Officers Wives Attend Luncheon

Members of the Officers' Wives Club held their regular luncheon meeting at 1 o'clock on May 21 at the Officers' Club at Kingsley Field.

Mrs. Lloyd LeMay was chairman for the affair. She was assisted by Mrs. David Bell and Mrs. Ward Tuttle. Centerpieces for the tables were elaborately decorated cakes. Cup cakes were placed along the tables between the larger cakes.

Mrs. Richard Mallon presided at the brief business meeting. Mrs. Dick Reeder, representing the American Red Cross, showed slides of the work done in the local unit and spoke of the need for more volunteers.

Following the program an amusing hour was spent as each one present told of her most embarrassing moment. Decorated cakes were given as prizes to Mrs. Leland Raphun, Mrs. Daniel Reed and Mrs. William Fredrick.

Newcomers welcomed at the luncheon included Mrs. Gary Nardi, Mrs. Harold Reynolds, Mrs. Delbert Paulson, Mrs. Polly Ibatuan Jr. and Mrs. George Anderson.

Mrs. Elton Smith and Mrs. Robert Meel, both honorary members of the club, and Mrs. George Dugan were guests of the day.

CORRECT WARDROBE

Knowing your wardrobe needs is one way to prevent yourself from making expensive mistakes. If you never go to cocktail parties, it's pointless to have a cocktail dress hanging in your closet. Your clothes should be beamed to your particular way of life.

Two Take Vows At Church Altar

McCLOUD—Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Desoza of McCloud have announced the marriage of their son, Halbert, to Joetta Mae Yager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Yager of Quincy.

The wedding took place in the Methodist Church in Quincy, with the Rev. A. Melvin Tinker officiating, at 6 p.m. on May 23.

They were married before an altar banked with white stock and carnations and flanked by candelabra. The bride wore a ballerina length dress of white lace over light blue taffeta. She carried a small bouquet of orchids and her tiny hat was trimmed with seed pearls. Her sister, Rae, was her bridesmaid and wore an identical dress of pink.

Lloyd Coulter was best man and ushers were Leland and Daniel Colter, all of Quincy.

Out-of-town guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lakin, a great aunt, Mrs. Betty Gay of Sacramento, and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Desoza of McCloud.

The bride is a graduate of Quincy High School and has been employed for two years as a practical nurse in the Quincy Hospital.

The bridegroom is a graduate of McCloud schools and attended Lassen Junior College, Oregon State College and the Army School of Engineers at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. He is now employed as highway engineer for Plumas National Forest.

Following the rites a reception was held in the social hall of the church. A five tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, under wedding bells, was cut by the bride and served to approximately 60 guests.
