

MAN AND MACHINE—Pacific Telephone and Telegraph voluntarily moved into the picture on the Mills Little League Park site Wednesday using both men and equipment to set the posts for the backstops on the new diamonds. In the shot at right a group of Little Leaguers and fathers pitch in with less specialized tools in getting one of the infields in shape. At far left Morrison-Knudsen's Harold Sherman, park construction foreman, and Les Tinker, Pacific Tel. and

Tel. construction foreman, watch Harry Mathis as he guides the post hole digger which is operated by Paul Hardy in the truck. In the background, left, stands John Tapovac with a pair of young sidewalk supervisors, Roland Davis, owner of the Gradall being used, and Early Ovelly. Little Leaguers and their fathers are requested to report to the field at 8 o'clock Saturday morning to continue the project.

Pete Newell Cited Possible Choice For UW Cage Job

SEATTLE (AP)—George Briggs, athletic director at the University of Washington, which is shopping for a new basketball coach, admitted Thursday that California's Pete Newell is a possible candidate.

The Washington job was left vacant Monday when Tippy Dye resigned to become athletic director at the University of Wichita. Newell, whose Golden Bears won the NCAA basketball crown this year, and Briggs, former assistant athletic director at California, are close personal friends. "There is nothing of a concrete

W-D Adds To Margin In LL Play

With the completion of Wednesday evening's Klamath Falls Little League games on Wright Field, Weyerhaeuser-Don's had strengthened its hold on first place in the league with a 9-5 victory over Park-Moyina while Bend-Portland had to come from behind with four runs in the fourth and fifth innings for a thrilling 7-6 win over Hal's Sport Shop.

For Weyerhaeuser-Don's, who racked up their third straight win of the young season, Steve Young pitched and batted his team to victory, needing help from Randy Smith in the sixth and final inning when Park-Moyina rallied for three futile tallies while smashing out a pair of triples to aid in the winner's 11-hit assault on losing hurler Larry Barnes.

John Hammersley and Richard Bath also poled three-baggers while David Johnson unloaded a homerun for the winners.

The big blows of the five hits collected by the losers went to Curt Coleman, who pounded out a homerun, and David Musgrove, who connected for a triple.

Both Hal's and Bend-Portland used three different pitchers in their contest. Dennis Gooing, Tom Schiff and Tim Bailey all toiled on the mound for the losers with the loss going to Schiff while Bob Moss, Tim Allen and Jim Patzke all took their turns on the hill for the winners, with the win going to Patzke.

Schiff poled a triple and Tom Narramore and Bob Moore both doubles for Hal's while Patzke clobbered a long homerun and a triple and Larry Cassidy a three-bagger for the winners.
