

CLAUDIA HEGLUND, left, is valedictorian, and Lowell Mannering is salutatorian of the senior class of Chiloquin High School that will be graduated June 2.

Chiloquin To Graduate 16; Honor Roll Toppers Listed

Claudia Heglund has been selected valedictorian and Lowell Mannering salutatorian of Chiloquin High School's 1959 graduating class of 13 girls and three boys.

Both are top students. Claudia received a "straight A" average during her four years in high school and Lowell received a near-perfect average.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Heglund and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mannering, all of Chiloquin.

Claudia is student body treasurer. She has been an active public speaker and participated in Elks Lodge panel discussions last winter. She also received the Elks second award scholarship conferred recently. She has been a member of the drill team and the Pep Club. She was editor of the school newspaper and co-editor of the year book, both named "Panther Tracks," this year.

Dulles Condition; No Change Noted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department says there is nothing new to report on the condition of John Foster Dulles.

Press Officer Lincoln White said Thursday the condition of the former secretary of state was about the same as earlier this week when Dulles was reported growing weaker.

Dulles, 71, has been hospitalized with cancer most of the time since early February. His condition was complicated by pneumonia two weeks ago.

At Least $2 Million Spent In Gubernatorial Primary

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky Democrats are winding up a primary campaign for governor so unprecedentedly expensive that some of them are bewildered.

The puzzling question: Why is an estimated two million dollars being spent in the contest of two men for the gubernatorial nomination?

The generally accepted theory is that Kentucky, a small state of three million citizens, may be a preliminary skirmishing area in the battle for the 1960 Democratic

Pupils Compete In Guess Test

Oregon Technical Institute students are competing in a contest to "count the stitches in the britches" offered by the Levi Strauss Company.

A walloping pair of trousers, 54 inches at the waist, are on display. They are 45 inches long. Winners will receive pairs of similar, but smaller britches.

Entry blanks and a box for their deposit are in the OTI student union. The contest closes June 4 and winners will be announced that day. The contest is prelude feature of the National Intercollegiate Championship Rodeo which opens July 3 at the Klamath County Fairgrounds.

IN EXERCISE

Capt. Frank E. York, 43, whose wife, Helen, lives in Lakeview, is participating with the Army's Fourth Infantry Division in "Exercise Dry Hills" at the Yakima Firing Center in Washington. The exercise will end May 23. It involves 18,000 soldiers from posts throughout the country.

state's backing as a favorite son candidate. If Combs becomes governor, it appears reasonable that Clements, executive director of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, could deliver the convention votes for Johnson.

The estimate of two million dollars in campaign spending is considered conservative and neither side has disputed the figure.

The talk about money focuses mainly on the source of it. Waterfield charges that Texas oil money is being poured unendingly into the campaign till of Combs.

Combs, in turn, says collections of 2 per cent of state-employees' salaries go into the Waterfield campaign.
