Stocks WALL STREET NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices late today churned near their lows of the session following a sudden decline started by a break in space age issues. Turnover was the week's heaviest. Volume for the day was estimated at 3,600,000 shares compared with 3,170,000 Tuesday. Key stocks dropped fractions to about a point while the electronic-missiles-rocket fuels took losses ranging to a half dozen points. A sharp drop in Raytheon triggered the collapse in the space age issues. Raytheon was off more than 5 1/2 in the day, clipping a couple of points from its worst decline. Texas Instruments was down about 6, Zenith about 3 and General Tire more than a point. Litton Industries was down about 5. Fractional losses were taken by leading steels and motors. Allied Chemical and Goodyear fell more than point each. A sudden gust of selling torpedoed a market which had been working itself irregularly higher. A partial recovery left stocks slightly above their lows of the day as trading became very quiet in late dealings. U.S. government bonds improved fractionally.

High School Reunion Set

DUNSMUIR — A grand reunion of alumni of Dunsmuir High School is being planned for Saturday night, June 20, at the Mt. Shasta Ski Bowl Lodge. This event will coincide with the celebration of Railroad Days in Dunsmuir, a time when many former residents return to the community. George "Red" Adams, Class of '34, is asking all who wish to attend to write him at his home, 125 Grover, Dunsmuir, California. The amorgasbord dinner will be $3 a plate with entertainment for the evening including dancing to a live combo orchestra. The Charlestown, the hesitation waltz, jitterbug numbers and rock and roll will be among the specialties of the evening. The lodge will accommodate up to 400 alumni, their spouses and friends, Adams said, and he needs at least 150 paid reservations for the dinner by June 12 to assure availability of the lodge. Organization of this event at this date does not allow for individual invitations or even the appointment of chairmen by class. All reunion enthusiasts are being asked to contact members of their classes, Adams said. Alumni working with Adams on the reunion include Aletha DuBoise Guy, class of '35; Richard Cool, class of '43; Jerry Spencer, class of '44; Shirley Hooghrain Edson, class of '39; Argyll Millon Adams, class of '41; Betty Hardy Kelby, class of '38, all of Dunsmuir.

Adams said the reunion committee will also arrange motel or hotel accommodations and baby sitters if checks for accommodations are mailed to him prior to June 12. Skiers from San Francisco and other peninsula cities, from Oregon and Chico were among the winter sports enthusiasts bringing a blustery, squally weekend at the bowl. Milder weather this week-end should provide "shirt sleeve" skiing, diCristina said. Among the coming events at the bowl are a special trip for Klamath River students arranged by the Yreka and Seiad ranger district of the U.S. Forest Service. Eight winners of a conservation poster contest were expected at the bowl on May 20. On May 30, the Square D's of Dunsmuir, a square dancing and folk dancing group, will have a party. Howard Jones of Dunsmuir is making arrangements.

Shasta Skiing Said Excellent

DUNSMUIR — Skiing conditions are still termed excellent at the Mt. Shasta Ski Bowl, Bill diCristina, lodge manager, announced this week. Fresh powder snow fell at the bowl last weekend on top of the winter snow pack which is expected to last until mid-June. Skiers from San Francisco and other peninsula cities, from Oregon and Chico were among the winter sports enthusiasts bringing a blustery, squally weekend at the bowl. Milder weather this week-end should provide "shirt sleeve" skiing, diCristina said. Dunsmuir Youth Dog Bite Victim

DUNSMUIR—Stephen Gilley, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilley, required eight stitches in his face after being bitten by the family dog on Saturday. The boy's father says there was no way of determining whether the dog actually attacked the boy or if he was playing. The mishap took place in the Gilley home. Stephen required a number of protective shots and pain deadening shots but his father said the greatest blow was to his morale in having to give up his pet. The dog, a large shepherd breed, was not considered safe for the family since the accident.

Arrested by California Highway Patrol officers on a charge of vagrancy, Annie L. Daughterty, 19, was released to the custody of her parents on Sunday, May 17. A 16-year-old girl from Grants Pass, arrested at the same time as a runaway, will be returned to Oregon.

MONTAGUE — Wanda Glenn, 7-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. W. Glenn of the First Baptist Church of Montague, has been chosen to represent Montague in the Miss Siskiyou Contest, now being conducted through out the county. The Montague Rotary Club voted during their dinner meeting on Monday evening, May 18, to act as her sponsor. Also, on Monday evening, the Rotary members enjoyed a unit of several slides, composed of scenes taken in the Siskiyou County Courthouse, showing every office in the courthouse in action. They also showed scenes of action taken at the Montague Justice Court with Judge James B. McAdams presiding. The unit had been compiled by the eighth grade students of the Montague Elementary School under the direction of Dr. Kenneth Young, director of curriculum for Siskiyou County schools, and they were shown by Patsy Halton, eighth grade student of the Montague School.

Cigarette, Income Boosts Before Senate Group

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A fast administration power play today pushed Gov. Edmund G. Brown's cigarette and income tax bills into position for final passage. The tax boosts, stalled in a subcommittee Monday, were before the Senate Finance Committee for action today. Sen. George Miller (D-Martinez), an administration leader, held an unannounced meeting of the subcommittee Wednesday night. The bills were approved after little discussion. Chairman Sen. James J. McBridge (D-Ventura), predicted his Finance Committee would approve the taxes today, sending them to the Senate for final debate. The two tax bills would bring in 131 million dollars a year in new income. Miller called for a three-cent pack tax on cigarettes and cigars at a cost of 60 million dollars a year of smokers. The other would cost state income tax payers 71 million dollars a year, most of it from those making more than $25,000 a year. The average family of four earning less than $10,500 a year would pay a little less in income taxes and single persons and couples in that earning bracket would pay a little more. McBride, long an opponent of new or higher taxes, conceded his attempt to halt the tax measures had failed. Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael), however, continued the fight against taxes. He said yesterday there still was a possibility he could muster votes to hold the cigarette and income tax measures in committee. Miller said other measures of the administration's 256 million dollar tax program probably will be held in the Finance Committee until the budget is approved. Some of them still are in the Assembly, where all of them originated. Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D-Sacramento), author of the entire Brown tax program, said he would be willing to permit the rest of the tax proposals to wait for the budget if the Senate promptly approved the income and cigarette levies. Brown's tax proposals so far have been cut by 11 million dollars. The cigarette tax bill was cut by nine million dollars when proposed taxes on cigars and other tobacco products were dropped. The horse racing tax was cut by two million dollars Wednesday by the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee.

Vote Count Speedup Bill Amended By Ballot Group

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill designed to speed up California's slow vote count following statewide elections was amended Wednesday to make sure that it would accomplish the job for which it was intended. The measure was amended by the Assembly Elections Committee which will decide next week whether to clear the bill for lower house action. As it now stands, the plan will require county clerks to provide a running total of the votes from the time the polls close until all ballots have been counted. The county totals would be forwarded to the secretary of state every two hours. The state office would compile a statewide running total. The measure would also permit the county board of supervisors to order a fast count of "hot" races ahead of the full ballot tally. This system is currently used in Los Angeles, Alameda and other counties. The amendments were offered by the sponsor, Sen. James Cobey (D-Merced), after representatives of California newspapers, who proposed the legislation, complained that the bill had been changed to the point where it might actually have slowed down ballot counting. The amendments which newspapers objected to had been added at the urging of the county clerks. However, the county clerks did not object to the modifications adopted Wednesday.

Gasoline War Restrain Set

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Legislation designed to crack down on gasoline price wars by outlawing rebates for under the table payments designed to stifle competition has been approved by the Assembly Judiciary Committee. The bill by Assemblyman Bruce F. Allen (R-Los Gatos) would tighten state law against rebates which are intended to create a monopoly. A companion bill, also by Allen, which would permit persons penalized by unfair competition to sue for three times the actual damages also was approved by the committee. However, four measures which would have made it illegal for distributors to discriminate against retailers on the basis of locality and would have stiffened other sections of the unfair practices act were sent to an interim committee at Allen's request.

Air Hearing Continuing

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Representatives of San Diego, Calif., and Long Beach, Calif., will testify today before a Civil Aeronautics Board examiner on the establishment of a one-carrier air service linking key cities from California, the Gulf States and Florida. Orrin King, city manager of Downey, threw his city's support behind that of San Francisco and Los Angeles in the opening session of the hearings Wednesday by favoring the proposed single service. But, he said, businessmen of his community favored placing Long Beach airport on the route because "we can reach this airport in 20 minutes as opposed to 40 to 60 minutes to reach Los Angeles International Airport." Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco, in speaking in support of the new route, said, "San Francisco, to retain its historical position as a leading gateway to the Pacific and to maintain its economic competitive position with other West Coast communities must receive adequate air carrier service." It was claimed that the route across the southern tier of states presently is serviced by three separate airlines in an interchange system which causes delay in traveling the full distance. Stephen D. Gavin, chief assistant of Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson, read a statement by the mayor calling the hearings the "most important proceeding directly affecting the City of Los Angeles which has been or will be held in a long time." Nine airlines are competing to service the proposed route.

Father And Son Electrocuted

ROCKINGHAM, N.C. (AP) — A father and his son, working side by side on a power line project near here, were electrocuted Monday. The victims were Oscar Morris and his son, J. L. Morris of Chatham, S.C. The younger Morris had been working with his father only two weeks. They were part of a crew stringing a new line between here and nearby Hamlet. Authorities said the dead line the men were pulling into place slipped, whiplashed and touched a live wire on another pole. Johnny Jackson of Rockingham, a fellow worker, was burned slightly trying to help the men.

Fire Destroys Clothes, Bedding

MONTAGUE—Fire broke out in the two-room cabin owned and occupied by Ben Gregory of Montague, about 9:30 p.m. on Monday evening, May 18, destroying his clothing and bedding. Fire Chief S. A. "Penn" Messner of the Montague Volunteer Fire Department estimated the damage at about $200. Gregory had built a fire in his wood heating stove, which caused papers lying close by to become ignited. He had started the fire and then had left to visit some neighbors.

Fall Term Opens On September 10

DUNSMUIR—September 10 was set as the opening day for the 1959-60 school term at Dunsmuir High School by the Board of Trustees at the May meeting. This date was approved to give vacationing families an opportunity to include the Labor Day weekend in their plans and to start the school year without a series of holidays. The board voted to plan no major capital outlay projects this summer for the high school. Repairs to the school athletic field, the fence around it and the parking lots will be completed. This area was damaged by a slide last year. Ken Young, county curriculum adviser, showed board members a tape-slide report he is preparing on the California Association of Secondary School Administrators recent appraisal of Dunsmuir High School.
