

Porter Backs Neuberger

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Oregon Democratic congressman came out Thursday for the reelection of his colleague, Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore).

Rep. Charles O. Porter said in a letter to Dave Epps, Oregon state Democratic chairman, that Neuberger's record "clearly entitles him to reelection."

Porter took note of the feud between Neuberger and Oregon's senior Democratic senator, Wayne L. Morse.

He told Epps: "Usually I agree with Wayne Morse, but not this time. History will, I predict, cite Wayne Morse of Oregon as one of our nation's outstanding senators but will record with regret his animosity toward his colleague from Oregon."

"The truth is that their political beliefs and their votes on the basic issues before the senate are substantially the same."

"Nobody, certainly not Wayne Morse, expects or wants any member of the Oregon delegation to be a rubber stamp for any other member."

Battle Waged By Cowman

A miniature war has been raging in the Beatty country without fanfare, headlines or gunshots. It is a war between the Pum People and a cowman.

The Pum People are beaver and the cowman is Jay Fairclaw, in the Blue Creek country.

A dry season apparently was evident to the beaver some time ago, so they began a water conservation program. This included

Cavalcade Moves West

CASPER, Wyo. (AP)—The On-to-Oregon Cavalcade of covered wagons moved west today from the Bill Crane homestead in the heart of Wyoming's remote Sweetwater County.

The wagon party camped Thursday night at the site, some 60 miles northwest of Casper.

Nearly 1,000 persons, mostly ranchers from as far as 100 miles away, came Wednesday night to see the wagon party, camped at famed Independence Rock. It is a landmark of the old Oregon Trail, which the centennial group is following.

Mike, who is sponsored by the Lakeview High School student body with the support of other local organizations, will have the privilege of spending a month each with two different families in Germany. He left Portland on June 12 following a view of the Centennial Exposition, in a group of 47 students from the Northwest who are all traveling to Europe under the AFS program. On board the Vista Dome of the Northern Pacific they will have an opportunity to visit various cities of interest on the way, including Chicago and Washington, D.C. Mike sails from New York on June 18 on the SS Zuiderkruis, a Dutch line ship, and will disembark at Rotterdam, Holland. His return trip will be by airline from Germany to New York and the Canadian route by train to Portland, reaching home the first week in September.

Both of the German host families speak English, which will alleviate a language problem for the American youth. During the first month he will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Neff, 16 Tanbenheimstr., Stuttgart. There are two sons in the family, Manfred, 18, and Herbert, 16. Neff is an engineer and the family enjoys traveling in a modest, comfortable manner. They own a car and have a small weekend house near the famous Black Forest, and mineral springs.

During August Mike will be with the Dr. and Mrs. Ernst Morgenroth family. The family consists of a daughter, Elizabeth, 21, who is a university student, and a son, Hartmut. They live at 706 Kesselstr., Enger, which is a small city in Westphalia, Germany. The family is well-to-do, with versatile interests. The young people have a car available two days of the week. Thus, the Lakeview lad will have an opportunity to see both small and large city activities.

Mike is 17 years old and will be a senior at LHS next year. His interests and hobbies include bowling, swimming, skiing, hunting and fishing, basketball, football, track and baseball, art, dramatics
