High School Girls Honored By BPW

ETNA — The senior girls and girls from the junior class of the Etna and Fort Jones high schools and their mothers were guests of the Etna Business and Professional Women's Club on Mothers Day at a Career Advancement Tea in the multipurpose room of the Etna High School.

The tables were attractively set with white table cloths and vases of flowers. Baskets and vases of flowers were used in decorating the stage and the room. The dogwood bloom, flower for the month of May, was dominant throughout the bouquets and program announcements were replicas of the dogwood blossom.

Nearly 70 guests enjoyed the afternoon educational program planned by Mrs. Reita Campbell. Participating in the program were Mrs. Ethelyn York, who sang and gave a talk on music; Calla Lukes, local artist, spoke on "A Career in Art;" two modern ballet numbers were presented by Mary Lee Bullinger, Sharon Hjertager, Candace Parker, Sharon Deppen and Mary Louise Hayden; "Practical Applications of Artistic Training" were shown by Mrs. Janet Keimeth; a girls group, O'Lene Botts, Lynette Hayden and Kathy Webster tap danced; Mrs. Alice Berry presented a monologue and spoke on "Careers Based on Dramatic Talent."

Presentation of a scholarship to beauty school was given El Karen Kays by Dorothy Hayden, president of the club. El Karen, a member of the graduating class of the Etna Union High School plans to attend beauty school this fall.

During the program incidental music was furnished by Virginia Bullinger and Sharon Young. Bertha Stone, chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Olive Kreuger and Dorothy Hayden served coffee and cake. Claire Potter presided at the punch bowl.

Hostesses were Reita Campbell, Dorothy Hayden, Velda Ball and Harriet Clough.

QUILTING BEE

TULELAKE — Agricola Uxorum met at the home of Thelma Anderson Thursday for an all day quilting bee. The quilt, made by "Grandma" Mattson and "Grandma" Clark, was a birthday gift to Mrs. Anderson. Members also presented Mrs. Anderson with a silver dollar plant, with dollar bills attached, as a "housewarming" gift for the new addition to their home. Mrs. Anderson served a delicious luncheon to the group. Frances Johnson, co-hostess, provided the dessert. Members present were Winnie Heiney, Frances Johnson, Frankie Workman, Mildred Miller, Mildred Pierce and Irma Fairclough.

Bly Girls Honor Mothers

The Bly Girls Athletic Association held a mothers tea Friday afternoon May 8 at the Bly gymnasium. There are 36 girls in this association, 17 in high school, eight in the ninth grade and 11 in the eighth grade.

The mothers were seated at card tables that were covered with lovely cloths and the unusual individual centerpieces were flowers and butterflies made from different candies. The main table held a lovely floral centerpiece of snapdragons and carnations. The theme of the tea was spelled out in gold letters on a red ribbon, "Sugar and Spice and Everything Nice." The corsages the girls presented to their mothers and guests also carried out the theme by having two lumps of sugar dangling from the bow of the corsage.

The girls prepared and served the attractive refreshments. Leta Chronister and Joanne Brady poured.

Kathy Melsness announced for the program which included a piano solo by Elaine Myers and a fashion show by the homemaking class. Those who modeled the clothes they had made were Caroline Obenchain, Connie Hall, Linda Walker, Gloria Foster, Molly Chandler, Joanne Brady, Diane Melsness, Donna Davies, Linda Brown, Marilyn Barclay, Elaine Myers and Pheba Pruitt.

Connie Hall rendered "Japanese Sandman" on her accordion and Caroline Obenchain's selection on the piano was "April in Paris."

Mrs. Ruth Obenchain, teacher and adviser to the girls, was presented a floral bouquet. Making the presentation on behalf of all the classes were Lillian Pool, Leta Chronister and Kathy Melsness.

For Information

NOTICE!

This fall a kindergarten class will be started for all pre-school children. A pickup and delivery service will be available.

FIONA FUERSTNER, a featured soloist for the San Francisco Ballet Company, will arrive in Klamath Falls by plane Thursday morning. That evening she will attend the revue to be presented by the Normadean Dance Studio at Mills School. Following the program she will present a scholarship from the San Francisco Ballet School to the outstanding dancer of the local studio.

The talented ballerina appeared at the Pelican Theater three years ago while on tour with the San Francisco Ballet Company. Since that time she has made appearances in Europe, the Orient and Far East, from where she has just returned.

During her Klamath Falls stay she will be the houseguest of Mrs. R. P. Ellington Jr. Included in plans made for her pleasure will be a trip to Crater Lake as the guest of Mrs. W. Don Miller.

DESSERT

Golden apricot sauce spooned over creamy rice pudding makes a luscious spring dessert. Cook dried apricots until soft; add sugar to taste along with a drop of almond extract and a little spice, if you like. For a smooth mixture, puree the apricots after cooking or force through a sieve.
