

THE LABORS of many men and able direction of the park board members have resulted in a picnic spot in Klamath County sought by large and small organizations and individuals. The beautifully landscaped area, with wide green lawns, flower gardens, shrubs and shade, was once site of a cheese factory and unimproved land. Stasny at the left and Polivka, right, are still literally moving mountains to make other landscaping possible. Center, is T. A. DeMerritt, park secretary, who also has devoted time and effort for many years on the project. Wayne Fisk, Malin, is on board of directors.

that $70,000 is a conservative figure donated in time, labor, equipment and materials.

No bills are owed.

The park is advantageously located on State Highway 39, adjacent to the city limits. There is a wading pool for small children, clean rest rooms, tables, benches and beauty.

The land that was once a cow pasture, owned by the family of Ben Pickett, whose family came to Malin before the Czech colonists, is now a show place in Southern Oregon.

FORE OR AFT
NEW YORK (UPI)—Start or end your meal with sherbert-topped grapefruit. To serve four, halve two grapefruits. Remove seeds and loosen each section with pointed, sharp knife along membrane and skin. Snip out centers with scissors. Sprinkle one teaspoon mint syrup or grenadine over each half. Just before serving, fill each center with two tablespoons fruit sherbert and garnish with fresh mint sprigs or strawberries.

BRAKE WITH COFFEE
MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — Housewives should take a few coffee breaks during the day, says Glenn Prickett, a safety specialist at the University of Minnesota. Prickett said accidents in the kitchen are caused by the same errors which produce a large share of highway accidents—haste and fatigue. Taking several brief rest periods during the day will pay off in increased energy and greater safety.

MILD - MANNERED OSCAR
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Oscar Levant insisted on a recent TV show: "I never say unpleasant things about anyone, and I don't plan to start now."
