Missionary To Address Zion Lutheran

Martha Boss, a deaconess-nurse of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod from Hong Kong, will speak at Zion Lutheran Church tonight at 7:30. It was announced by Pastor N. E. Dey today. Miss Boss has been serving the church in China and Hong Kong since 1945. She will illustrate her lecture with slides.

Miss Boss, a native of Cleveland and a graduate nurse and deaconess, entered China in 1941 as one of the first post-war civilians, by "flying over the hump" to Chungking, and then by boat and foot to Enshin in the province of Hupeh. Here she found a ramshackle mud hospital, without screens, hospital linens or bandages, the only hospital in a radius of 300 miles.

She became superintendent of the hospital and director of nurses training. With the help of American gifts and aid from the Red Cross, new hospital ground had been obtained and a new building was under construction when the communists came in 1949. Ordered by American authorities to leave the province, Miss Boss went westward to Chengtu, but the communists were soon everywhere and when she received the fateful word from the Lutheran World Federation that the last plane was leaving Chengtu for the free world, there was no choice and Miss Boss left Chengtu a few hours before the communists took over.

The plane took Miss Boss to Hong Kong, a British colony, jammed with refugees from China. Here she found other Lutheran workers who had left the interior. Together they began a mission program on their own in a territory where their church had never worked before.

The Mission Board was then persuaded to authorize the new mission field, which has in less than a decade become one of the greatest mission fields of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. The largest Sunday School of the Missouri Synod, well over 3,000 children, is located here. A Christian day school with a huge enrollment has been built and a dozen congregations have been established. In addition she directs a large program of workers who prefer to work rather than accept charities. She directs the marketing of their products through outlets in Canada and the United States. In addition Miss Boss also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Haven of Hope Tubercular Sanatorium.

The speaker is presently on furlough in the United States. As a part of her furlough activity, she is bringing the Hong Kong Story to Lutheran churches in her native Midwest, Canada, Oregon and Washington.

PUBLIC ADDRESS

There will be a public address on the subject of God's greatest gift, prayer, entitled, "What Can Prayer Do For You," by C. Truax Sr., representative of the Watchtower Society, Sunday, May 24, at 3 p.m. at the Kingdom Hall, 833 North Ninth Street. This will be followed at 4:15 p.m. by a study in the Watchtower on "Missionaries of God's Kingdom That Rules." All are welcome to attend.
