PTA NEWS

ALTAMONT

The Altamont PTA held its last regular meeting on May 11. Beulah Elliott opened the meeting with an inspirational talk and a poem called "The Teacher's Prayer."

Annual reports of committees and officers were given during the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Willard Cedarleaf. Mrs. Jean Smith gave the historian's report for the year and Mrs. Margaret Saunders and Mrs. Shirley Mayhew gave the group reports on the state convention of parents and teachers in Corvallis. The room mothers who served through the year were honored and presented with certificates by the teachers whose room they served.

Harvey Denham and Stan Sevruk were presented with gifts from the group for their help and cooperation during the year.

Installation of the incoming officers was conducted by Mrs. Irene Dunn, the new county council president for 1959-60.

New officers are Shirley Mayhew, president; Margaret Saunders, first vice president; Nell Olson, second vice president; Agnes Ruzh, secretary; Dorothy Hope, treasurer and Agnes Huck, historian.

SHASTA

Mrs. Ron Phair has been installed as president of Shasta PTA to serve with Mrs. William Ward, first vice president; Mrs. Fred Fletcher, second vice president; Mrs. Walter Richardtz, secretary and Mrs. Norman McGourty, treasurer. Mrs. John Putman installed the new officers for 1959-1960 at the final meeting of the PTA for this year, held on May 29.

Mrs. Al Schmeck's Cub Scouts led the flag salute and special awards were given to Beverly Lyons and to Cheryl McLane for outstanding work in forest conservation.

The PTA members presented Principal John Heyden a check for $100 to be used as a gift for the school. The school history for the year was read by the school historian, Mrs. Joe Toney. The room count was won by John Heilbronner's sixth grade.

Folk dancing and choral entertainment was provided by sixth grade classes.

Refreshments were served by mothers of fifth grade students in the cafeteria.

FAREWELL PARTY

NEW PINE CREEK — A farewell party in honor of Elder Jeff Swinney and his family was held in the church basement here recently. An electric fry pan was given to the honored guests. Refreshments were served to about 45 people. Marilyn Cook accompanied them to Tulare to visit for a week with her friend, Rebecca Swinney, and will return to New Pine Creek when the Swinneys come for their furniture. Mr. Swinney will be elder of the Missionary Baptist Church in that city.

There are approximately 200 American oil companies exploring in 30 foreign countries for possible new oil fields.

Thanks

The management at Payless Drug wishes to thank everyone who helped during our recent fire. Special thanks must go to the Klamath Falls Fire Dept., The Suburban Fire Dept., The Stewart Lenox Fire Dept., The OTI Fire Dept., and the Kingsley Field Fire Fighting Unit for doing such a fine job in containing what well could have been a more tragic incident. Also, to those individuals who pitched in and helped, we want to extend our sincere gratitude.
