

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD WAYNE LINGAFELTER, center, were married May 3 at the Fort Presidio Chapel in San Francisco. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Ackerman of this city. Shown with the couple is Carole Morrison, Klamath Falls, maid of honor, and best man Hank Miranda.

Corinne Ackerman Bride At Presidio Chapel Rites

At a double ring ceremony in the Fort Presidio Chapel, San Francisco, California, on May 3 Corinne Leslie Ackerman exchanged wedding vows with Richard Wayne Lingafelter, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lingafelter of McPherson, Kansas. Chaplain G. Gaskins of the Army read the service at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Ackerman of Klamath Falls. Escorted to the altar by her father, she wore a street length dress of white acetate made with round neck and cap sleeves. A detail of bows and gathers formed a bustle at the skirt back. A short veil was held in place by a half cap of net leaved and seed pearls. A white orchid topped the white prayer book which she had borrowed from Donna McDonald, a friend from Klamath Falls. For tradition the bride wore a lucky 1940 penny in her slipper and a blue garter given to her by Judy Newcomb, a classmate at dental school.

Maid of honor, Carole Morrison of Klamath Falls, wore a lavender

Couple Marks Wedding Date

On May 22 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eberlein observed their silver wedding anniversary at a dinner party at the Harold Eberlein home on Ward Street.

The couple were married May 26, 1934, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zeltman, with the Rev. George Hoffman of Zion Lutheran Church officiating. Since their marriage they have lived in Klamath Falls where he is co-owner with William Welch of Specialized Service. Both Mr. and Mrs. Eberlein are active in affairs of Zion Lutheran Church and in civic groups. He is a past president of Rotary Club.

They have two sons, Neal, who will be graduated from KUHS in June, was present for his parents' celebration. Alan was unable to leave his junior studies at Oregon State College to be home.

Arrangements for the no-host dinner honoring the couple were made by Mrs. Walter Zeltman and Mrs. Harold Eberlein. Mrs. Jack Vaughn decorated for the affair. She used spring flowers about the rooms and on the table an artistic arrangement of white stock and white majestic daisies.

Silver candles surrounded by white stock flanked a three tiered cake decorated with pink roses and WEDDING PLANS are being made by Gretchen Goertz and Charles Richard Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Davis of Yreka. The engagement was announced recently by Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Goertz of Montague. The bride-elect, a graduate of Yreka High School, has been attending Chico State College where her future husband is also a student.

The wedding will take place Saturday, June 6, at the First Baptist Church of Yreka. A reception will follow the ceremony in the church social parlors.

church parlors immediately following the ceremony. The room was attractively decorated with arrangements of yellow and white majestic daisies and yellow candles placed in the window recesses.

The three tiered wedding cake centering the bride's table was trimmed with yellow and white icing flowers and topped with a miniature bride and groom standing in a heart shaped frame of yellow and white flowers. Yellow Marguerite daisies encircled the base of the cake. Mrs. Albert Powell, Portland, and Mrs. Vern Quarve of Pinole, California, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served the cake after the traditional first cut was made by the newlyweds. Mrs. Adolph Zamsky and Mrs. Theodore Durnient presided at the coffee service. Mrs. Varde Van Voris of Eugene and Mrs. James Pinniger assisted at the punch table. Mrs. Robert Riggs held the guest book for guests to sign. Assisting about the room were Mrs. R. E. Hooker, Mrs. Louis Holzgang, Mrs. Richard Swanson of Eugene, Mrs. Norman Lasater, sister-in-law of the bridegroom from Lakeview, Mrs. Ron Hall of San Leandro, California, and Mrs. Ted Gordon of Merrill.

For traveling the new Mrs. Lasater wore a beige sheath dress with beige and orange accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Lakeview where the bridegroom is owner of Lasater Jewelry Store. Among the wedding guests were relatives and friends of the couple from Portland, Eugene, Albany, Ashland, Lakeview, Oregon; Alturas, Antioch, San Leandro, Pinole and Santa Barbara, California.

Pre-nuptial events were numerous for the bride-elect. A miscellaneous shower, given by Mrs. Herman Kehrl in Eugene, was attended by 30 staff members of the Lane County welfare office where Barbara was employed as a case worker prior to her marriage. A linen shower in Portland was hosted by Mrs. John McMillan, Adell McMillan and Joanne Forbes.

Mrs. Theodore Durnient entertained at a coffee hour and Mrs. Warren Bennet invited the wedding attendants and school friends to a wedding breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zamsky were hosts at a dinner before the wedding for out-of-town guests and members of both families. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Swanson entertained the bridal party for dinner at the Pelican Cafe following the wedding rehearsal.

White lilies by Mrs. W. H. Roemhildt. Also assisting with the party was Mrs. Bob Rutter.

Mrs. Eberlein wore her wedding gown for the evening affair.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zeltman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vaughn, Susan and Patricia Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eberlein, Janet, Marilee and Roger Eberlein, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rutter, Janet Rutter, Neal Eberlein, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Roemhildt, and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Eberlein of Corvallis.

During the evening birthday wishes were given to Marilee and Janet Eberlein whose birthdays are May 25 and 26 respectively.

Georgia Thomson Bride In Seattle Church Rites

A floor length princess style gown of white sheer nylon was chosen by Georgia Ellen Thomson of Seattle for bridal attire when she was married May 3 to Paul Francis Dunning, Seattle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne T. Dunning of Ellensburg, Washington. The ceremony took place in Holy Family Church and was performed at 11:30 in the morning by Father Patrick O'Neil in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thomson of Bly. She was escorted to the altar by her father.

Church decorations were baskets of white stock and carnations.

The bridal gown was fashioned with square neckline, cap sleeves and a very full skirt over several layers of net and hooped underskirt. Small satin bows were placed at intervals down the back from neckline to hem. The bride wore a pillbox hat of net edged with seed pearls which held in place a three tiered net veil, long white gloves and carried a white orchid on a white prayer book. For sentiment she wore a blue garter and a lucky penny in her slipper.

The bride was attended by a childhood friend, Barbara Ann Campbell of Bly, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lois Marlene Davies and Betty L. Murphy, both of Seattle. Their identical sheath dresses were of forget-me-not blue cotton brocades with flower clusters and full overskirts of sheer blue nylon. They wore matching flower hats and carried crescent bouquets of yellow and white carnations and pink roses.

Michael L. Dunning was best man for his brother. Ushers were Donald E. Haberman and Thomas A. Cleveland.

Mrs. Thomson chose a sheath dress of peacock blue with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Dunning wore a three piece suit of blue with matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages. A reception followed the ceremony at Alki Homestead. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. J. A. Eyer and coffee by Mrs. R. A. Morrill, aunts of the bride. At the tea service was Mrs. Kenneth M. Eyer, cousin of the bride. Punch was poured by Reta Louise Cella. Attending the guest book was the bride's cousin, Janet Eyer.

The bride's going-away costume was a two piece white rayon linen suit with blue wool over coat, blue hat and gloves and black patent accessories.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast the young couple will be at home at 2022 1/2 Eastlake Avenue, Seattle. Mrs. Dunning, a '35 graduate of Bly High School, attended Southern Oregon College and Seattle Business College. Her husband was graduated from Ellensburg High School, attended Central Washington College and Seattle University. He is now employed with the Air Force in the Pacific theater and is now employed in the engineering department of Boeing Aircraft Company.

Karen Porter was also named with Max D. Heiken and Roberts A. Matthews of Klamath Falls as having qualified for membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honor society at OSC. Membership in this society is top campus recognition of scholastic achievement.

Six students from Klamath Falls have been accepted for admission to the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland and will begin their studies next September. James B. Borden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Borden; Larry T. Brice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brice; David S. Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd; William S. Bechen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Haary Bechen, received their premedical education at the University of Oregon. David D. Reeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reeder, studied at Denison University in Granville, Ohio. Robert Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark attended Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah.

Dick Ankeny, son of Mrs. Dorothy Ankeny, will receive a BA degree in business administration from Oregon State College June 8.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL F. DUNNING leave the church for reception following their wedding in the Holy Family Church of Seattle. The bride is the former Georgia Thomson of Bly.

College and Seattle Business College. Her husband was graduated from Ellensburg High School, attended Central Washington College and Seattle University. He is now employed with the Air Force in the Pacific theater and is now employed in the engineering department of Boeing Aircraft Company.
