Missouri Likes Caves

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (UPI) - Missouri, already famous for Harry S. Truman, mules and skeptical citizens, is developing into a leading underground state. It boasts 437 caves in 55 counties which it expects will be visited by more sightseers, explored by more spelunkers and scientifically studied by more speleologists than ever before. The largest of these caves is Meramec Caverns, where Jesse James and his gang once hid out. Other favorite underground spots in Missouri are the "Garden of the Gods," the Ozark Wonder Caves and Mark Twain Cave near Hannibal, where Tom Sawyer and Becky Thatcher once got lost.

GEORGE THE RIPPER
 BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) - George Knox, 53, was given a suspended $25 fine for resisting arrest but had to pay for the patrolman's trousers he tore during the scuffle.

VOICE ON THE SOUND TRACK

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) - The voice of Aurora in "Sleeping Beauty" belongs to Mary Costa, a serious student of opera who also used to deliver commercials on the "Climax" TV program. She began singing publicly in Sunday school in Knoxville, Tenn., at the age of six.
