

MR. AND MRS. FRANK M. KENNEDY with sons, Gary, 11 months, and Freddie, 3 1/2.

A POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE, the Frank Kennedy's, who with their two sons, Fred and Gary, will leave this city soon to make their home in Mount Vernon, Washington. Two and a half years ago they came from Walla Walla to Klamath Falls where he has been manager of the Woolworth store. In his new home he will manage the Woolworth store which will open July 23. Mrs. Kennedy, a busy young woman, has found time to make her clothes, do excellent ceramic work along with her full time jobs of caring for her two sons and working at the First National Bank.

Kendall Photo by Kettler. All other photos by Ellis.

KLAMATH FALLS loss will be Yakima's gain when the Robert Egge family are settled in that Washington city in the near future. Since coming to this city five and a half years ago from Bellingham, Washington, they have made many friends. Robert Egge has been manager of the Sears store and will serve in the same capacity in his new home. Both he and Mrs. Egge are golfers and have served on the boards of Reames Club. The family are members of St. Paul's Episcopal Church where Mrs. Egge is a member of the choir and has recently been directing the Junior Choir. Young Robert, a sophomore at KUHS, was a member of the varsity football and track teams, and the junior varsity basketball team. Pamela, a seventh grader at Roosevelt, is a piano student and a member of the Centennial Sweethearts singing group. Tommy is looking forward to first grade next fall.

CALIFORNIA BOUND is the Bob Bonney family to their new home in El Cerrito. On June 1 Bob Bonney will assume his duties as superintendent of parks and recreation, a new position for that southern city. He has held the same position in Klamath Falls during the past nine years. The family will move when school is out. Mrs. Bonney has taught the third grade at Mills School for the past four years and hopes to teach in her new home. Both she and her husband originally came from Galesburg, Illinois, where they were graduated from Knox College in 1947. Like most young folks, Carter and Tracey are looking forward to making new friends in El Cerrito.

THE LEWIS KENDOLL FAMILY are comparative newcomers to Klamath Falls, having arrived June 15 last year. The family home is at 623 Roosevelt Street. Capt. Kendoll is a native Oregonian being born in Newport. His wife came from Arizona where her parents were affiliated with the Salvation Army. The Kendolls have been with the Salvation Army for 18 years. Their work and the activities of their four children make them a busy couple.

NEWCOMERS TO KLAMATH FALLS are the Rev. and Mrs. Albert Neubauer who have come from Blaine, Washington, to make their home at 4808 Laverne Avenue. He is the pastor for Hope Lutheran Church, South Sixth and Homedale streets, where a new church will be erected in the future. Before entering the ministry Rev. Neubauer was associated with a farm implement company in Peoria, Illinois, with three years as a junior laboratory engineer. In 1949 he came to Middletown, Connecticut, as superintendent of the Lutheran Home for the Aged. Later he was sent as business manager of the Lutheran Mission in Liberia, West Africa, where Mrs. Neubauer acted as hostess. When they returned to this country in 1953 he entered the Northwestern Lutheran Theological Seminary in Minnesota. During this time she served as area director for the Lutheran refugee program in the state of Minnesota. Rev. Neubauer was ordained in 1957 and went to his first call in Blaine, Washington.

CAPT. AND MRS. M. LEWIS KENDOLL and their children, from the left, are Joyce, 8, Jean and Joan, 11-year-old twins, and James, 5.

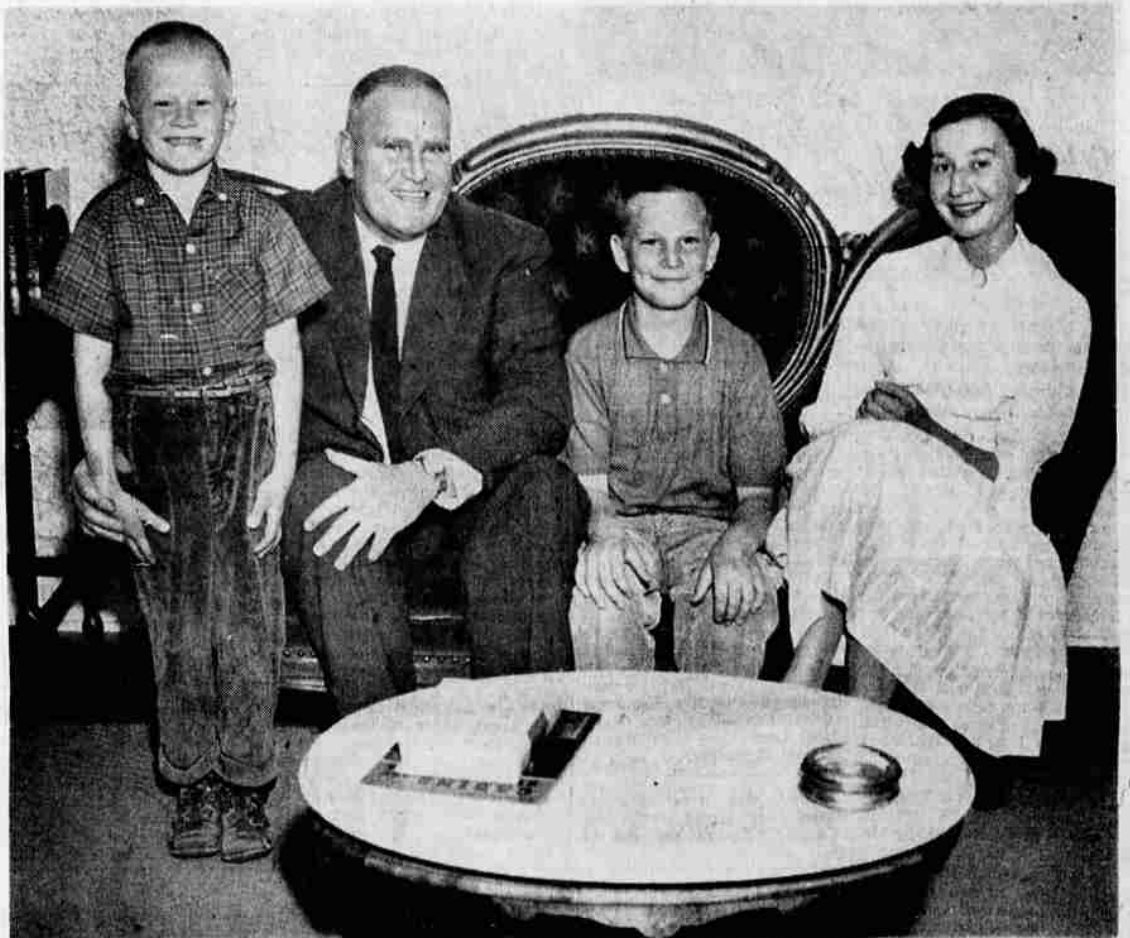

SOCIETY

By

HELEN BECHEN

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT EGGE with Robert Jr., left, Pamela and Tommy.

MR. AND MRS. BOB BONNEY with Carter, 7, at left, and Tracey, 10.

Herald
and
News

Klamath Falls,
Oregon

MAY 24, 1959

REV. AND MRS. ALBERT NEUBAUER