

MR. AND MRS. HARLAN JOSEPH PIERSON

College Chapel Is Scene Of Pierson-Owens Rites

Of interest to Klamath Falls residents is the wedding of Betty Jean Owens to Harlan Joseph Pierson which took place at 7 o'clock the evening of April 24 at Howard Chapel on the campus of the University of Oregon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Owens, former residents of Klamath Falls now living in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Erick Pierson of Corvallis are parents of the bridegroom.

White stock and blue asters decorated the altar before which the Rev. Robert Kingsbury read the double ring ceremony. Orrin Owens gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a floor length gown of tulle and lace. The bodice was made with long sleeves and Sabrina neckline trimmed in sequins. The lace overskirt featured a ruffled side effect. She wore a watch which had belonged to her great grandmother and carried a handkerchief borrowed from Janet Lee. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis and carnations centered with a white orchid.

Jayne Sagen of Eugene was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Janet Lee of Klamath Falls and Lois Pierson, sister of the bridegroom from Corvallis. They wore blue embroidered nylon sheath dresses with chiffon over-skirts, matching slippers, white gloves and lace caps. Each carried a cascade of white Esther Reed daisies.

Bernard (Bud) Miller was best man and ushers were Jay Robinson and Larry Younger, all of Corvallis. Orrin Owens Jr., brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

Pete Homer sang "Because" and "I Love You."

Mrs. Ralph Graneman was hostess at the reception held following the ceremony. Mrs. Hugo Hotknecht, aunt of the bride, cut the cake which was served by Jane Campbell. Mrs. Rudy Borg presided at the coffee service and Eunice Landis and Lynda Rayburn were at the punch table. Guests were registered by Mrs. Stan Detweiler, cousin of the bride. At the gift table were Barbara Walberg and Judy Dodge.

For traveling the new Mrs. Pierson chose a sheath dress with short jacket trimmed with fringe in red and gold. A feather hat and beige accessories completed her ensemble. After a honeymoon along the Oregon coast the newlyweds are at home in Corvallis.

Out-of-state guests included Mrs. Hugo Hotknecht and Mrs. Stan Detweiler of Twin Falls, Idaho.

Pre-nuptial events included a trousseau tea at the home of Mrs. Ralph Graneman, where the rehearsal dinner was also held. Bridal showers were given by Jayne Sagen and Mrs. Rudy Borg in Eugene and Mrs. Herbert Singleton in Corvallis.

SIGMA KAPPA ALUMNAE

Sigma Kappa Alumnae met for a dessert meeting Thursday night, May 14, at the home of Mrs. John Adams. Mrs. G. W. Nelson is chairman of the group and Mrs. James Armon is secretary-treasurer. Handbooks, made by Mrs. Kathleen Shelley, were given to the members.

PRETTY MISS Kem Ealine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ward. She has two doting grandmothers, Mrs. Jewel Wire and Mrs. Della Ward, both of Dorris, California.

State Officials Alturas Guests

ALTURAS — Mr. and Mrs. William Rush were hosts to Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson, Mrs. Anderson, State Senator Stanley Arnold of Susanville and Mrs. Arnold on Saturday afternoon at a large reception.

Floral arrangements throughout the Rush home were in blue and golden flowers, California's colors. The blue paper napkins on the tea table were imprinted with the name of the assistant chief-of-state in golden letters.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hardin of Reno, Nevada, son-in-law and daughter of Mrs. Rush, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Simpson, and Dr. and Mrs. Ed Conwell assisted the hosts in receiving.

The guests of honor had attended a dinner Friday night arranged by the civic leaders of Quincy and they were honored with a luncheon in Susanville on Saturday.

The Arnolds have in recent years frequently visited friends in Modoc County but this was the first time that the lieutenant governor and his wife have been in this county.

The Alturas Bowling Association was honored by the presence of Modoc County's distinguished visitors Saturday evening when the association gave its annual dinner in the new banquet room of the Brass Rail near Alturas. The lieutenant governor awarded the prizes for the bowling tournament which had terminated only early that morning.

The state officers and their wives left for Sacramento immediately after church services on Mothers Day in order to be present for the opening of the closing session of the State Legislature.

Etna Couple Tours Europe

ETNA—Dr. and Mrs. G. P. Ashcraft of Etna left May 21 on a sightseeing tour of Europe. The couple flew from Medford to Los Angeles continuing on the same day for Copenhagen, Denmark where they arrived May 23. The trip will take them to Amsterdam, Holland, then to Stuttgart, Germany, where they will receive delivery of a new car and will finish the tour by automobile through Austria, Italy, Switzerland and Spain. They will embark from France aboard the Liberté July 28 and arrive in New York August 3 or 4.

The doctor plans to climb the Matterhorn and attend a bullfight in Spain.

In charge of Dr. Ashcraft's office during his three month's absence, will be Dr. J. H. Remer of Santa Barbara.

MOTHERS DAY DINNER

SILVER LAKE — Francie Jean Bennett shared honors with her mother, grandmother and great-grandmother at a Mothers Day dinner party here Sunday. Francie was 1-year-old. Francie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bennett of Philomath, who with their family spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Graham. Making the fourth generation was Mrs. Geneva G. Graham of Mountain View, California, who arrived Saturday for a two weeks' visit. Pam and Mark Bennett stayed here for a visit with their grandparents.

Jepson-Horne Wedding Solemnized In Portland

Paula Leanne Horne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Horne of this city, was escorted by her father to the altar of the Eastminster Presbyterian Church in Portland April 24 where she exchanged wedding vows with James Lyle Jepson, son of Mrs. Laura Jepson of Portland.

The bride wore a lovely gown made by the bridegroom's mother. It was fashioned of embroidered net over taffeta in princess style, ballerina length, with long sleeves and Sabrina neckline. A pearl crown held in place a fingertip veil loaned by Mrs. Jim Winde of Klamath Falls, close friend of the bride. She carried a white orchid surrounded by white iris and carnations and a handkerchief which had belonged to her great-grandmother. Her pearl earrings were a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Wayne Brown, the bridegroom's sister from Mandan, North Dakota, was matron of honor. Jane Holmes, college roommate of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore royal blue embroidered taffeta-sheath dresses and white ribbon bandeaus with attached circular veils. They carried pink carnations with blue iris.

Louis Jepson of Portland was best man for his brother and Richard Pope was usher.

White candelabra, flanking basket arrangements of purple and white lilacs formed the background for the nuptial service read at 4 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Byron D. Hughes. W. Dean Nelson was organist and Mrs. Dorene Horn, soloist.

WEDDING TOLD

DUNSMUIR—Mr. and Mrs. Gary L. Fitzhugh are spending their honeymoon in Dunsmuir following their wedding May 1 in Washington, D.C. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fitzhugh of Dunsmuir, has recently completed a training session with the Navy at Bainbridge, Maryland, and has been assigned to Adak, Alaska. The bride is the former Mary Lynette of Washington, D.C.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Horne chose a beige silk shantung sheath dress and pink and white accessories. A white cymbidium orchid was pinned at her shoulder. Mrs. Jepson wore a beige sheath with matching jacket, beige and cocoa brown accessories and a yellow cymbidium orchid.

The newlyweds greeted guests at a reception in the church parlors immediately following the service. Mrs. Cecil Jepson of Portland, a aunt of the bridegroom, served the wedding cake. Another aunt, Mrs. Harry D. Horne of Seattle, presided at the coffee table.

For a honeymoon trip to the coast the new Mrs. Jepson donned a blue wool sheath, matching jacket and hat. White accessories and the white orchid from the bridal bouquet completed her ensemble.
