Gold Star Mom Bids 'Bye To Son, 17, Bound For Navy

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP)—Widowed Mary Smith, a Gold Star mother, has only household duties to occupy her time these days. She bade a familiar farewell last week to her 17-year-old son, Floyd, the sixth of her sons who joined the Navy. One never returned.

The pattern formed 17 years ago when her sons Howard and Donald enlisted together for Navy service in World War II.

Howard and Donald were discharged in 1945. Meanwhile, their brother Lionell had joined the Navy at the age of 17 in May 1944.

In June 1948, Charles E. Smith became the fourth of the sons to join the Navy. He served aboard a landing ship during the construction of a United States military base at Thule, Greenland.

The fifth brother, Alfred, joined the Navy in February 1955. After service aboard the battleship Iowa and heavy cruiser Salem, he was called home by his father's fatal illness in 1957 and completed part of his hitch at Muskegon Naval Reserve, Training Center before being returned to destroyer duty. Alfred reenlisted last week.

Three other children of Mrs. Smith, two boys and a girl, died in infancy.

War Prisoner Must Leave

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Kurt Franz Rossmel, escaped prisoner of war who hid from U.S. officialdom for 14 years, must leave this country or be deported.

A U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service examiner ruled Thursday he is in this country illegally because he has no visa.

He now knows his wartime wife and daughter are still alive and well. But his Dutch wife, Anna, has remarried again and their daughter, Brunhilde, now 17, says she might like to see her real father—but just once.

The World War II German army officer said he walked nonchalantly out the front gate of Camp Butner, N.C., in August, 1945, determined to stay in this country.

Rossmel, now 53, balding and afflicted by arthritis, agreed to voluntarily leave the United States, but vowed he would not go far away.
