecumenical organization."

Top leaders of the nine-million-member denomination, including President Brooks Hays, have opposed any walkout from the association, saying it would be a grave blow at Baptist academic prestige. Seminary officials also have worked to correct the original problem, involving the mass firing last summer of 13 professors, in compliance with criticisms by the association.

One professor has been reinstated. The dismissal of the others has been rescinded, and they have resigned.

They had originally assailed the seminary administration of Dr. Duke K. McCall as high-handed.

Meanwhile, the 15,000 Baptist "messengers" and visitors from across the country heard several reports, including a warning that Christianity is not keeping abreast of growing population.

State Toilers To Be Paid

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Payday meant just that today for Michigan's nearly 27,000 state-employed workers.

Contrary to the situation two weeks ago, there was sufficient money in the state treasury to meet the $5,100,000 biweekly payroll.

The May 7 payday was bypassed in the state's cash crisis. Since then an increase in incoming tax receipts has closed the gap. Auditor Gen. Frank S. Szymanski indicated a decision will probably be reached this week on whether to release $6,700,000 to the state's three major universities — Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State — to meet monthly payrolls.

Meanwhile, the Michigan Legislature continued its debate on ways to meet the state's cash emergency.

They registered strong approval of a plea by Hays for establishment of racial justice and elimination of discrimination.

"This is part of the Christian gospel, and we must demonstrate that we believe it," the former congressman from Arkansas said. "It is the mission field on our own doorstep."

A two-way race developed in the election of a successor to Hays, with Dr. Ramsey Pollard, Knoxville, Tenn., and a surprise Georgia candidate, the Rev. Dr. Roy O. McClain of Atlanta, leading a field of five in the first voting. A run-off vote was set Thursday.

Top leaders of the nine-million-member denomination, including President Brooks Hays, have opposed any walkout from the association, saying it would be a grave blow at Baptist academic prestige. Seminary officials also have worked to correct the original problem, involving the mass firing last summer of 13 professors, in compliance with criticisms by the association.

One professor has been reinstated. The dismissal of the others has been rescinded, and they have resigned.

They had originally assailed the seminary administration of Dr. Duke K. McCall as high-handed.

Meanwhile, the 15,000 Baptist "messengers" and visitors from across the country heard several reports, including a warning that Christianity is not keeping abreast of growing population.

They registered strong approval of a plea by Hays for establishment of racial justice and elimination of discrimination.

"This is part of the Christian gospel, and we must demonstrate that we believe it," the former congressman from Arkansas said. "It is the mission field on our own doorstep."

A two-way race developed in the election of a successor to Hays, with Dr. Ramsey Pollard, Knoxville, Tenn., and a surprise Georgia candidate, the Rev. Dr. Roy O. McClain of Atlanta, leading a field of five in the first voting. A run-off vote was set Thursday.

They have never belonged to groups as the National and World Councils of churches, and Barton contends their seminaries should not be subject to any "ecumenical organization."

Top leaders of the nine-million-member denomination, including President Brooks Hays, have opposed any walkout from the association, saying it would be a grave blow at Baptist academic prestige. Seminary officials also have worked to correct the original problem, involving the mass firing last summer of 13 professors, in compliance with criticisms by the association.

One professor has been reinstated. The dismissal of the others has been rescinded, and they have resigned.

They had originally assailed the seminary administration of Dr. Duke K. McCall as high-handed.

Meanwhile, the 15,000 Baptist "messengers" and visitors from across the country heard several reports, including a warning that Christianity is not keeping abreast of growing population.

Five Workers Given Awards

Five Klamath Agency employes in the realty branch were presented cash awards accompanied by Certificate of Superior Performance citations. Awards were made by the Portland Area Office, Bureau of Indian Affairs, to Cleveland Nelson, real property officer, and his staff employes, Charlotte Walker, Martha Olney, Margaret Shorey and Teresa DeLorme.

Awards were made because of the fine manner in which these employes carried out a most difficult assignment of realty functions in relation to the Klamath Termination Act, Public Law 387.

With the completion of these major assignments, the staff has been reduced to two employes, Cleveland Nelson and Teresa DeLorme.

Margaret Shorey, upon her request, was transferred to the Gallup Area, Gallup, New Mexico. Charlotte Walker accepted a position with the Umatilla Indian Sub-agency, Pendleton. Martha Olney remains with Klamath Agency in the branch of administration.

The hobby of Maj. Gen. William Donald Old, commander of the Ninth Air Force, is gardening.

Complete with Attachments and Fully Guaranteed the Same As If You Paid the Regular Full Price . . . Act Now!

Come In Today or Call TU 4-7193 5-21-59

DEAN'S STARK'S VACUUM CLEANERS SALES & SERVICE

GUARANTEED REPAIRS All makes - no matter how old. Parts, bags & Filters in Stock!

And Sewing Center 122 South 9th

Racer Guilty: Given Year Term

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A teenage drag racer accused of causing a traffic accident that killed three persons was convicted of manslaughter Wednesday.

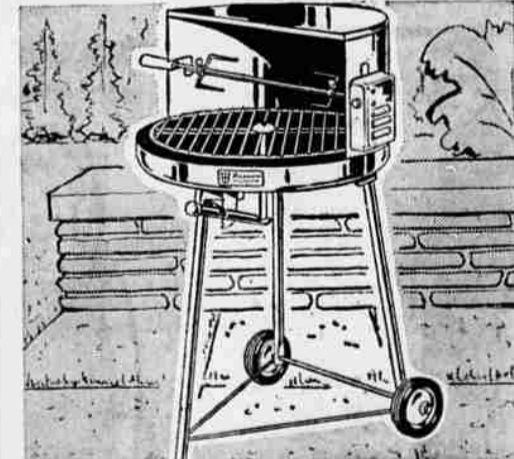

Robert Clarence Fennewald, 18, was sentenced to a year in jail and fined $1,000 in Circuit Court.

Witnesses said Fennewald was racing at speeds of more than 100 miles an hour last Nov. 23 in North St. Louis just before the accident. They said he forced the car he was racing into the wrong lane, where it collided with another car.

The hobby of Maj. Gen. William Donald Old, commander of the Ninth Air Force, is gardening.

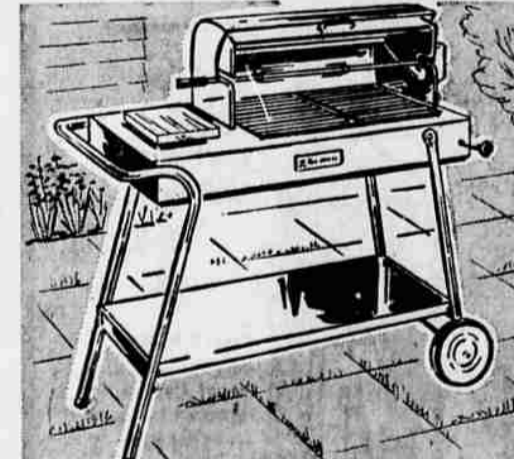

SEARS Fun in the Sun for the months of Sun-days ahead! shop at Sears and save

NOW A 30-DAY CHARGE ACCOUNT AT SEARS

low priced Brazier gives you delicious summer fun Buy now on Sears Revolving Charge Reg. 19.98 15.99 Charge It

Have an exciting summer of outdoor cooking! Have roasts, hams, ribs and chickens . . . all with hickory smoked charcoal in this giant 21-in. brazier. Stainless nickel chrome spit has two forks to hold chicken and roasts in place. Motor does the work. Hurry, see it at Sears now.

Covered Wagon Grill Lets You Barbecue in Any Weather Cover holds in heat Keeps out rain, dust 26.99 Charge It Fastest, easiest way to barbecue! Adjustable firebox for heat control when using motorized spit. All sturdy construction with green hammertone finish, chrome grid and spit. Cutting board, 7-in. wheels.

NOW... A 30-DAY CHARGE ACCOUNT AT SEARS you select the way to pay . . . on Sears Revolving Charge. Use as a 30-day charge or take many months to pay.

Kenmore Motorized Folding Brazier Charge It 32.98 Styled for convenience, built to last. Has UL Approved fan cooled motor. Hood with 24-inch oval.

Barbecue Tool Sets Charge It 2.98 Charcoal Light Fluid Charge 49c Steak Broiler Charge 2.98 Kenmore Fire Base Charge 89c Charcoal Briquets Charge 99c

Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back SEARS 133 So. Eighth Phone TU 2-4481 Shop Thursday and Friday Till 9 P.M.