

MR. AND MRS. DOUGLAS PETERSON

Peterson-Carson Vows Taken At Church Altar

MERRILL — The First Presbyterian Church of Merrill was the scene of the wedding of Mrs. Evelyn Carson, Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Icenbice, Merrill, to Douglas Peterson of Willows, California, son of Mrs. Cecil Padgett, Arcata, California, at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, May 13.

The single ring ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Lloyd Henderson in the presence of a few close friends and relatives, was performed before a background of candelabra holding tall, white candles and baskets of red carnations.

Incidental wedding music preceding the ceremony and the wedding marches were played by Mrs. Lawrence Geraghty, organist.

The bride was charming in a light blue suit accented with white accessories and a red carnation corsage.

Mrs. Homer Dupuy, cousin of the bride, Malin, was matron of honor. She was attired in a suit of deep maroon complemented by white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The bridegroom selected Homer Dupuy, Malin, to serve as best man.

Annual Spring Musicales Presented To AAUW Members

The annual spring musical program of AAUW was presented Saturday, May 16, at a luncheon meeting at the First Presbyterian Church. The delicious lunch was served to the members and guests by the women of the church. Decorative centerpieces of spring flowers were arranged by Mrs. A. V. McVey.

At this last meeting of the year Mrs. Philip Blohm relinquished the president's gavel to Mrs. A. H. Patterson. Other officers installed to serve with her were Mrs. E. J. Warrick, vice president; Mrs. E. E. Howard, secretary; and Mrs. Don B. Rice, treasurer.

Preceding the musicale, the Rev. Robert C. Groves gave a brief inspirational talk.

The first part of the program was presented in the dining hall by the AAUW Chamber Music Ensemble. The instrumental trio, Helen O'Neill, Mary Pengelly and Winifred Favell, chose a selection from the collection of "Little Works" by Bach, Allegro and Largo from Vivaldi "Concerto Grosso" in B minor, Mary Pengelly, accompanied by Winifred Favell, presented a flute solo, instrumental quintette, Mildred Howard, Janet Chin, Winifred Favell, Mary Pengelly and Helen O'Neill, played "Bourree" by Handel.

Piano soloist, Eleanor Ehlers, presented "Andante" from the Beethoven Sonata No. 97 and "Cradle Song," by Brahms arranged by Percy Grainger. Vocal solos by Winifred Favell, accompanied by Eloise McIntyre, included "The Awakening" by Spross, "Night and the Curtains Drawn" by Ferrata, and "Spring Song of the Robin Woman" from the American opera, "Shanewis."

The final part of the program, arranged by Mrs. D. E. Van Vactor, was presented in the church sanctuary and consisted of musical numbers representing the finer type of religious music by organist Eloise McIntyre, and vocalist Jean Badorek. A group of early organ pieces from the 1600's by Pachelbel, "Toccata," "Pastor-

LIONS AUXILIARY

The Klamath Falls Lions Auxiliary held its regular May meeting at the home of Mrs. Morgan Johnson. Mrs. Eldred Putnam, Mrs. Ed Hickman and Mrs. Don Anderson were hostesses.

Reports were given on the spring board meeting of the Lions State Auxiliary which was held April 21 in Portland. Delegates to this meeting were Mrs. Estin Kiger, Mrs. Walter Franklin, president and vice president, respectively, of the local club, Mrs. Clarence Humble, a past president of the state auxiliary, and Mrs. Harlan Dexter, a past president of the local group.

Election of officers was held at the May meeting. Mrs. Walter Franklin was elected to head the club as president. To serve with her will be Mrs. Don Nolan, vice president; Mrs. Maury Clark, secretary; Mrs. Ray Ward, treasurer; Mrs. Wayne Newton, Mrs. Don Anderson, Mrs. H. B. Heppburn and Mrs. Harlan Dexter, directors.

The new officers were installed at a joint installation party of the Klamath Falls Lions Club and Auxiliary on May 26 at Reames Country Club.

Mrs. Clarence Humble was installing officer assisted by Mrs. Estin Kiger, Mrs. Irving Burke and Mrs. Vern Moore.

Mrs. Kiger was presented with the past president's pin and a gift. Mrs. Dan Dwyer of Medford, who is a candidate for the office of director of District E, was a guest with her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Estin Humphries, also of Medford. Dan Dwyer is district governor of District E.

MR. AND MRS. REX DAVIS, left, were hosts at a coffee hour on Tuesday for their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Davis, right, who were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

Local Couple Observes Golden Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Davis observed their golden wedding anniversary on Tuesday, June 2. In honor of the day their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davis were hosts to a group of friends for coffee at their home on Crescent Avenue.

Arrangements of spring flowers in the golden shades were placed about the attractive Davis home. A candelabra holding three yellow candles stood at the side of a three tiered wedding cake which was decorated in gold and topped with wedding bells. A bit of sentiment was displayed by a boat holding yellow daisies and a banner with the years, 1909 and 1959, in gold letters, placed in front of the cake. The boat was carved by Claude Davis on the couple's 40th anniversary in memory of the boat trips taken by them on their honeymoon along the Rogue River.

After the cake was first cut by Mr. and Mrs. Davis it was served by Mrs. Lester Offield, Mrs. John Houston and Mrs. Paul Sharp.

WEEKEND VISITORS
DAIRY—Mrs. Minnie Arant and her daughter, Mrs. Elva Patton of North Bend spent the Memorial weekend holidays at Mrs. Arant's home in Dairy. Dunham Arant of Sacramento came to visit his mother while she was in Dairy.

THE BETROTHAL of Janina Neubert to A2C Melvin Cave has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Murray, 2256 Orchard Street. The bride-elect is a student at OTI where she is studying medical X-ray technology. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cave of Baltimore, Maryland, was graduated from Fredrick Sasser High School and is now stationed at Kingsley Field. An August wedding is planned.

VFW Auxiliary Meets In Malin

MALIN—The Malin VFW Auxiliary No. 6147 met on Wednesday evening, May 27, at the VFW Hall with president, Josephine Stumbaugh, presiding.

A new member, Deloris Mullin, was initiated. It was decided to have a cooked food and Centennial bonnet sale on Saturday, June 27, starting at 10 a.m. downtown in Malin.

The date of June 28 was chosen for the annual anniversary potluck. Members are to meet at the hall at 4 p.m. on that day and then go to the park for the potluck dinner.

After the business meeting, sprays were made for the veterans graves in the Malin Cemetery. Refreshments were served to the nine members present by Sylvia Laird.

Excluding farm ponds, Arkansas has 453,868 acres of fishable and private lakes.
