

Senator Lights Fail; Rainiers Swat Pads

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Seattle Rainiers, looking anything but like the Pacific Coast League's cellar-dwellers, put a big crimp in San Diego's drive to overtake the first-place Sacramento Solons Thursday night.

The Rainiers tacked two defeats on the Pads. Max Surkont and Bill Kennedy joined forces for a three-hitter and a 2-1 victory in the opener and the Suds won the nightcap 6-2.

The loss dropped the Padres to three full games behind the Solons, whose scheduled battle with Portland at Sacramento was suspended after one inning with the score tied at 6-0. The lights failed. The game will be continued July 28 in Portland.

In other league action Thursday

Unbeaten W-D Tops LL Nines

Hal's Sport Shop gave Weyerhaeuser-Don's a big boost Thursday night in Klamath Falls Little League action on Wright Field when the Sport Shop nine handed second-place Johns-Manville a 9-6 defeat while the league leaders were trouncing hapless Car-Ad-Co.

The leader's record now stands at 4-0 while four teams—Johns-Manville, Hal's Sport Shop, Park-Moyina and Bend-Portland—are all deadlocked for second place with identical 2-2 records.

The big inning for Hal's was the third when the winners chased across six tallies, four on a bases-loaded home run by Tim Bailey and the other two on a two-run blast by Tom Narramore. Jim Bridges, who relieved starter Mike Martinez in the first inning when the J-M crew erupted for four runs, was credited with the victory. The 11-year-old hurler walked only three and struck out 11, getting a ride off the field on his teammate's shoulders following the game for his sterling performance.

Included in the 14-hit assault on two J-M pitchers were Bailey and Narramore's four-base clouts, a triple by Bridges and a double by Louis Rickey.

Steve Good collected the only extra-base hit for the losers, a double in the sixth.

Weyerhaeuser-Don's scored in every inning as they rattled out 18 base hits while the Car-Ad-Co squad was picking up only seven. Fred Cole and David Lyman pitched the win for the leaders while the losers used three hurlers in trying to stifle the big bats of W-D.

David Johnson poled a home run and a double, Richard Bath a four-base smash and John Hammerley a triple for the big blows in the W-D hitting attack while Terry Rogers and Terry Ash rapped out homers for the losers. Gregg Scott also poked a two-bagger for Car-Ad-Co.

The line scores:

Hal's	106	110-9	14
Johns-Manville	401	001-6	6
Martinez, Bridges (1) and Narramore; Good, Parisotto (3) and Jendrzejewski.

TO OPEN FESTIVITIES — Asked by his friends, a host of South Suburban Little League ballplayers, to toss out the first ball at the big 55 Jamboree slated for Gem Stadium at 7 o'clock tonight, was young Gail Putman, center, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Putman, Klamath Falls. Gail, although unable to participate, is an avid Little League rooster but he can't play favorites because he has buddies on each team. With him are Scott Mayfield, left, of the Metter Brothers' team, and Phillip Abbey, right of House of Discount. Gail is a polio victim.

South Suburban LL Sets Gem Jamboree

The spring-long efforts of a hard working group of South Suburban parents and baseball fans culminated tonight in Gem Stadium when 300 youngsters swarmed onto the field for the big grand opening that initiates the South Suburban Little League system.

Six "major" league teams and 14 "minor" squads, all decked-out in brand new uniforms will be featured in the opening ceremonies. Following the flag presentation

Ortiz Favored To Top Lane

NEW YORK (UPI) — In a betting clinic, Carlos Ortiz today became a 13-10 favorite to beat southpaw Kenny Lane in their fight tonight for the revived, synthetic junior welterweight title.

Their Madison Square Garden 12-round—the first fight for the 140-pound championship in nearly 13 years—will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC.

Until today, sandy-haired Lane of Muskegon, Mich., had been a slight favorite at odds that dwindled down to 11-10. Increased support for swarthy Ortiz of New York and Puerto Rico caused the switch.

The 12-rounder is a return bout. Lane, 27, won a majority 10-round decision over Ortiz, 22, at Miami Beach last Dec. 31. That was before Lane's manager, Slick Jack (Doc) Kearns, dreamed up the idea of resurrecting the 140-pound crown—for publicity and more loot.

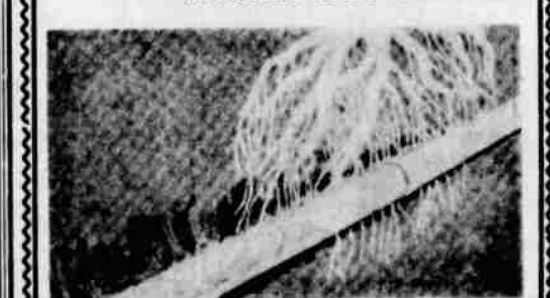

At Miami Beach, Lane's strong finish earned him the vote of two officials, 98-95 and 97-96. But the third official scored it even, 96-96.

Left fielder John Burgwyn led the University of North Carolina batters with a .324 mark this spring.

Ben, Trio Sharing US Lead

MAMARONECK, N.Y. (AP) — Ben Hogan, a little fellow who carries a lot of weight, took a share of the lead into the second round of the 59th U.S. Open Golf championship today.

But two younger pros who carry little weight—physically or competitively—found themselves in a very enviable position although the 46-year-old Texas precisionist shot a 69 Thursday in his bid for an unprecedented fifth open title.

Dick Knight, 29-year-old, 5-foot-10, 160-pound former driving range operator who plays out of San Diego, Calif., was tied for first with Hogan and two others of golfer's best-known stars, Gene Littler and Dow Finsterwald.

Hillman Robbins, a 27-year-old, 5-10, 137-pound freshman pro who was National Amateur champion two years ago, was only a stroke behind.

But so many good players were grouped within a few strokes of these pace-setters that it still could be anybody's tournament.

Here's how it shaped up after the first round:

Tied for first with 69s, one under par for the trap-strewn, 6,373-yard Winged Foot west course: Hogan, the grim little man who is playing superb golf.

Littler, the former amateur titleholder who recovered his playing form this year and has won two tournaments—always steady Finsterwald, the PGA champion; and Knight, who never has won anything more important than the California Open.

Alone at 70: Robbins, who turned professional less than a year ago, hasn't won anything important and is acutely conscious of his shortcomings.

At 71: two-time Open champion Cary Middlecott, South Africa's Gary Player, runner-up to Tommy Bolt last year; former PGA champion Lionel Hebert, Billy Casper, Don January, Ted Kroll, Arnold Palmer, Don Fairfield, Bo Winger and big Mike Souchak.

At 72: Al Balding of Canada, Bruce Crampton of Australia, Bill Collins, Gene Bone, Doug Ford, Ernie Vossler, home pro Claude Harmon, Henry Ransom, Ewing Pomeroy and National Amateur champion Charlie Coe.

These are the ones who must be considered as the contenders at this stage.

The trailers at 73 include such illustrious players as Sammy Snead and always-dangerous Jay Hebert.

Tommy Bolt, the defending champion, appeared virtually out of it with an opening round of 75. A trio of former champions were worse off — Julius Boros with a 76, Dick Mayer with 77 and Ed Furgol with 83.

Knight, a native of Omaha who used to sit on Johnny Goodman's bag and watch the 1933 Open champion practice, was the real surprise performer of the first round. He has played in the Open only once before—at Rochester in 1956, and was cut off after 36 holes.

Yacht Club To Present Water Show

Klamath Falls water-lovers and boating enthusiasts are in for a busy weekend, Saturday and Sunday, June 13-14, when the Klamath Yacht Club stages its first boat show in the Club Marina on Front Street.

There is no admission charge to any event in the two-day show and the general public is invited.

Skilled exhibitions in water-skiing and skin-diving will highlight the show in addition to water safety and life saving demonstrations by the Klamath Falls Fire Department and the Oregon State Police.

Skin divers Benny Starr and Mervin Woodard are featured in the diving performances. Starr made the news recently as the hero in the rescue of a family of five whose car had plunged into the canal. Woodard is the vice president of the Klamath Falls Skin Divers Club.

Displays of all types of boats and equipment will be provided by a number of local merchants including Troy Cook, Dugan & Mest, Klamath Marine Supply, Cal-Ore Sports Center, Montgomery Ward, Sol Wirth and the Gun Store.

State police will hold a round-table discussion and lectures on the new boating regulations slated to go into effect July 1. Boating fans are urged to request to attend these "regulations" sessions since such things as boat licensing, safety equipment, right-of-way, and patrolling of waterways will be discussed.

New Faces Join Kubs For Sunday Contest

Some new faces are scheduled to appear on the Klamath Kub roster this weekend when the local semi-pro club host the Dunsmuir Merchants in Northern California League action slated for Gem Stadium Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Klamath Falls youngsters, 15 and under, are invited to attend all the home games as guests of the Kubs. Adults admission price is 75 cents per person on a no-reserved seat basis. The box office will open at 12:30 p.m. Gem concession stands are now in operation.

Other Nor-Cal action finds the Yreka Indians and the Weed Sons tangling at Weed while the Scott Valley Stars journey to Mount Shasta.

Still on the trail of victory number one, Kub manager Irv Whitt, this week welcomed catcher Bob Kelly, second baseman Bert Dollar and pitcher Wayne Hironaka all of whom have just finished college semesters.

Kelly and Hironaka have been attending Fresno State while Dollar is from Contra Costa.

Both Kelly and Hironaka are returnees from last year's Kub lineup.

The return of the trio causes some shifting in the Kub starting lineup this Sunday. Kelly will move in behind the plate replacing top Kub hitter, Rube Johnson, for service in the outfield while Dollar will take over for Don Dexter at second base.

Hironaka will join pitchers Bob Lawery, Mike Dolan and Bob Jones as possible starters on the mound for the test with the league-leading Merchant nine.

Dexter will switch to third base, as will Ron Owings at short while Whitt and Floyd Linderman will join Johnson in the outfield patch-es.

No rest for this Chevy... round the clock the engine never stops!

At Washington's bustling National Airport, Allied Aviation Fueling counts on its radio-equipped Chevy to get crews and tank trucks to the right planes at just the right time. Aside from occasional time out for the usual service, its Thrift-master 6-cylinder engine has been running 24 hours a day for the past 9 months!

Once you've got that kind of endurance working you don't worry much about lost job time. Breakdowns go out of style the day your Chevy goes into action.

The fact is, Chevrolet trucks are dead set on dropping the word "downtime" right out of the English language. And they just might, if precision engineering and top-quality materials have anything to say about it. Chevy trucks are put together to stay together—incorporating the most advanced chassis developments, the most efficient 6-cylinder and V8 engine designs. They're built to last, built to keep Chevrolet's hard-earned reputation for reliability flying high.

Going into the real heart of Chevrolet advantages is where your dealer comes in. He'll show you, in feature after feature, that you can't buy more truck dependability—in any weight class—at any price.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!
