Bethel No. 51

Henley Bethel No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, met in regular session May 18 at the Henley Grange Hall with Honored Queen Becky Short presiding.

Introduced and welcomed were Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian; Evelyn Biehn, past worthy matron of Manzanita Chapter OES; Cole Brown, Inez DeLamater, Thelma Short, past guardians of Bethel 51; Basil Brown, Harold Dehlinger, and Homer DeLamater, past associate guardians of Bethel 51.

Chandelle Horsely was presented a special pin for winning the new-member contest conducted during the past term. Honored Queen Becky announced merit awards and presented the members with their bronze, silver or gold pins.

Senior Princess Virginia Hunt announced that installation of officers will be held at the Henley High School cafeteria June 6 at 7:30 p.m.

The guardian council for the coming year was installed by Past Grand Guardian Phyllis Poole. New council members are Orabelle Rhodes, guardian; Pat Kaylor, secretary; Stella Dehlinger, treasurer; Bonnie Finchum, music; Thelma Short, paraphernalia; Evelyn Biehn, finance; Beulah Balsiger, sociability; Gretchen Thompson, hospitality; and Doris Hunt, publicity.

The new guardian and associate guardian received the traveling pins denoting their new offices. Gretchen Thompson was presented a past guardian's pin, and Bob Dehlinger was given a Bible, in appreciation of his service. Each expressed gratitude for the fine cooperation of the council and Bethel members.

Librarian Sara Williams read a humorous article.

Special guests, members of Lost River Masonic Club, were introduced by each girl who had invited her "Secret Father" to the meeting.

The meeting was closed with the Golden Bible ceremony in honor of outgoing Honored Queen Becky Short, each member signing the Bible in an impressive candlelight procession.

Refreshments were served to visitors and members at tables attractively decorated with spring flowers. The Bethel room displayed flowering branches arranged in new vases given the Bethel by Cole Brown.
