Chiloquin Seniors Feted By Juniors

CHILQUIN — "Senior Blaze" was the theme of the annual Junior-Senior Prom which was held Saturday evening, May 9, at the Reames Country Club. Nadine Christiansen was crowned queen of the event by John Ochoa, junior class president.

The walls and ceiling were covered with aluminum on which red cellophane flames were superimposed. The same design was carried out in miniature on the dance programs.

Chaperons were parents of some of the junior students and faculty members. Earlier in the evening at the Masonic Hall in Chiloquin the annual Junior-Senior Banquet was served at 6 o'clock by eighth, ninth and 10th grade girls and prepared by junior class mothers.

The tables were lavishly decorated in the school colors, royal blue and white, with accents of silver and pale blue. Place mats of blue were placed on white cloths. Silver stars accented both the mats and the numerous blue candelabra placed on the tables. An arrangement of blue carnations centered the head table. Place cards carried out the stars on a blue background coloring. Programs showed a couple on a large star and were tied with pale blue ribbon.

The program was as follows: Grace, the Rev. Patrick Lunham; welcome, John Ochoa; response by Leslie Leake, senior class president; tap dance, Mary Kensler; address, Carol Howe, county school superintendent; solo, Mrs. John Mannering, accompanied by Agatha DiUlio; class will, Claudia Heglund; class prophecy, Jim Herron.

Seniors honored were Lowell Mannering, Lucille Barrera, Delia Erickson, Mary Campagna, Meta Collins, Sharon Davis, Gene Smith, Orin Kirk, Nadine Christiansen, Claudia Heglund, Nadine Oldaker, Louise Niehaus, Sharon Wilder, Leslie Leake and Jim Herron. George Hobbs is adviser.

SHA Mothers Plan For Events

An executive meeting of the Sacred Heart Academy Mothers' Club was called by the new president, Mrs. Lorraine Huttel. Present were the retiring and new officers and members of the budget committee.

The 1959-1960 budget was drawn up and plans were discussed for a style show and card party, and a rummage sale, which will be events of late summer.

Two committee chairmen were appointed: Mrs. Phyllis Cavanaugh, publicity, and Mrs. Doris Heley, Gold Bond group project plan, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Rickley.

Etna OES Host To Yreka

ETNA—At a recent meeting of Evening Star Chapter OES at the Masonic Temple in Etna, the officers of Stella Chapter, Yreka, returned a friendship visit and took over the offices for the evening. Those attending included Dorothy Johnson, worthy matron, Tom Watt, worthy patron, and officers and friends.

Under good of the order, Worthy Matron Viola Stone presented the officers of Stella and Evening Star chapters the jewel of their stations, giving the legend of each stone as she made the presentation. During the recess, a program was given by the past matrons of both chapters. Lillian Musson, acting as mistress of ceremonies, introduced Ruth Hurley who gave a humorous reading of a soldier's comments on returning to his native village. Lucy Van Sandt and Helen Sherman gave their impression of the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet." A ride in an old automobile was enacted as a skit by seven past matrons.

Refreshments were served following the meeting by Irene M. Davis, chairman, and Evelyn Glendenning, Hazel Bourdon, Adair Davis, Ruth Edgcomb, Doris Jackson and Helen Miles.
