

Bevos Bop Rainiers, Giants Dump Leader

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Another sharp performance by the Portland pitching staff lifted the Beavers to a tie for fifth place in the Pacific Coast League Thursday night.

Ken Johnson pitched the Portlanders to a 4-1 victory over Seattle and into a tie with Vancouver.

The Beavers now will battle it out with Vancouver in a four-game series opening tonight at Portland.

The Beavers gave Johnson an early lead Thursday night as Milt Graff opened the game at Seattle by walking. He moved up on a wild pitch and scored on a single by Russ Snyder. Jim Westlake scored Snyder with a double and home for a 3-0 lead.

Portland's other run came in the fifth. Graff again started things with a single. He scored on a double by Snyder.

Seattle meanwhile was pecking away at Johnson. The losers got 10 hits all told, compared to 6 for Portland, but Johnson spaced them well and gave up no walks at all. As a result Seattle could score only in the sixth inning on a single by Harry Malmberg and a triple by Eric Rodin.

In other games Phoenix defeated Sacramento 6-2, Salt Lake City won a doubleheader from San Diego, 5-0 in seven innings and 5-4 in 10 innings, and Spokane nosed out Vancouver 1-0.

Eddie Fisher, the Phoenix ace, held the Solons to three hits, including a two-run homer by Buddy Peterson in the ninth that spoiled the shutout. Jose Pagan got a solo homer for the Giants in the sixth inning and Bill Wilson belted out a three-run homer for the winners in the same frame.

Carlos Bernier's two-run single in the first inning gave the Bees all the cushion they needed to win the opener from the Padres and Dick Barone added more insurance with a solo homer in the second. Dick won it with an eight-hitter.

Jack Bloomfield's double off the rightfield wall, scoring Don Rowe, gave Salt Lake City victory in the 10th inning of the nightcap. Gene Leek pounded out a two-run homer for the Padres in the third inning. The Rainiers smashed out 10 hits to only six for the Beavers, but they were well-spaced out by Portland's Ken Johnson. Eric Rodin's triple, with Harry Malmberg aboard, spoiled Johnson's shutout in the sixth.

Norm Sherry's home run in the eighth inning, over the left field barrier, was the margin of victory for the Indians. Chuck Estrada and Bud Watkins of the Mounties combined talents for a three-hitter, with the loss going to Watkins. Connie Grob, who worked the route, won it with a five-hitter.

SEATTLE (AP) - The U. S. Lawn Tennis Assn., casting a possessive eye on the huge silver bowl that denotes world tennis supremacy, Thursday nominated Peruvian Alex Olmedo and 10 others to a preliminary, 11-man Davis Cup team for 1959.

Olmedo, a University of Southern California student, almost singlehandedly wrested the Davis Cup from Australia last year, the Peruvian won two singles matches and teamed with Ham Richardson for a doubles victory.

Naming of the preliminary cup team came only a few minutes before Davis Cup team Capt. Perry Jones presented the huge trophy to Victor Denny of Seattle, president of the USLTA.

Named along with Olmedo to the preliminary Davis Cup team were Earl Buchholz Jr., St. Louis; Chris L. Crawford, Piedmont, Calif.; Barry MacKay, Dayton, Ohio; Bernard Bartzen, Dallas; Don Dell, Bethesda, Md.; John Douglas, Palo Alto, Calif.; Myron J. Frank, Los Angeles; Grant Golden, Evanston, Ill.; Ronald Holmberg, Brooklyn; and Clifton Mayne, Berkeley.

Buchholz, Crawford and MacKay were members of the 1958-59 squad.

The four-man Davis Cup squad will be selected July 1 and will defend the cup at Forest Hills, N.Y., Aug. 28-29-30.

Hoad Beaten, Trails By 3

PALO ALTO (UPI) - Pancho Gonzales powered his way from behind in the third set Thursday night to defeat Lew Hoad, 4-6, 6-3, 9-7, and pull to within three matches of the Australian in their personal cross-country duel.

Trailing 5-4 in the final set, Gonzales rallied to break Hoad's serve twice and to on to the victory. The former Australian Davis Cup star contributed to his own downfall with several costly double faults.

The loss cost Hoad a chance to wrap up the tour victory. He now leads the pro champion from Los Angeles, 14-11, although Gonzales leads in earnings, with $26,150 to Hoad's $25,150.

The tour resumes Saturday night in Newport Beach, with Gonzales meeting Ashley Cooper and Hoad taking on Mal Anderson. Cooper easily defeated Anderson, 6-1, 6-2, Thursday night.

The 60-city tour will wind up with a two-match in La Jolla, May 30-31.

Evicted Family Back In Court

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Archiga family is back in court—this time Superior Court—to protest condemnation proceedings which resulted in their eviction from Chavez Ravine.

A similar suit was dismissed in federal court because no federal question was involved.

The family charges the City Housing Authority's condemnation of their property was a fraud because the agency had no intention of using the property for public housing. After a housing project plan was shelved, the acreage was sold to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Chavez Ravine is being cleared now for a new Dodger ballpark.

Bashful Handy Andy To Blossom For SF

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Andre Rodgers, a shy guy from Nassau in the Bahamas Islands, is about to blossom forth as a scintillating shortstop for the San Francisco Giants.

This lad, who never saw a baseball game until he was 17 years old, has all the actions to become a great fielding shortstop and a slugger at the plate, say the experts.

And, if he makes the grade as a star, give the credit to manager Bill Rigney, who displayed the patience of a Job in keeping the 24-year-old British subject on the field when he was causing the Giants to lose ball game after ball game.

"Andre's just nervous - tense - and he'll get over it," said Rigney. "Even after 30 ball games he still has trouble relaxing."

But Rigney, along with many other observers, has an idea that "Handy Andy" is going to be quite a ball player.

"I like the way he stands at the plate," said Ty Cobb, the old Georgia Peach, as he watched the Giants lose their series to the Milwaukee Braves.

Says Ernie Lombardi, former National League batting champion: "He has a picture swing."

Rodgers is batting around the 270 mark—which isn't bad for a rookie. But he made so many errors of commission and omission during the early part of the season that some spectators laughed right out loud at his antics on the field.

BOWLING TC Braves Waking Finally

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Tri-City Braves may be hibernating but if Ted Edmunds comes up with a few more pitching performances the way he did Thursday night, they're bound to wake up and edge at least a bit closer to the exit of the Northwest League baseball cellar.

Edmunds defeated Lewiston's Thornton Kipper, last season's top NWL hurler, as he gave up only three hits for the Braves' 7-0 victory over the Broncos. He fanned 13 batters and his record now is five wins against two losses.

Kipper, now 4-2, gave up 11 hits. Tri-City zoomed out of the first inning with three runs, scored on three singles, a walk and an error. Three more singles gave the Braves another two tallies in the second and in the seventh they completed the scoring with two runs on four singles.

In other loop action, second place Eugene downed Wenatchee 12-7. Lewiston's loss, however, broke the third place tie and allowed Wenatchee sole possession of the No. 3 spot.
