SF Giants Hanging Tough; World Champions Backslide

Weather Preserves No-Hitter

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Call it great," said Manager Bill Rigney. "Call it lucky," said young lefty Mike McCormick.

Call it a little of both, for McCormick pitched a no-hit shutout in a 3-0 San Francisco victory over the Philadelphia Phillies Friday night that was preserved at five innings by rain.

The Phil's Richie Ashburn singled in the bottom of the sixth and a couple of walks had the bases loaded before the rain came, washing away the frame.

It also hoisted the Giants with a single game of Milwaukee's National League leading Braves once more. The Braves were beaten 9-7 at Chicago. Third place Los Angeles defeated Pittsburgh 9-6. St. Louis beat Cincinnati 2-1 in 10 innings.

McCormick, 20, a one-time $50,000 bonus kid, said the short shutout wasn't his best game of the year, although he officially gave up only a fourth-inning walk to Gene Freese. "I wasn't as strong," he explained, "as I was when I beat the Phillies out on the Coast last month."

Giants 3, Phils 0
Friday night's job was McCormick's fourth shutout in a three-year career. It was his third against the Phils, who have been the victims for a third of his 18 victories in the majors.

The last place Phillies also have been hitless in their last 10 innings, scoreless in the last 17. McCormick (4-5), who had lost two in a row, was given a 1-0 lead in the first on Jim Davenport's triple and an error. Then the Giants, who made three of their five hits off Jack Meyer (4-3) good for extra bases, scored twice in the fifth on a double by Ed Bressoud and Hobie Landrith's second homer.

Cubs 9, Braves 7
The Cubs chased Lew Burdette (9-5) with three-run bursts in the first and second innings, opening up with Lee Walls' third homer and Ernie Banks' 16th. They gave John Buzhardt a 9-1 lead, but Bill Henry's relief helped when the Braves scored five in the seventh, three on Johnny Logan's sixth homer.

Dodgers 9, Bucs 6
Ed Matthews belted a pair of bases-empty home runs for Milwaukee, upping his major league leading total to 22 and once again pulling even with Babe Ruth's record-60 pace of 1927.

Cards 2, Reds 1
The Cardinals, held to two hits for nine innings, beat the Reds and reliever Tom Acker (1-1) on a sacrifice fly by pinch hitter George Crowe after Bill White's single. Ken Boyer's infield hit and a walk had loaded the bases. Lindy McDaniel (4-8) won it in relief of Ernie Broglio, a winless eighth-inning pitcher, who gave up only four hits in his nine innings, one Ed Bailey's fourth home run in the second inning Brooks Lawrence, the Reds' starter, went eight innings, walking home an unearned run in the first.

Big Beaver First Stops PCL Leaders

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Portland Beavers, behind the live-hit pitching of Howie Reed, defeated league-leading Sacramento 7-2 in Friday night's Pacific Coast League baseball game at Sacramento.

Reed struck out eight men and set down the first 18 batters facing him without a hit.

The Beavers won the game in the first inning when they chased across four runs. Three of them came on Jim Greengrass' three-run, out-of-the-park homer.

In other games, the Vancouver Mounties defeated Phoenix 15-7 and San Diego whipped Seattle 2-1.

The results left Sacramento only two games ahead of San Diego's Padres, three ahead of the Mounties and only four and a half games in front of the Portland Beavers.

In a battle of second-division clubs, the Spokane Indians snipped Salt Lake City's victory skinn off at six by beating the Bees 5-2.

Jim Pagliaroni, Ray Barker and Marv Breeding got the other Vancouver homers. Willie McCovey got a pair of round-trippers for Phoenix and Jose Pagan blasted out a four-bagger for the losers.

The Giants lost the services, at least for a couple of weeks, of catcher Al Stieglitz, who suffered a severe gash on his left hand when he was hit by a foul tip.

Russ Heman gave the Rainiers their lone run in the first on Jack Dittmer's single and Paul Pettit's double, then three-hit Seattle the rest of the way. Don Dillard's double, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly tied it up at 1-1 in the eighth and the Pads won in the ninth with another singleton on Billy Moran's double and Steve Janowski's single.

Cuno Barragan, winning pitcher Chuck Churn, Al Norris and big Steve Bilko whacked out homers for the Indians. Churn, who's a four-bagger in the second round out to be the winning run, held the Bees to seven hits in winning his fourth game without a loss.

Two officials gave Lane the first and Ortiz the second. Judge Artie Aldala scored both rounds for Ortiz.

Postponement To Be Aired
ASTORIA, Ore. (AP)—A proposal to postpone the commercial summer salmon fishing season on the Columbia River will be aired Sunday at a meeting in Portland.

The meeting, announced here Friday, will be open to commercial salmon fishermen to meet with the Oregon Game Commission and a representative of the Washington Fisheries Department.

Biologists of the commission recommended the river salmon season for commercial fishing be put off from June 16 until July 15 in view of the low salmon count at Bonneville Dam.

The biologists contend the salmon still are below the dam and the harvest would be too big, which would adversely affect the salmon population.

Commercial fishermen contended at a meeting here Friday the water is clear and the river is high. They say the salmon are in the sanctuary below the dam, and not in the lower reaches of the river where they would be caught.

There will be no spying during the University of Colorado's spring football workouts. A canvas fence has been erected around the Buff practice field on orders of new coach Everett (Sonny) Grandelius.

VOLUNTEERS SHOW - HELP WANTED — Another local business firm showed up at the Mills Little League Ball Park Saturday morning to assure parents of Little Leaguers a place to park while watching their sons enjoy playing on their new home grounds. Working with Ken Carrier, center background, of the city engineer's department, in readying the parking area are Lloyd Ebbinger, left, and H. C. Melton, right, who are associated with Ray Burn's Asphalt Paving Company. Parents are invited to assist the local companies volunteering time, labor and money in making the community project a reality.

Cal Hopes Newell Will Say No

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Athletic Director Greg Englehard expressed hope Friday that California basketball coach Pete Newell will reject any University of Washington bids.

He based his hope partially on California's revised athletic policy.

Newell, approached by the Northwest school to replace Tippee Dye, said he was giving the offer some thought. Dye resigned a few days ago to become athletic director at Wichita.

Pete led the Bears to the NCAA championship this year and to three straight Pacific Coast Conference titles. He's been at California five years.

Before leaving on a Yosemite vacation, Newell made it clear he wasn't happy with many goings-on at Berkeley. He declined details, but did say financial aid to athletes was only a minor issue.

Englehard said the university is in the process of revising its athletic policy because of the switch from the dead PCC to the new Athletic Assn. of Western Universities.

He said the difference between the two conferences is that the PCC spelled out policy while the new Big Four—California, Washington, UCLA and Southern California—calls for each school, for the most part, to write its own rules.

This concerns such important items to big schools as recruitment rules, eligibility, grants-in-aid and scheduling.

"We have to get the final answers from the top level," Englehard said, "and they should be forthcoming in a week or 10 days." That's the time limit Newell set for making his decision public.

"I don't consider the Washington talk a real threat, and I hope that this is all cleared up and blows over when the final decisions are made."

"I certainly want Newell to stay."

Washington Athletic Director George Briggs, a friend of Newell, called the California coach.
