A PARISIAN THEME, "d'enchantement soir", some enchanted evening, was cleverly portrayed by the junior class for the annual KUHS junior-senior prom held recently in the school cafeteria. Murals painted by Susan Moss, Carolyn Westlund and Rex Wenner covered the entire walls of the room. They depicted scenes of Paris including Moulin Rouge and a sidewalk cafe. Purple crepe paper streamers hung from the ceiling between the drawings and trees of green roses were placed about the edge of the dance floor. At either end of the room rock gardens with purple and white iris completed the attractive decor. Baldy's Band played for dancing.

Cooley-Dall Wedding Solomnized In Yreka

YREKA—In a candlelight double ring ceremony, Mary Patricia Dall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fay L. Dall of Yreka, exchanged nuptial vows with Norman Carol Cooley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooley, also of Yreka, on Saturday afternoon, May 16, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Yreka, with Father Robert Connolly reading the 2 o'clock rites before approximately 125 assembled guests.

Large baskets of white stock and pink snapdragons decorated the altar of the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a waltz length gown of white Italian imported lace over tulle, fashioned with a scalloped scoop neckline, edged with pearls; and bracelet-length sleeves.

Iridescent heart-shaped sequins and an edging of tiny pearls, decorated her lace half-hat, which secured her elbow-length veil in place. She wore a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations with pink rosebuds nestled in the center.

Mrs. Frederick Johnston of Yreka, was matron of honor for her sister; and Mrs. Richard Hanni of Yreka, and Sandra Flock of Gazelle, were bridesmaids, all wearing identically fashioned gowns, featuring fitted, bodices with square necklines, and puffed sleeves. The bouffant skirts were tied with sashes of long ribbon, matching their broad brimmed picture hats of nylon braid. The matron of honor's gown was of white net, featuring a lace pattern over green tulle, while the bridesmaids' gowns were of white net over pink tulle. Ribbons matching their gowns tied their white carnation bouquets, and they wore Aurora crystal earrings, a gift of the bride.

Serving as best man was Robert F. Silva of Yreka, and guests were seated by Richard Bryan of Sacramento and Everett Flock of Yreka. Serving as acolyte was Larry Dall, brother of the bride.

Wedding marches were played by Mrs. Leo Purinton, organist, who also played "Ave Maria," "On This Day," and "Oh Beautiful Mother."

The bride's mother, Mrs. Dall, chose for her daughter's wedding an afternoon frock of blue chiffon with a floral pattern, complemented with matching accessories. Mrs. Cooley, mother of the bridegroom, selected a pale green silk sheath with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations.

The reception was held, following the ceremony, in the Melody Room of the Yreka Inn. Focal point of the bride's table was a beautifully decorated five-tiered cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, the base surrounded with pink and white carnations. Flanking the cake were lighted candles held in silver candelabra with crystal pendants. Baskets of pink and white stock and snapdragons were placed at each end of the table.

Following the initial slice of cake cut by the newlyweds, it was served with other refreshments by Mrs. Betty Cooley, Gloria Aznoe and Susanne Hixson. Guests were registered by Mrs. Leslie Flock, with Mrs. Edgar Aznoe and Mrs. Mark Hixson presiding at the gift table.

For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Cooley chose a white knit suit with pink accessories, the pink rosebuds from her bridal bouquet serving as a corsage. The newlyweds left for a wedding trip immediately after the reception and are now residing at 403 Herzog Boulevard in Yreka.

The bride attended schools in Wooster, Ohio, and Yreka, and is now employed at the Crocker Anglo Bank in Yreka. The bridegroom is a graduate of Yreka schools, attended San Jose State

Yreka Project Aided By BPW

YREKA — Presentation of two checks to Floyd Taylor, representative for the Yreka Community Center, by past president of the Yreka Business and Professional Women's Club, Rachael Cordes, on behalf of the club, and Mrs. Margaret Erey, was the highlight of the organization's business meeting on Tuesday evening, May 12, in the club room of the Yreka Inn.

The club had conducted a food sale early in April to raise the money for the contribution, which was to aid in the refurbishing of the old fourth street grammar school to be used as a community center by various organizations of Yreka. Mrs. Margaret Erey, a member of the Yreka BPWC, had offered to match a contribution made by the club, and the two checks totaled close to $105.

Prior to the presentation, Taylor outlined briefly what work has been accomplished in the past few months by members of Boy Scout and Girl Scout units, the Teenage Club, the Kiwanis Club and members of the committee in charge of the renovation project. During the business session, presided over by the recently installed president, Betty Dow, tentative plans were discussed for the June 23 dinner meeting. Weather permitting, the dinner will be an outdoor potluck event. It was also decided by members to postpone the program planning meeting until after the
