

Madelynn Meader Bride Of Arthur Dale Johnson

Madelynn M. Meader became the bride of Arthur Dale Johnson on May 10 in a ceremony performed by the Rev. LeRoy Redal at the Klamath Lutheran Church in the presence of 100 guests.

Standing baskets of white gladioli and stock and pink carnations flanked the altar for the 1 o'clock afternoon service.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Meader are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Myrtle Johnson of Roseburg.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father. White satin bows marked the pews along the aisle down which she was escorted by her father. The bridal gown of Chantilly lace over white satin was borrowed from the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Dale Blanck. The bodice was made with a net yolk, round neckline and long pointed sleeves. A back panel of net over satin fell into a chapel train. She wore a pearl tiara which held in place a fingertip veil of illusion and carried a cascade of pink rosebuds. She wore pearl earrings and a blue garter made by her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Meader of Albany, Oregon, and carried an heirloom handkerchief belonging to her mother. A lucky penny was in her slipper.

Pamella M. Meader was maid of honor for her sister, Mrs. Dale Blanck of Roseburg, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They were identical frocks of light green nylon chiffon over taffeta. The harem skirts were ballerina length. Their headbands of light green satin held shoulder veils of green net. Pearl necklaces and earrings were gifts of the bride. The maid of honor carried a cascade of lavender carnations and the bridesmaid's flowers were pink carnations.

Vicki Meader, sister of the bride, as flower girl, wore a green and pink ballerina frock with matching headband and carried a white basket of pink rose petals.

Mark Stephens, cousin of the bride from Vallejo, California, was ring bearer.

Jerry Cumpston was best man. Ushers were Dale Blanck, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Don Doyle. All are from Roseburg.

Wedding music was played at the organ by Mrs. Arthur Denison. She was accompanied by Roy Lundgren when he sang "Dearest Beloved" and "I'll Walk Beside You."

Mrs. Meader selected a navy blue raw silk suit for her daughter's wedding. With it she wore white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Johnson wore a pink lace sheath dress, pink hat, metallic brown accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

A reception in the church parlors was arranged by the Ladies Aid of the church. Mrs. Dicky Freeman, close friend of the family, used pink chrysanthemums and white stock for decorations.

Pink rosebuds were placed around the base of the three-tiered wedding cake which was decorated with pink rosebuds and topped with a bridal pair. After the first cut was made by the newlyweds, the cake was served by the bride's aunts, Mrs. R. A. Meader and Mrs. H. H. Stephens. Grandmothers of the bride, Mrs. Anna Meader and Mrs. C. C. Stephens, presided at the coffee table. Mrs. Jerry Cumpston poured punch. Gifts were received by Mrs. Virginia Haggreen and Mrs. Lionel Olsen, cousin of the bride, attended the guest book.

For the wedding trip to Reno and Virginia City the new Mrs. Johnson wore a beige two piece dress with white and pink accessories and the corsage from the bridal bouquet. The couple will reside in this city.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Blanck, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cumpston, Don Doyle, all of Roseburg; Mrs. Anna Meader, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Meader and daughters, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Art Dixon and children of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stephens and children from Vallejo.

A miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Virginia Haggreen and Mrs. Evelyn McColgin was among the pre-nuptial affairs honoring the bride-elect.

Mr. and Mrs. Meader entertained members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests at the rehearsal dinner.
