Grad Rites Hearing Set
Seven orphan children from Klamath Falls and Merrill are among students attending Mooseheart Elementary and High School in Mooseheart that will graduate a class of 50 seniors June 14.

They are children of deceased members of the Loyal Order of Moose Lodge, the organization that sponsors the school. Supreme Governor Henry F. Wallerstein will confer diplomas at outdoor commencement exercises at noon. The program will be broadcast over a closed circuit loudspeaker hookup to 630 Moose Lodge in the United States and Canada, including the Klamath Falls lodge where Klamath Falls and Merrill members will gather to hear the hour-long show. The Moose Lodge is proud of the schools record. None of those graduated during the schools 30-year history have been convicted of felonies or have been charged with juvenile delinquency.

Gas Prices Hiked By PNW Stations
PORTLAND (AP)—Standard Stations, Inc., Wednesday announced an increase of 2 cents per gallon on all grades of gasoline.

Regular goes up to 20.5 cents, premium to 25.4 and custom to 28.9. G. H. Rogers, Standard Oil Co. of California's retail division manager, explained that "recently depressed prices have run their course, and we felt that present competitive conditions would permit a partial correction."
