FRUIT-CROWNED Bread Crumb Omelet is suggested for summer eating and also as part of the observance of June Dairy Month. The photo and recipe are from the Poultry and Egg National Board.

BREAD CRUMB OMELET

Here's an omelet that even June to low and cook on top of range. It's a perfect first try — it pulls up with finger tip and knife inserted. And bread crumbs help it stay that way. Crown this Bread Crumb Omelet with a wealth of fresh fruits—your favorite, in season. Drizzle generously with Nalley's Lumber Jack maple syrup. Or let your imagination take over for almost any "crowning glory" on top. With spatula, make cut some idea—gently spoon cottage cheese into the lower half of this Bread Crumb Omelet before folding. Fold and serve with maple syrup for a sweet treat. What ever you do, you're sure to eat and enjoy this Bread Crumb Omelet. That's so failure-proof even June brides can be omelet tips over warm serving plate held to edge of pan.

PEACH RINGS

"Golden Peach Ring" filled with perfect warm weather food. Luscious canned cling peach slices are held in a gelatin mold made luscious with fresh lemon juice and a touch of preserved ginger. A generous measure of finely grated raw carrot gives an interesting vegetable accent. Turn the ring out onto crisp salad greens and fill with cottage cheese. You'll find this molded salad a splendid accompaniment to fried chicken or cold meat platters.

GOLDEN PEACH RING

1 No. 2 1/2 can cling peach slices
2 tablespoons sugar
1 envelope plain gelatin
1 1/2 cup fresh lemon juice
1 cup finely grated raw carrot
2 tablespoons finely chopped preserved or candied ginger
Salad greens
Cottage cheese
Mayonnaise
Drain and measure 1 1/2 cups syrup from peaches (add water, if necessary to make full amount.) Heat with sugar and salt. Soften gelatin in lemon juice, and dissolve in hot syrup. Cool until slightly thickened. Fold in carrot, ginger and well drained peach slices. Turn into 8 1/2 inch ring mold, and chill until firm. Unmold on crisp salad greens. Fill center of mold with cottage cheese, if desired. Serve with mayonnaise. Makes 6 to 8 servings.
