The other day, Charlie Bane, the man who undertook the job of planning and directing the work necessary to convert old Recreation Field into the Mills Little League Park issued a call for volunteer labor.

The first man to answer was Harold Sherman, engineer, who will supervise the actual construction of the diamonds, stands, restrooms from start to finish.

The old stands were torn down in nothing flat and the project really got underway.

A more willing group of workmen would be hard to find. Said one, "Heck, I played ball 40 years ago for the Pablo Indians and I had a lot of fun—if our work helps these kids get a chance it's well worth it."

Bane, a good man to call if you want something done—now is busy contacting various business houses, contractors, trade unions, ball fans, players, parents, in fact anyone who might find some way in which they could be of service.

Says Charlie, "I just might miss someone—and if I do, I would appreciate it greatly if they would call me. We don't want anyone denied a chance to help."

Swinging into action Friday was R. A. Davis and Steve Dunn; Davis providing a Grade-All and Dunn a dump truck to be used in the excavation of dugouts and the cutting of basepaths, etc.

Parents of every Little Leaguer have been invited to attend practice sessions attended by their sons; the folks working while the boys practice.

The ladies could help—maybe a group could get together and come up with some sandwiches and coffee on the cool nights or cold drinks on the hot days when their husbands are busy helping on the project.

More help is needed. "You don't have to be an engineer nor know a trade—we've got something for you to do," urges Bane.

"We plan to be playing on the new diamonds within three weeks," Bane added.

A news note concerning the Compton Invitational track meet in which Archie San Romani Jr., son of the famed distance runner of the 30s, finished third in the mile with the fastest time ever run by a high school athlete, 4:06.9.

has some interesting dope in the background. Romani was beaten by Jerome Walters (4:06.2) and Bob Shankland, but that's not the point.

Another lad entered in the race was Orange (Cal) High School's Dale Story.

Dale smashed Dyrrol Burleson's national prep mark last week with a 4:11.0 in the California state meet at Bakersfield. His new mark bettered Burley's record by 2.2 seconds.

That's moving. But then along came San Romani and that record finished away in the dust.

Story's (a possible relation of KU's Don Story) flashy Bakersfield mile prompted a phone call to Len Surles, the ex-KU track mentor, who now teaches at Orange High.

Len, although not coaching now, lives only a few blocks from the California State and naturally has become quite interested in the lad.

Immediately following the Klamath Kub-Weed Northern California league baseball game this afternoon in Gem Stadium the American Legion baseball team will hold a special practice, according to coach Hi Hatfield.

The Legion nine was originally scheduled for a two-day, two-game series with Redmond there both Saturday and today, but the games were canceled when it was learned that the Redmond group had failed to come up with a club for this season.

The Redmond failure leaves only Bend to represent the Bend-Redmond-Prineville area.

The Klamath Falls Legion nine opens its 1959 league schedule Wednesday, June 10, in Gem Stadium when it hosts the Lakeview team in a one-game stand beginning at 8 p.m.

Saturday, June 13, the Legionnaires will face the Bend club in a two-game series, the first an afternoon game, 2 p.m., in Gem Stadium and the second, a night contest, being played at a Little League ballpark benefit project.

The Little League benefit will start at 8 o'clock.

Hatfield is still observing Legion applicants, having approximately 25 players from which to pick his 1959 permanent roster. He will release his final choices prior to the league opener with Lakeview.

Nor-Cal Clubs Meet Today

Kubs Face Weed '9' At Gem

The 1959 semi-pro baseball gets underway officially this afternoon in Gem Stadium at 2 o'clock as the Klamath Kubs host the Weed Sons in a Northern California League match but not before fans get the chance to relish a "comedy of errors" staged by two teams of local "ancients."

Beginning at 1 o'clock, just prior to the Kub-Weed game an "Oldtimers" game pitting the cream of the crop of Klamath Falls diamond veterans will provide the fans with a lot of laughs and a few one-time ballplayers with a lot of sore arms.

On the serious side of the double bill manager Irv Whitt and his steadily improving Kub squad will mix with the Sons determined to make amends for the defeat suffered at the hands of the Yreka Indians last Sunday. The Weed club is equally determined since they are also looking for revenge having been unceremoniously dumped on their home grounds by Mount Shasta their first time out.

"We are hoping for good turnout this year—in fact we just about have to have good attendance or we will not be able to continue," noted an obviously worried Whitt. "This year we have no other support, financially, than what we can take in at the gate so we have to ask the fans to turn out and give us hand," he went on.

Admission prices for all Kub games is 75 cents per person on a non-reserved, first-come, first-served seating basis. Youngsters under 15 will be admitted free to all Kub appearances. The box office will open at noon.

The "Oldtimers" the squads managed by Harry Peliz and Bill Burke, are scheduled for two or three innings depending, of course, on the progress of the game. The contest must necessarily be finished before 2 p.m. league rulings prohibiting the start of Nor-Cal games any later.

Among some of the veterans who will suit up for the "Oldtimers" game are Bill Burke, Bill Hilton, Don Hilton, Louie Taucher, Ernie Call, Ernie Bishop, Loren Binney, Willie Dunster, Cliff (Lefty) Molatore, Bob (Scooter) Thompson, Jim Barnes, Roy Harris, Paul Williams, Paul Dalrymple, Andy Knudsen and a number of others.

The Kub lineup for the important Weed test will find Mike Dolan, starting on the mound, Rube Johnson catching, Dean Dunson playing first base, Don Dexter at second, Ron Owens at short, Whitt playing third, with outfield assignments going to Floyd Linderman, Bob Lawery and Dave Cohen.

Also on hand as replacements are Bob Kelly, Bob Jones, John Bianchi, Harve Nelson and Bill Worlein.

According to Whitt the Gem Stadium concession stand will be in operation for the Sunday games.

Dow Finsterwald Nips Tommy Bolt

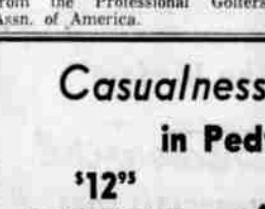

OMAHA (AP)—Dow Finsterwald, the 1958 PGA champion, shot a 67 to edge Tommy Bolt in the National Golf Day target match Saturday.

He was four under par and one stroke better than Bolt, the National Open champ, whose putting was off most of the afternoon.

Golfers across the country were playing their own courses in an effort to better the low score—Finsterwald's 67—in the match between the two pros playing Omaha's Happy Hollow Club course.

Those who did will get medals from the Professional Golfers Assn. of America.

Linderman will play his usual centerfield position. Game time is 2 o'clock following an "Oldtimers Game" which will begin at 1 o'clock.

Hardtops In Action At Speedway Today

Klamath Basin racing fans will get their second look at the hardtops this afternoon at the Eberlein Street speedway when Southern Oregon and Northern California drivers match car power and driving ingenuity against one another in an eight-event card.

Last weekend, the initial races of the 1959 season, both Hankins and Jones finished close seconds to a pair of California drivers while both Hankins and Cook had auto troubles, however both are expected to be ready to roll by race time today.

As an added feature this afternoon, a 25-lap race will be added to the card, pitting Micro-Midget cars and drivers against one another. The 12-horsepower Micros are capable of speeds from 50 to 55 miles-per-hour.

The feature event will be held on a specially constructed track which has been built in the infield of the main oval.

Adrian Cops B Prep Title

PORTLAND (AP)—Adrian retained its Oregon class B high school baseball championship Saturday night by defeating Gaston, 5-4, in the opener of a tripleheader to decide three state titles.

It downed Gaston, 12-2, to win last year.

Adrian held a 4-0 lead after 4 innings, all of the runs being earned. But Gaston rallied for two runs in both the fifth and sixth innings.

Adrian, held to one scratch hit by pitcher Ladd Gooding in the first six innings, came back in the seventh as Stan Mills, who had singled, came home with the winning run on Henry Mendezona's safety to left center.

Phil Hatch, pitched a four-hitter for Adrian. He struck out four.

Gooding also yielded only four hits. He was hampered by six errors, walks, passed balls and a wild pitch. It was his first defeat after 11 victories this season.
