

Shasta Valley Will Discuss Rodeo Plans

MONTAGUE — Final plans for the coming eighth annual rodeo and barbecue will be discussed at the meeting of the Shasta Valley Community Club Tuesday evening, June 2, at 8 o'clock, in the club room of the Montague auditorium.

The junior rodeo, which will be held on June 21, is annually sponsored by the club. The community club invites anyone, with any type of parade entry, to start planning now. Entries welcomed will be riding clubs or groups, 4-H clubs, floats, family riding groups, individual riding or driving carts, buggies, stage coaches, farm equipment or wagons, with suggestions of decorations to be in keeping with the rodeo theme.

The junior queen contest started on May 2. There are five entrants competing for the queen's crown, which include Diane Feiman of Montague; Bertine Zimmmer of Yreka; Annette Hayden of Fort Jones; Lilla Belle Whitten of Hornbrook and Elaine Hammond of Edgewood.

Legion District Elects Officers

YREKA — Recently elected to the post of first vice commander of American Legion District 2 was Carl H. Johnson of Yreka. District 2 includes Siskiyou, Shasta and Trinity counties.

Mrs. Mary Jane Carlson, also of Yreka, was chosen as third vice commander for women veterans, at the meeting held at the Veteran's Hall in Yreka. Elected as sergeant at arms was A. W. Wisdom of Weed.

Elected as commander of the American Legion District 2 was Clarence Barger of Central Valley; William H. Finn of Redding, second vice commander, Horace Taylor, chaplain; Joe Lawson, Burney, judge advocate.

The next meeting for District 2 members will be held in September at Redding.
