

CARAMEL CHIPS are used to make this tempting confection for serving at any time. Chief ingredient is Baker's Caramel Chips which are melted with butter and evaporated milk. The roll is covered with nutmeats, pecans, walnuts or peanuts, chilled and then sliced.

Caramel Candy

Time was when the preparation of a caramel confection was just more trouble than it was worth. Fortunately, this is no longer true. For with the arrival of caramel chips on the market, achieving this most delectable of flavors came within easy reach of everyone — however busy or inexperienced.

Except for melting the caramel chips and butter, there's no cooking involved. Just add the other ingredients to the melted chips, chill the mixture in the refrigerator until it is firm enough to be formed into a cylinder, then roll it in the nut meats. Back into the refrigerator it goes until ready to slice and serve.

CARAMEL CRISPS
1 cup (6 ounces) caramel chips
¼ cup butter
Dash of salt
2 cups confectioners' sugar
¼ cup evaporated milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
¼ cup chopped pecans or walnuts

Melt caramel chips and butter in a saucepan over very low heat, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and add salt. Then add sugar alternately with milk, blending well after each addition. Add vanilla and mix well. Chill in refrigerator for 20 to 30 minutes. Then form into a cylinder and roll in chopped nuts. Keep in refrigerator until ready to slice and serve. Makes about 2 dozen.

FREE BOOKLET

A Backyard Luau, or "Feast of the Islands," receives lively treatment in a booklet of traditional South Sea Island recipes now being offered by Myers Jamaica Rum.

Repeating the theme which added new variety to last year's outdoor entertainment season, Myers has timed the booklet to coincide with the growing interest in Hawaiian-type specialties kindled by the recent admittance of the 50th state.

The booklet, appropriately entitled "Backyard Luau," is a ten-page folder of adventuresome ideas for imparting exotic flavor to familiar foods. It is a valuable discovery in easy-to-follow island specialties that gives the fun-seeking host or hostess a pleasant change from the ordinary outdoor barbecue.

A novel Frangi-Pangi Cocktail makes a rousing party-opener with an exotic combination of Myers Rum, vodka, pineapple and lime juice. It is followed by the traditional Luau Punch, backbone of any Luau party.

Other exotic mouth-watering preparations—Pickled Fish Hawaii, Coconut Cream, South Sea Islands Ham Steak, Bananas Falafel, Polynesian Sweets, Rum-Glazed Sparrows Tahiti—abound with inspiration enough to assure a Backyard Luau of immediate and unqualified success.

Myers calls it "your passport to a South Sea Island adventure" and keeps it simple, to be easily accomplished in any kitchen or outdoor grill.

Myers "Backyard Luau" booklet is available by writing to Myers Rum Consumer Service, 375 Park Avenue, New York 22, New York.

REAL GOLD

Better breakfasts start the day right.

Everybody is saying it and nutritionists are proving that better breakfasts add up to healthier people.

The body's need for energy-building nourishment before the day's activities begin is an accepted fact these days.

Health-protective vitamin C, for example, is not stored by the body. Each person needs a fresh supply daily, preferably in the morning. To start your day the happy way, eat a better breakfast.

Real Gold Orange Base is an easy way to provide the needed vitamins of fresh fruit. Each can of Real Gold Orange Base contains the juice of six to eight California oranges. Just add cold water to the convenient six-ounce can, then stir and serve.

You'll find Real Gold Orange Base on the shelf in your grocer's fruit juice section. It is not frozen. It is convenient to take along to the summer cabin, the weekend picnic or to serve in the house or out-of-doors at home.

This healthful orange juice drink is so enriched that a single six-ounce can supplies your minimum daily requirement of vitamin C.

Every six-ounce can makes one quart of orange juice—the convenient way. Serve it for breakfast, lunch or snacks. A tall glass of orange juice in between-meals is refreshing and a good pick-me-up. Add water to the contents of a can of Real Gold Orange Base and pour into your freezer tray. Use the orange juice ice cubes instead of plain ice to chill the fruit juice. It's good to the last swallow.
