

Yanks On Way, Leap To 6th; Buc Power Yields Two Wins

United Press International
Look out above—here come the Yankees!
They're not soaring high, wide and handsome like Able and Baker yet but they're out of the American League dugout and set to take off from sixth place. The first division is only a game and a half away and even the first-place Cleveland Indians are only six games distant.
Casey Stengel's revived world champions climbed two notches to sixth place Sunday when they beat the Washington Senators, 3-0, and ran their winning streak to four games. The streak is the longest of the season for the Yankees who had been in last place since May 20.

World Series hero Bob Turley and first baseman Bill Skowron were the stars of the victory. Turley pitched a two-hitter and Skowron blasted a three-run homer in the ninth to beat Camilo Pascual.
The Detroit Tigers reached fifth place when they downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-1; the San Francisco Giants beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-3; the Los Angeles Dodgers scored a 5-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, and the Pittsburgh Pirates outslugged the Cincinnati Reds, 6-2 and 14-11 in the National League.

Yankees 3, Nats 0
Pascual carried a two-hit shut-out into the ninth but Mickey Vernon doubled with two out. Yogi Berra was intentionally walked and Skowron connected for his eighth homer of the season.

Golfer Whitt Has Big Week

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Golf pro Don Whitt is in a hot streak and he's making it pay off handsomely. In six days, Whitt added $6,300 to his bankroll.
The 28-year-old Whitt from Borrego Springs, Calif. captured the Kentucky Derby Open Sunday. Only last Monday, he came through in the Memphis Open after a playoff.
Whitt's 72-hole total was 274, a stroke better than runner-up Jim Fereze playing out of Crystal River, Fla.
Dick Knight of San Diego, Calif., Ernie Vossler of Midland, Texas, Dave Ragan of Chattanooga and Doug Ford of Paradise, Fla., finished at 276 to tie for third.
Bob Goaly, the muscular Crystal River pro who led the field by five going into the last round, shot a 77 and wound up at 278. Whitt claimed that a new mallet-head putter he bought at Hot Springs, Ark., was instrumental in his victory. "He said the win at Memphis gave him immeasurable confidence."
Whitt combined rounds of 70-64, 63-67 to earn first money of $2,800.

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP)—A new basketball coach for the University of Idaho won't be named until at least June 10, Athletic Director Rafe Gibb said Saturday.
"We haven't gone below the top 10 applicants as yet in narrowing down our selection," Gibb said.
A successor to Harlon Hodges, who resigned last month to take a teaching position in the Midwest, was expected to be named by June 1.

Braves Get Fans, Victories

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
What Tri-City needs is an extra Memorial Day weekend or two. The holiday period brought the Braves their best crowds of the season and three wins in four games. The "Save the Braves" campaign lagged somewhat behind the 2,000 fans a game figure, but 5,856 turned out for the three playing nights.
On Sunday, the Braves really gave backers something to whom about, sweeping a doubleheader from Yakima by identical scores of 5-4.
First place Salem also won a Sunday double, beating Eugene 3-0 and 3-2. The other twin bill ended in a split, with Lewiston winning the first 3-2 and Wenatchee taking the second 5-4.

Ted Edmunds got his eighth win of the season for Tri-City and drove in the winning runs with a double in a one-man show at Kennewick. The Braves took the opener on a four-run spurge in the fifth.
Joe Wilson was the big bat for the front-running Senators. He hit a two-run homer in each game Sunday. His single also helped Salem get off to a three-run lead in the opening inning of the first game.
Lewiston almost made it a sweep over Wenatchee, putting two runners on with one away in the last inning. But Bill Bowler retired the next batters on a fly and ground-er. The Chiefs were sparked by Dick Wilson's 380-foot belt over the left field fence with two on.

The Braves scored late in the opener to give Thornton Kipper his sixth win of the season.

OSC Beavers Get Jeff Star

PORTLAND (AP)—Three-sport ace Terry Baker of Portland's Jefferson High will enter Oregon State College next fall.
Tom DeSylvia, Jeff football coach, said he was told of the decision Saturday by Baker, quarterback on the 1958 Jefferson team, the Oregon A-1 champion.
Baker won all-state honors in football and basketball and was named to the all-city team in baseball.

Hicks, Jordan Schedule Bout

SEATTLE (AP)—Welterweight boxing champion Don Jordan of Los Angeles and Bobby Hicks, Seattle's undefeated high school fighter, have been signed for a five-round exhibition match here late this month at the Northwest Boxing Club said Saturday.
The date of the bout, probably to be held at the Civic Auditorium, will be announced later this week, promoter Mickey Connelly said.
Connelly said he was trying to line up Lloyd Dupas, undefeated Western Canadian featherweight champion from Vancouver, B. C., and an unnamed opponent for the other half of the main event.

the Braves got four-hit pitching from Warren Spain who won his seventh game of the season and the 253rd of his career in the second game.

Frankie Carbo Out On Bail

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—Frankie Carbo, alleged underworld boxing kingpin with a reputation for disappearing after indictments, was free in $25,000 bail today somewhere in New Jersey.
Carbo, at 54 a mysterious man with a long police record, had been sought since last July.
Police caught up with him Memorial Day. At first bail was denied, and a handcuffed Carbo, obviously distressed, shuffled off to jail. But finally Judge Benjamin Dieck of Camden County Court fixed the bail and ordered Carbo to remain in the state. His bail will stand until June 30 when he'll face extradition proceedings now being arranged by New York State.
Carbo was indicted by a New York grand jury on charges of conspiracy and illegal managing of fights and of prizefighters. He also is wanted by the federal government on income tax evasion charges.

Champion Continues To Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Rodger Ward, loaded down with loot from the richest auto race ever run, the world's most dangerous sport.
Ward and his car owner, Leuder Cards Inc., of Milwaukee, won $106,250 in the five 500-mile race Saturday. The World War II fighter pilot's take under the customary contract would be 40 per cent, $42,740.

That means Ward will be raking in big money for the U.S. Treasury the rest of this season—by his pretty brunette wife, Jo, says he probably would race for nothing.
"I'm going to make the rest of the USAC championship races and possibly some sports car events if I can get a good car," Ward said. His next race will be the 100-mile at Milwaukee next Sunday. The last two Indianapolis winners, Sam Hanks and Jimmy Bryan, passed up the rest of the circuit after their big winnings at the Speedway.

It took Ward nine attempts before he won the big pot. Only a dedicated race driver would have continued after his experience in the 1935 Memorial Day classic. His front axle broke, triggering the four-car crash that killed two-time winner Bill Vukovich. He entered the 500 again the next year and finished eighth—his best until last Saturday.
Ward escaped injury in another sensational crash April 4 at Daytona Beach, in a 50-mile event that followed the world's record 100-mile in which he finished second to Jim Rathmann of Miami.
Ward set a new Speedway record of 135.875 miles an hour, beating Jim Rathmann by 23.27 seconds or about a mile. Rathmann's 135.615 also topped Hanks' 1937 record of 135.601.

It turned out to be a four-car race and Ward got a big assist from his smooth pit crew and air jacks which were installed in his A. J. Watson-built car. He made three stops for fuel and tires in a grand total of one minute and 13 seconds.
Johnny Thomson of Boyertown, Pa., the fastest qualified, had to make four pit stops, broke a torsion bar spring and finished third. Ward led Rathmann, Thomson and Pat Flaherty of Chicago, the 1936 winner, most of the fighting for the lead in the first half of the race while he conserved his tires to save a pit stop.
Flaherty crashed into the mainstretch wall on his 163rd lap but escaped injury. Ward led the last 115 laps.
There were six mishaps, injuring two drivers and a crewman, but no fatalities.
Tony Bettenhausen finished fourth for the second straight year. Paul Goldsmith of St. Clair Shores, Mich., eliminated in the 15-car smashup last year in his first start, took fifth.

Californians Top Hardtop Race Slate

Ex-Brookings pilot Johnny Jones nearly lived up to his pre-race boast that he would be the top dog in the Klamath Falls hardtop opening race program but a smooth-driving ace from California, Don Porter, caught Jones with two laps to go to win the main event and the lion's share of the loot at Eberlein Street Speedway Sunday afternoon.
Porter, who timed in the second fastest of the day behind brother Nick Porter also grabbed a second in the A trophy dash and won the fourth and fastest heat.
Approximately 25 cars including a number of Northern California and Rogue Valley entrants competed in the eight event program that opened the Klamath Racing Association's 1939 slate.

KF Nine Drops 2 To Studs

Coach Hi Hatfield observed 15 permanent position seekers in action as his American Legion baseball team dropped a pair of non-counting practice games to Central Point Chummy Studs in Gem Stadium Sunday afternoon.
Hatfield's Klamath Falls nine had split with the Central Pointers in a twinbill played in Medford Saturday so the Sunday losses leave the local Legionnaires with a 1-3 record for pre-season action. The KF club has three more non-counters to go before the league season gets under way. The Legion squad will meet the Klamath Cubs Wednesday night in Gem then travel to Redmond for a two-day stand next weekend.

In the first game Sunday at Gem the Legion saw a second inning 5-0 bulge dwindle slowly to a 7-6 defeat, then jumped off to an easy 3-0 first inning margin before losing out 3-4 to Central Point in the second game.
Pitcher Blake Griggs was charged with the first loss after coming into the game midway in a routine pitcher switch. Bob Wilkinson started the chucker. Dennis Samples who came in for the Studs on the short end of a 6-3 count, in the fourth.

Welding the big wood for the lumbermen was second sacker Brad Gettling who pounded 104 four singles in four trips. Shortstop Harley Dickerson collected two for four and accounted for three CP RBIs, and leftfielder Dave Jackson drove in the winning markers with a seventh-inning two bagger, his only hit of the game.
Leading the KF batsmen in the first game was leftfielder Don Willey who collected two singles and a sacrifice in four trips pushing two runs across the plate. Shortstop Steve Bimesy collected the longest hit of the game, a triple in the big second inning which started off with rightfielder Bob Yunc's double.

In the second game, a five-inning affair, centerfielder Rich Dew accounted for three KF runs as he notched two singles in three trips, the first one boosting second baseman Ken Womer and leftfielder Blake Griggs home in the first inning.
Cheney shortstop Dickerson was a big factor for the Studs with a pair of singles in two trips.
The second game winner was Central Point. Bill Anhorn while the loss was charged to KF starter Gary Beber who retired in the fifth in favor of Wilkinson who entered the game with the bases loaded and none away.

Italian, Brown To Meet

NEW YORK (UPI)—Joe Brown attempts his seventh defense of the world lightweight crown this week, and Nigerian Dick Tiger—middleweight champion of the British Empire—makes his United States debut.
Brown of New Orleans, 33, is favored at 13-5 to turn back the challenge of Italian Paolo Rosi at Uline Arena, Washington, D. C., Wednesday night. Their scheduled 15-rounder will be televised nationally by ABC.

At Madison Square Garden Friday night, 29-year-old Tiger will launch his American campaign for a shot at the world 160-pound title by meeting veteran Rory Calhoun of St. Albans, N. Y. Their 10-rounder will be televised and broadcast by NBC. Calhoun is favored at 7-5.

For the Brown-Rosi title fight at Washington, promoter Goldie Ahearn expects a sellout of 8,500 and $60,000. Rosi of Italy and New York, 31, is the harder puncher. He is unbeaten in his last nine starts although held to one draw.
Other top fights this week include:
MONDAY — New York (St. Nick's)—Rudy Sawyer vs. Benny (Kid) Paré, Oakland, Calif.—Paul Andrews vs. Duke Sabedong.
TUESDAY — Long Beach, Calif.—Jimmy Martinez vs. Karl Heinz Gruder, Sacramento, Calif.—Laurie Salas vs. Joey Lopez, San Jose, Calif.—Jimmy Feister vs. Joey Padilla, Stockton, Calif.—Herman Marquez vs. Danny Kidd, Portland, Ore.—Phil Moyer vs. Chico Cirino, Fresno, Calif.—Pat McMurtry vs. George Kennedy, Beaumont, Tex.—Paul Jorgenson vs. Tommy Tibbs, Charlotte, N.C.—Orlando Zubeta vs. Ray Lancaster, Spokane, Wash.—Terry Lewis vs. Emil Brtko, London.

Yreka Nine Downs Kubs In 6-3 Game

YREKA—A five-run outburst in the second inning was all that Yreka needed to hand the Klamath Cubs a 6-3 defeat in the opening contest of the Northern California League for both clubs here Sunday afternoon.
The balance of league action, games between Mount Shasta and Weed and Scott Valley and Dunsmuir, was not reported, thereby making league standings after the opening day's play unavailable.

The five runs scored in the second inning plus a single tally in the seventh, coupled with the 10-strike out pitching of little Fred Rick was all the Indians needed to post their opening day victory.
The visitors crossed across a lone run in the initial stanza and a brace in the sixth for their only markers of the afternoon.
The first Kub run crossed the plate when Ron Owings was hit by a pitched ball, went to second on Rube Johnson's single and scored on a double to right center by playing-manager Irv Whitt.
